30D. Furnishing board with names of recipients of compensation; confidential information; disclosure.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

69. Commonwealth, counties, cities, towns and districts in general; members of a police or fire force in work under a contract.
73. Election to receive compensation or pension; retirement boards prosecuting claims; attorney; notice to boards; special pensions.
73A. Employment of partially disabled employee; temporary employment to fill vacancy.

PROCEDURE

§ 20. Hospital records as evidence; medical records and reports open to inspection

Copies of hospital records kept in accordance with section seventy of chapter one hundred and eleven, certified by the persons in custody thereof to be true and complete, shall be admissible in evidence in proceedings before the division or any member thereof. The division or any member, before admitting any such copy in evidence, may require the party offering the same to produce the original record. All medical records and reports of hospitals, clinics and physicians of the insurer, employer, or of the employee shall be filed with and open to the inspection of the division so far as relevant to any matter before it. Such reports shall be open to the inspection of any party.

Amended by St.1935, c. 340; St.1945, c. 464; St.1946, c. 390; St.1949, c. 276; St.1953, c. 314, § 6.

§ 20A. Copies of reports of medical examinations furnished employees; reports as evidence

Any employer who maintains a clinic, dispensary or hospital for the treatment of injured employees and any insurer who maintains a clinic, dispensary or hospital for the treatment of injured employees of any insured shall, upon request of any injured employee attending such a clinic, dispensary or hospital, or of his attorney, furnish such employee or his attorney, at cost, with copies of reports of all medical examinations of the injured employee made while at such clinic, dispensary or hospital, showing the history obtained, the nature of the treatment given or prescribed, the diagnosis and the prognosis. No such medical report shall upon objection by the claimant be admissible in evidence in any proceeding under this chapter, unless a copy thereof has been furnished to the claimant, or a person acting in his behalf, or to his attorney, within twenty days after a written request therefor.

Added by St.1945, c. 468. Amended by St.1954, c. 194.

§ 20B. Medical reports of disabled or deceased physicians as evidence

In proceedings before the industrial accident board, the medical report of an incapacitated, disabled or deceased physician who attended or examined the employee, including expressions of medical opinion, shall, at the discretion of the member, be admissible as evidence if the member finds that such medical report was made as the result of such physician's attendance or examination of the employee.

Added by St.1974, c. 598. Amended by St.1977, c. 777.

PAYMENTS

§ 30. Medical and hospital services; physicians other than insurer's; artificial eyes or limbs or appliances

The insurer shall furnish to an injured employee adequate and reasonable medical and hospital services, and medicines if needed, together with the expenses necessarily incidental to such services, and in the case of an injured employee, a physical examination shall be given at least once a year while the employee is a resident in a hospital. The employee may select a physician other than the one provided by the insurer; and in case he shall be treated by a physician of his own selection, or where in case of emergency or for other justifiable cause a physician other than the one provided by the insurer is called in to treat the injured employee, the reasonable cost of the physician's services shall be paid by the insurer, subject to the approval of the division. Such approval shall be granted only if the division finds that the employee was so treated by such physician or that there was such emergency or justifiable cause, and in all cases that the services were adequate and reasonable and the charges reasonable. In any case where the division is of opinion that the fitting of the employee with an artificial eye or limb, or other mechanical appliance, will promote his restoration to or continue him in industry, it may order that he be provided with such an artificial eye, limb or appliance, at the expense of the insurer. The provisions of this section shall be applicable so long as such services are necessary, notwithstanding the fact that maximum compensation under other sections of this chapter may have been received by the injured employee.

Amended by St.1936, c. 164; St.1943, c. 181; St.1946, c. 233, § 1; St.1948, c. 159; St.1953, c. 314, § 6; St.1972, c. 403.

§ 30A. Rehabilitation; duties of board; facilities; qualifications

The rehabilitation board established under section twenty-four of chapter twenty-three shall continuously study the problems of rehabilitation and shall examine such rehabilitation facilities, both private and public, and establish a list of such physicians as are available to render competent rehabilitation services for seriously injured industrial workers. Rehabilitation facilities shall include medical, surgical, hospital, prosthesis, and physical restoration services. No faclity shall be considered as qualified unless it is established to provide rehabilitation services for persons suffering from some specialized or general type of disablement within the field of industrial injury and unless such facility is operated under the supervision of physicians qualified to render rehabilitation services, is staffed with trained and qualified technicians and has received a certificate of qualification from the said commission. No physician shall be considered as qualified unless he has had experience for a reasonable term of years in a qualified rehabilitation facility or is qualified for a special rehabilitation procedure because he holds a certification by an American Board of Specialty.

Added by St.1950, c. 767, § 2. Amended by St.1952, c. 630, § 11; St.1956, c. 602, § 14.

§ 30B. Rehabilitation examiners; referral of employees; reports as evidence; rehabilitation services generally; disputes; hearing; decision; enforcement

The rehabilitation board shall designate to act as impartial rehabilitation examiners physicians who are specially qualified and experienced in special means and methods of rehabilitation. The chairman of the industrial accident board shall appoint such physicians as are so designated by the rehabilitation board to serve as impartial rehabilitation examiners and to assist the division and the board in cases which may require rehabilitation services. A reasonable fee shall be allowed to the impartial rehabilitation examiner by the division, and the insurer shall reimburse the division for the amount so paid.

The division and the rehabilitation board or any member thereof may refer to an impartial rehabilitation examiner any employee entitled to compensation under the provision of this chapter for recommendation of the need and kind of rehabilitation treatment or services required by him. The report of the impartial rehabilitation examiner shall be admissible as evidence in any proceeding before the division or member thereof; provided, that the employee and the insurer have seasonably been furnished with copies thereof. An insurer or self-insurer shall furnish rehabilitation services by a rehabilitation facility or a physician who, in the opinion of the board, is qualified to render rehabilitation services, and shall also furnish vocational services to any injured worker eligible for or receiving compensation under the provisions of this chapter who is determined to be fit and eligible for vocational rehabilitation by the Massachusetts rehabilitation commission, established by section seventy-four of chapter six; provided, that any dispute concerning liability or payments for such vocational rehabilitation by said insurer or self-insurer shall be decided by the industrial accident board after a hearing before a member thereof at which both the employee and the Massachusetts rehabilitation commission, whether or not it has paid for rehabilitation services, shall be parties and the attorney general shall, if requested by the Massachusetts rehabilitation commission, represent said commission in any matter relating thereto. The decision of the member shall be filed in accordance with section eight and unless a claim for review is filed within the period prescribed in section eight, the decision, including any order to the insurer or self-insurer to reimburse a party, shall be enforceable under section eleven. Fees for rehabilitation services shall be the reasonable and necessary cost of such services; expenses for the rehabilitation of the injured employee shall include travel, board and room when necessary, subject to the approval of the division, and shall be paid for by the insurer.

Added by St.1950, c. 767, § 2. Amended by St.1953, c. 314, § 6; St.1956, c. 602, § 15; St.1971, c. 773.

§ 30C. Acceptance of rehabilitation services

Nothing in sections thirty A or thirty B shall be construed as requiring any injured employee to accept rehabilitation services.

Added by St.1956, c. 602, § 16.

§ 30D. Furnishing board with names of recipients of compensation; confidential information; disclosure

Every insurer or self-insurer shall furnish to the industrial accident rehabilitation board, established by section twenty-four of chapter twenty-three, the name and address of every person who has been receiving from such insurer or self-insurer compensation under the provisions of chapter one hundred and fifty-two for a period of six months. Such information shall be confidential and for the exclusive use of said board in the discharge of its duties, and shall not be open to the public, notwithstanding the provisions of section ten of chapter sixty-six or other provisions of law; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the board from publishing such information in statistical form without disclosing the identity of the applicant involved.

Whoever, except with the authority of the board or pursuant to its rules and regulations, or as otherwise required or authorized by law, shall disclose such information shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

Added by St.1950, c. 767, § 2.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 69. Commonwealth, counties, cities, towns and districts in general; members of a police or fire force in work under a contract

The commonwealth and any county, city, town or district having the power of taxation which has accepted chapter eight hundred and seven of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen, and any town or district having the power of taxation which accepts the provisions of this section at an annual meeting or at any special meeting called for the purpose, and any county tuberculosis hospital district under sections seventy-eight to ninety, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and eleven, if the trustees of said district accept the provisions of this section and any regional school district which accepts this section by vote of its regional district school committee, shall pay to laborers, workmen, mechanics, and nurses, employed by it who receive injuries arising out of and in the course of their employment, or, in case of death resulting from such injury, to the persons entitled thereto, the compensation provided by this chapter. Compensation payable under this chapter to an injured employee of the commonwealth or of any such county, city, town or district who receives full maintenance in addition to his cash salary or wage, and compensation payable thereunder to his dependents in case of his death, shall be based upon his average weekly wages plus the sum of thirty dollars a week in lieu of the full maintenance received by him; provided, that, in the discretion of the superintendent or other person in charge or control of any institution where such an employee is employed, such maintenance, computed at the rate per week hereinbefore set forth, may be continued during total incapacity, in which event such weekly compensation shall be based solely upon the cash salary or wages of such employee. No cash salary or wages shall be paid by the commonwealth or any such county, city, town or district to any person for any period for which weekly total incapacity compensation under this chapter is payable, except that such salary or wages may be paid in full until any overtime or vacation which the said employee has to his credit has been used, without deduction of any compensation herein provided for which may be due or become due the said employee during the period in which said employee may be totally incapacitated, and except that such salary or wages may be paid in part until any sick leave allowance which the employee has to his credit has been used, any other provisions of law notwithstanding. An employee who is entitled to any sick leave allowance may take such of his sick leave allowance payment as, when added to the amount of any disability compensation herein provided, will result in the payment to him of his full salary or wages. Sections seventy to seventy-five, inclusive, shall apply to the commonwealth and to any county, city, town or district having the power of taxation which has accepted said chapter eight hundred and seven, and to any town or district having the power of taxation which accepts the provisions of this section as hereinbefore provided, and to any county tuberculosis hospital district under said sections seventy-eight to ninety, inclusive, if the trustees of said district accept the provisions of this section. The terms laborers, workmen and mechanics, as used in sections sixty-eight to seventy-five, inclusive, shall include all employees of any such city or town, except members of a police or fire force, who are engaged in work being done under a contract with the state department of public works, and shall include other employees except members of a police or fire force, regardless of the nature of their work, of the commonwealth or of any such county, city, town, district, county tuberculosis hospital district, or regional school district to such extent as the commonwealth or such county, city, town, district, county tuberculosis hospital district or regional school district, acting respectively through the governor and council, county commissioners, city council, the qualified voters in a town or district meeting, the trustees of such county tuberculosis hospital district, or the regional district school committee, shall determine, as evidenced by a writing filed with the department. The terms laborers, workmen and mechanics, as used in sections sixty-eight to seventy-five, inclusive, shall, if the city council or the town meeting so votes, also include such elected or appointed officers of the city or town, except the mayor, city councillors, selectmen or members of the police or fire force, as the mayor or board of selectmen may, from time to time, designate, as evidenced by a writing filed with the division. Any county, city, town or district which accepts this section may provide for payment of compensation of certain or all of its employees by insurance with an insurer, subject, however, to the provisions and limitations of this section.

The term "employee" as used in this section shall include the manager of the municipal light plant, municipal gas plant or municipal gas and electric plant of any city or town owning and operating such plant either pursuant to the provisions of chapter one hundred and sixty-four or of any special law.

Amended by St.1933, c. 318, § 7; St.1936, c. 260; St.1936, c. 403; St.1939, c. 435; St.1939, c. 468; St.1941, c. 614; St.1945, c. 729; St.1946, c. 422; St.1947, c. 590; St.1951, c. 610, § 2; St.1959, c. 555; St.1960, c. 655; St. 1966, c. 401; St.1969, c. 863; St.1971, c. 1059.

§ 73. Election to receive compensation or pension; retirement boards prosecuting claims; attorney; notice to boards; special pensions

Any person entitled under section sixty-nine to receive compensation from the commonwealth or from such county, city, town or district and any person entitled under section thirty-one, thirty-four, thirty-four A, thirty-five, thirty-five A or thirty-six to receive compensation from the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority or the Massachusetts Port Authority and any police officer of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority so entitled to compensation under said sections and who is also entitled to a pension by reason of the same injury, shall elect whether he will receive such compensation or such pension, and shall not receive both, except in the manner and to the extent provided by section fourteen of chapter thirty-two. A retirement board, for the purposes of the last-mentioned section, may prosecute in the name and for the benefit of a member or beneficiary of its system or his legal representative or any of his dependents, who is or may become entitled to a pension under chapter thirty-two, all claims which he or they may have for compensation under this chapter, if such member, beneficiary, legal representative or dependent has failed, or such board is of opinion that he will fail, to make or prosecute such claim with reasonable promptness and diligence. Said board, so prosecuting such remedy, shall be deemed to be a party in interest and may take an appeal and institute any proceeding which the employee or his legal representative or dependent might take or institute. In proceedings where the commonwealth, county, city, town or district is represented by the attorney general, city solicitor, town counsel or other attorney, the retirement board may be represented by an attorney of its own selection. Agents of the commonwealth under section seventy-five and such agents, and insurers, of counties, cities, towns or districts, executing agreements for compensation under this chapter, shall forthwith notify the appropriate retirement board.

If a person entitled to such compensation from the commonwealth or from such county, city, town or district receives by special act a pension for the same injury, he shall forfeit all claim for compensation; and any compensation received by him or paid by the commonwealth or by such county, city, town or district which employs him for medical or hospital services rendered to him may be recovered back in an action at law. No further payment shall be awarded by vote or otherwise to any person who has claimed and received compensation under sections sixty-nine to seventy-five, inclusive.

Amended by St.1936, c. 318, § 4; St.1937, c. 336, § 23; St.1941, c. 379, § 12; St.1950, c. 209; St.1967, c. 597, § 23; St.1971, c. 1012, § 15; St.1978, c. 487, § 22.

§ 73A. Employment of partially disabled employee; temporary employment to fill vacancy

Any employee who by reason of partial disability is entitled to receive compensation as provided by section sixty-nine from the commonwealth, or from such county, city, town or district, and who in the opinion of the head of any department or of any appointing officer, can be suitably employed in such department or by such officer in a position with duties adapted to his reduced earning capacity, may, subject in the case of a state employee to the approval of the division of personnel administration, be so employed at a salary based on his reduced earning capacity as determined by the industrial accident board or a member thereof after a hearing; provided, that no such employee shall be so employed in a position within the classified civil service without the approval of the personnel administrator. The head or appointing officer of the department in which such employee was employed previous to the injury causing his disability, may, subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-one, temporarily employ a person to fill any vacancy in the original position of such employee that may be caused by his disability, pending the return of such employee to full time employment at his regular duties.

Added by St.1941, c. 649. Amended by St.1974, c. 835, § 156.

TITLE XXII

CORPORATIONS

CHAPTER 155

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO CORPORATIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.
2B. Clinics, hospitals, rest homes, etc., approval of articles of organization and amendments.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 2B. Clinics, hospitals, rest homes, etc., approval of articles of organization and amendments

Before approving articles of organization in connection with the proposed incorporation of a dispensary or clinic, hospital, sanatorium, convalescent or nursing home, infirmary, rest home, or like institution requiring a license from the department of public health or before approving an amendment to such articles of organization of an existing corporation which will give it such power, the state secretary shall refer such articles or amendments thereto to the department of public health, which shall immediately make an investigation as to the applicants for incorporation, the corporation or the petitioners, as the case may be, and the purposes thereof, and of all material facts, including facts tending to show that the probable purpose is to cover any illegal business, or that the applicants, corporation or petitioners are not suitable persons from lack of financial ability or from any other cause, and facts as to the present need for an organization with such purposes at the time and place and with respect to the special circumstances set forth in such articles, amendment or petition. The department of public health shall give the applicant or applicants a public hearing, notice of which shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some paper published in the county where the corporation has or is to have its principal office or rooms, and if said office or rooms are to be in Boston, in some Boston daily paper, the last publication to be at least three days before the day set for the hearing. After such hearing, the commissioner of public health shall make findings of fact as to such purposes, need and suitability, and in accordance therewith shall approve or disapprove such articles, amendment or petition. Thereupon he shall report such findings and action to the secretary. If the commissioner of public health approves the articles, amendment or petition, the secretary shall accept the findings of fact made and reported to him by the commissioner of public health. If the commissioner of public health disapproves the application, the secretary shall refuse to approve the articles of organization, amendment or petition, as the case may be. If he refuses, the applicant or applicants may appeal to the superior court, which shall hear the case and finally determine whether or not the articles of organization or an amendment thereof shall be approved. For the purposes of such appeal, failure by the department of public health to report to the secretary within three months after the date of reference to it by him of articles, an amendment or petition, as herein provided, shall be deemed to be a report to him with disapproval by the commissioner of public health, and failure of the secretary to approve or disapprove articles, an amendment or petition, within four months after their original submission to him by the applicant or applicants shall be deemed to be a refusal by him to approve them. For purposes of this section, the word "clinic" shall have the same meaning as is set forth in section fifty-two of chapter one hundred and eleven, except that it shall not include a professional corporation established under chapter one hundred and fifty-six A, unless such corporation is actually operating a clinic.

Added by St.1958, c. 441. Amended by St.1962, c. 750, § 8; St.1970, c. 451.

§ 1. Definitions

The following words as used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, shall have the following meanings:

"Board of aldermen" or "selectmen" includes the board or other authority exercising the powers of a board of aldermen or of selectmen; but nothing herein shall be construed as affecting the veto power of a mayor of any city.

"Department", the department of public utilities.

"Public way", any way laid out by public authority.

"Railroad", a railroad or railway of the class usually operated by steam power.

"Railroad corporation", the corporation which lays out, constructs, maintains or operates a railroad of the class usually operated by steam power.

"Railroads and railways", all railroads and railways except tramways in mines and marine railways.

EQUIPMENT OF ENGINES AND CARS

§ 172. Reasonable passenger accommodations

Every railroad corporation shall furnish reasonable accommodations for the convenience and safety of passengers; and for every wilful neglect to provide the same shall forfeit not less than five nor more than twenty dollars.

§ 173. Women or children in smoking cars

A railroad corporation shall not require women or children to ride in smoking cars. For a violation of this section the corporation, or any officer or employee thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

§ 174. Drinking water in railroad cars

Every railroad car, except private cars, sleeping cars, dining cars, parlor cars, and the smoking, buffet and observation cars used in connection with the same, while in use for the transportation of passengers, upon a train running thirty miles or more, shall be provided with a sufficient quantity of pure drinking water in such place in the car as will be convenient for the passengers, and with individual drinking cups accessible to the passengers. Said cups shall be in a proper receptacle near the water tank, and said receptacle shall be so placed as to be easily seen and shall be plainly marked as follows:

DRINKING CUPS

ONLY IN THIS CAR

such words to occupy a space not less than two inches wide by three inches long, and to be in clear black letters on a white background. No charge shall be made for the water or for the drinking cups. The water and cups supplied shall be subject to the supervision and approval of the department of public health, which shall enforce this and the following section.

§ 175. Failure to provide drinking water; penalty

Violations of the preceding section shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars for each trip made by a car used for transporting passengers and not provided with water and utensils for its distribution in accordance with the preceding section.

§ 176. Other necessary appliances

The department may require a railroad corporation to equip its cars with such other appliances as, in the judgment of the department, are necessary for the further protection of life in all passenger trains used in the commonwealth.

MATTER OF CONSTRUCTION

§ 1. Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words shall have the following meanings:

"Board of aldermen", or "selectmen", includes the board or other authority exercising the powers of a board of aldermen or of selectmen, but nothing in this chapter shall affect the veto power of a mayor of a city.

"Company", a street railway company.

"Department", department of public utilities.

"Extension", any railway constructed by a street railway company in a city or town in addition to that authorized by its original location therein.

"Location", as applied to a street railway, the grant to a street railway company of the right to construct, maintain and operate a street railway in a public way or place.

"Original", as applied to a street railway location in a city or town, the first location granted to the company in such city or town.

"Public way", any way laid out by public authority.

"Street railway" or "railway", a railway, including poles, wires or other appliances and equipment connected therewith, of the class operated by motive power other than steam, and usually constructed upon public ways and places.

FARES AND ACCOMMODATIONS

§ 105. Additional passenger accommodations

If the department deems additional accommodations including waiting rooms, stations, water closets and other sanitary conveniences for the traveling public are required upon any street railway, it may, after due notice to the company and a hearing, make an order for such additional accommodations, and may alter, renew or revoke the order. A company which, for more than one week after receiving written notice of such order, fails to comply therewith, shall forfeit to the use of the city or town where such additional accommodations are to be used, or if they are to be used in more than one city or town, to the use equally of such cities or towns, one hundred dollars for each day thereafter during which such failure continues.

DEFINITIONS

§ 1. Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words shall have the following meanings:

"Articles of organization", (i) the articles of organization of a corporation which were filed subsequent to October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-three, (ii) any agreement of association, special act of incorporation, and other charter documents, including by-law provisions and stockholder votes in effect prior to October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-three, which, subsequent to that date, would be included in articles of organization, and all amendments thereto, effective prior to October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-three, and (iii) any of the following amendments made or filed from time to time subsequent to October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-three:

(1) a certificate of a vote establishing a series filed pursuant to section twenty-six of chapter one hundred and fifty-six B;

(2) articles of amendment filed pursuant to section eight B;

(3) restated articles of organization filed pursuant to section eight C;

(4) certificates of confirmation of proceedings filed pursuant to section eight D;

(5) articles of consolidation or merger filed pursuant to section one hundred and two A;

(6) articles of dissolution filed pursuant to section one hundred of chapter one hundred and fifty-six B;

(7) a certificate as to the revival of a corporation filed pursuant to section one hundred and eight of chapter one hundred and fifty-six B.

"Corporation", a corporation to which this chapter applies, as set forth in section three.

"Department", the department of public utilities.

"Electric company", a corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth for the purpose of making by means of water power, steam power or otherwise and selling, or distributing and selling, electricity within the commonwealth, or authorized by special act so to do, even though subsequently authorized to make or sell gas.

"Gas company", a corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth for the purpose of making and selling, or distributing and selling, gas within the commonwealth, even though subsequently authorized to make or sell electricity.

"Supplying electricity in bulk", engaging in the business of making and selling or distributing and selling electricity to electric companies, railroads, street railways or electric railroads, or to municipalities for municipal use or re-sale to their inhabitants, or to persons, associations or corporations under limitations imposed by special law or under section ninety or corresponding provisions of earlier laws.

Amended by St.1973, c. 860, § 1.

§ 2. Construction

In construing sections seventy, seventy-one, seventy-four to eighty-three, inclusive, ninety-two to ninety-five, inclusive, one hundred and three, one hundred and five, one hundred and six, one hundred and nine, one hundred and twelve to one hundred and fourteen, inclusive, one hundred and sixteen, one hundred and seventeen, one hundred and nineteen, one hundred and twenty, one hundred and twenty-one, one hundred and twenty-three to one hundred and twenty-seven, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms "corporation", "gas company" and "electric company" shall include all persons, firms, associations and private corporations which own or operate works or a distributing plant for the manufacture and sale or distribution and sale of gas for heating and illuminating purposes, or of electricity, within the commonwealth; and in construing sections one hundred and three, one hundred and five, one hundred and nine, one hundred and twelve to one hundred and fourteen, inclusive, one hundred and sixteen, one hundred and seventeen, one hundred and twenty, one hundred and twenty-one, and one hundred and twenty-three to one hundred and twenty-seven, inclusive, the terms "corporation", "gas company" and "electric company" shall include municipal corporations which own or may acquire municipal lighting plants.

INSPECTION OF GAS AND METERS

§ 116A. Disconnection of services in case of fire, explosion or other disaster

In the event of a fire, explosion or other disaster, fire fighters and police officers shall permit any officer or servant of a gas or electric company who is duly authorized and displays an identification badge, as provided in section one hundred and sixteen, to enter any area or building in order to shut off the gas or electricity, which is or may become a source of danger to the public.

Added by St.1966, c. 351.

SHUTTING OFF SERVICE

§ 124. Entry of premises to stop gas or electricity

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a gas or electric company may stop gas or electricity from entering the premises of any person failing to pay the amount due therefor or for the use of the meter or instrument necessary to measure supply of service; and for such purpose, the officers, servants or workmen thereof may, after three days' notice by mail, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, enter his premises between the hours of eight in the forenoon and four in the afternoon and separate and take away such meter or other property of the company, and may disconnect any meter, pipe, wires, fittings or other works, whether they are property of the company or not, from its mains, pipes or wires. In the event a person is being serviced by gas or electricity at two or more premises at the same time, a gas or electric company may enter only those premises to which the unpaid amount relates.

Amended by St.1935, c. 237; St.1935, c. 376, § 2; St.1952, c. 102; St.1965, c. 118, § 1; St.1971, c. 824; St.1973, c. 858, § 1.

§ 124A. Shutting off service during serious illness

No gas or electric company shall cut off or fail to restore gas or electric service in any residence during such time as there is a serious illness therein, provided that a registered physician or the local board of health certifies in writing to the company that such serious illness exists and provided, further, that the customer cannot afford to pay any overdue bill because of a financial hardship. The department may promulgate such rules and regulations consistent with this section as it deems reasonable and necessary to carry out the intent of this section. Any willful violation of this section or section one hundred and twenty-four by any gas or electric company shall be punished by a fine or not more than fifty dollars.

Added by St.1935, c. 376, § 1. Amended by St.1965, c. 118, § 2; St.1969, c. 802, § 1.

§ 124B. Shutting off gas or electric service for failure to pay for appliances; prohibition

No gas or electric company shall shut off gas or electric service in any home for the reason that a person has failed to pay for an appliance purchased from such company.

Added by St.1965, c. 130.

§ 124C. Nursing homes, homes for the aged, convalescent homes, and hospitals; shutting off gas or electric service

No gas or electric utility intending to shut off gas or electricity in any licensed nursing home, home for the aged, convalescent home or hospital, shall do so without first giving fourteen days' notice in writing to the customer and to the department. Such utility may thereafter shut off such service only upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the department.

Added by St.1971, c. 767.

§ 124D. Shutting off gas or electric service to tenants restricted; procedures; violations; penalty

No gas or electric company shall shut off gas or electric service to any tenant residing in a dwelling unit who, under a rental arrangement, receives the benefit of gas or electricity or heat, hot water, cooking or lighting, or any combination thereof, but who is not the customer of record of the gas or electric company which supplies such gas or electricity, without first complying with the notice provisions of section one hundred and twenty-four and regulations of the department in compliance with such regulations, and has given notice to each tenant affected thereby. Such notice shall contain the following information:

(a) the amount then due and payable for such gas or electric service;

(b) the date on or after which such service will be shut off, such date to be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days, as determined by the department, after the day on which such notice is first given;

(c) the date on which said notice is given; and

(d) the right of the occupants of such building to pay the amount due or such portion thereof as is prescribed by regulation of the department and thereby avoid a cessation of service, and to recover the amounts so paid from the person to whom they would otherwise pay their rent.

Any officer or servant of such company as provided in section one hundred and sixteen may, at any reasonable time, enter the common hallways of such building for the purpose of complying with the provisions of this section. Any person who removes, interferes, or tampers with such notice or the provision thereof shall be guilty of a violation of this section and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

At any time after the date such notice is given any persons who are occupants of the dwelling units within such building may pay such company the amount due or such portion thereof as is mutually agreed upon by the occupants and the company, provided that where no such agreement is reached, the department shall make a final determination of the amount of said portion, in order to avoid cessation of service. If such final determination by the department is not made prior to the date on which service otherwise would have been terminated, such service shall be continued for a period not to exceed fifteen days, during which time the department shall render said final determination. If such amount is received after service has been shut off, service shall be restored by the company as soon as practicable. Any such occupant who has paid all or any portion of said amount may subsequently recover the amount paid to the company either by deducting said amount from any rent or payment on account of taxes or operating expenses then or thereafter due from such occupant to the person to whom he would otherwise pay his rent or by obtaining reimbursement from the person to whom he last paid rent. The company shall, upon receiving any such payment, notify the person liable for gas or electric service as stated in said notice of the amount or amounts paid by any occupant pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Any waiver of the provisions of this section in any lease or rental agreement shall be void and unenforceable. The provisions of section eighteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-six and section two A of chapter two hundred and thirty-nine shall apply to any reprisal against any occupant for exercising his rights pursuant to this section.

Any gas or electric company wilfully violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars for each such violation.

The department shall establish from time to time such reasonable rules and regulations consistent with this section as may be necessary.

§ 124E. Termination of gas and electric service; households with residents 65 or older

No gas or electric company shall shut off gas or electric service to any household in which all residents are sixty-five years of age or older, for failure to pay an outstanding indebtedness for said service without first complying with all rules and regulations of the department related thereto.

The department shall promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to ensure that termination of service shall be authorized only after said company has complied with such reasonable methods of collection as may be approved by the department.

Added by St.1975, c. 422.

§ 124F. Shutting off gas or electric service; financial hardship

No gas or electric company shall between November fifteenth and March fifteenth shut off gas or electric service to any residential customer who cannot pay an overdue charge because of financial hardship, when such gas or electric service is used to provide heat or to operate the heating system of the customer's unit or building. The department may promulgate such rules and regulations consistent with this section as it deems reasonable and necessary to implement the provision of this section.

Added by St.1979, c. 802, § 2.

§ 125. Refusal to supply because of default of previous occupant

A gas or electric company shall not refuse to supply gas or electricity for any building or premises to a person applying therefor who is not in arrears to it for any gas or electricity previously supplied to him, because a bill for gas or electricity remains unpaid by a previous occupant of such building or premises.

INTERFERENCE WITH FACILITIES

§ 126. Wilful injury or interference with gas meter or other property; penalty

Whoever wilfully or fraudulently injures, disconnects, removes or otherwise interferes with, or suffers to be injured, disconnected, removed or otherwise interfered with, any meter, pipes or fittings belonging to a gas company or to any person, or prevents a meter from duly registering the quantity of gas supplied through the same, or in any way hinders or interferes with its proper action or just registration, or fraudulently burns or wastes the gas of such company or of any person, or whoever attaches a pipe or any appliance to a main or pipe belonging to a gas company, or, without the written consent of such company, uses or causes to be used any gas supplied by such company, unless the same passes through a meter set by the company, or uses or causes to be used, any gas charged to any person without his written consent, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

§ 127. Intentional injury to electric meter or other property; penalty

Whoever unlawfully and with intent to avoid payment by himself or another person for a prospective or previously rendered service the charge or compensation for which is measured by a meter or other mechanical device injures or destroys, or suffers to be injured or destroyed, any meter, pipe, conduit, wire, line, pole, lamp or other apparatus belonging to a corporation engaged in the manufacture or sale of electricity or to any person, or whoever unlawfully and with intent to avoid payment by himself or another person for a prospective or previously rendered service prevents an electric meter from duly registering the quantity of electricity supplied, or in any way interferes with its proper action or just registration, or, without the consent of such corporation or person, unlawfully and intentionally diverts or suffers to be diverted any electrical current from any wire of such corporation or person, or otherwise unlawfully and intentionally uses or causes to be used, without the consent of such corporation or person, any electricity manufactured or distributed by such corporation, or charged to such person, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Amended by St.1961, c. 290; St.1977, c. 191, § 2.

WATER COMPANIES

§ 1. Definitions

In sections one to eleven, inclusive, the following words shall have the following meanings:—

"Corporation" or "company", every person, partnership, association or corporation, other than a municipal corporation, and other than a landlord supplying his tenant, engaged in the distribution and sale of water in the commonwealth through its pipes or mains.

"Department", the department of public utilities.

Amended by St.1962, c. 154.

§ 1A. Adequacy of distribution system; approval

No corporation or company shall engage in the distribution or sale of water in the commonwealth through its pipes or mains unless written approval of the adequacy of its distribution system has first been obtained from the department, and unless proof of compliance with chapter one hundred and eleven has been furnished to the department.

Added by St.1965, c. 385, § 2.

§ 1B. Rules and regulations

The department may establish from time to time such reasonable rules and regulations consistent with this chapter as may be necessary to carry out the administration thereof.

Added by St.1971, c. 243.

§ 3. Powers of department of environmental quality engineering; impairment

This chapter shall not affect or impair the powers and duties of the department of environmental quality engineering with respect to water supply under chapter one hundred and eleven.

Amended by St.1975, c. 706, § 289.

§ 4B. Water companies; eminent domain or purchase; waters, water rights, lands and easements

Any water company or corporation subject to this chapter having franchise rights encompassing an entire city, town or district may, subject to determination by the department after notice and a public hearing as to the public convenience and necessity, and with the advice and consent of the department of environmental quality engineering, take by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine or acquire by purchase or otherwise and hold the waters, or any portion thereof, of any pond, brook, spring, stream or groundwater sources within its franchise territory not already appropriated for purposes of public water supply, and any water or flowage rights connected therewith, and such lands, rights of way and other easements as may be necessary for collecting, storing, holding, purifying and treating such water and protecting and preserving the purity thereof, and for conveying the same to any place within its franchise territory.

Added by St.1958, c. 353. Amended by St.1975, c. 706, § 290.

§ 6. Engineering service and advice furnished by department of environmental quality engineering

In all proceedings conducted by the department under the laws relating to the petition of any water company for authorization to issue capital stock or bonds, and in all matters connected with the determination by the department of any question relating thereto and before any such authorization is given, the department of environmental quality engineering shall, on request of the department, furnish without charge engineering services and advice for its assistance and guidance in such proceedings.

Amended by St.1975, c. 706, § 291.

§ 11B. Penalty; shutting off water service to domicile occupied by seriously ill person after notice

No water company shall intentionally shut off the water service to any domicile occupied by a person who is seriously ill if the company receives written notice from the municipal health authorities or a registered physician verifying the fact of such illness. Any company violating this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars for each day during which the violation continues.

Added St.1957, c. 220.

§ 11C. Indebtedness of prior property owner; water supply for new owner

A water company shall not refuse to supply water to any premises on application of the owner thereof because of the indebtedness of a prior owner to the said water company for water previously furnished to said premises.

Added by St.1957, c. 220.

§ 11D. Entry on premises to examine water meters and facilities

Any person employed by a city, town, district or company engaged in supplying water who displays on his outer garment a suitable identification badge bearing his photograph, issued to him by his employer, may at any reasonable time enter any premises supplied with water by such city, town, district or company for the purpose of examining or removing meters, pipes, fittings and works for supplying or regulating the supply of water and of ascertaining the quantity of water consumed or supplied.

Added St.1961, c. 305, § 2.

§ 11E. Shutting off water to non-customer occupants in residendential buildings; notice; procedures; payment of amount due; effect of waiver; reprisals; penalties; rules and regulations

No water company shall shut off the flow of water to any residential building in which the occupant thereof is not the customer of record of said company, without first complying with the notice provisions of section eleven A and also providing notice to each affected dwelling unit in a manner prescribed by regulation of the department. Such notice shall contain the following information:

(a) the amount then due and payable for such water service;

(b) the date on or after which such service will be shut off, such date to be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days, as determined by the department, after the day on which such notice is first given;

(c) the date on which said notice is given; and

(d) the right of the occupants of such building to pay the amount due or such portion thereof as is prescribed by regulation of the department and thereby avoid a cessation of service, and to recover the amounts so paid from the person to whom they would otherwise pay their rent.

Any employee of such company as provided in section eleven D may, at any reasonable time, enter the common hallways of such building to post or deliver said notice. Any person who removes, interferes, or tampers with such notice of the provisions thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

At any time after the date such notice is given any occupant or occupants of the dwelling units within such building may pay such company the amount due or such portion thereof as is mutually agreed upon by the occupants and the company, provided that where no such agreement is reached, the department shall make a final determination of the amount of said portion, in order to avoid cessation of service. If such final determination by the department is not made prior to the date on which service otherwise would have been terminated, such service shall be continued for a period not to exceed fifteen days, during which time the department shall render said final determination. If such amount is received after service has been shut off, service shall be restored by the company as soon as practicable. Any such occupant who has paid all or any portion of said amount may subsequently recover the amount paid to the company, either by deducting said amount from any rent or payment on account of taxes or operating expenses then or thereafter due from such occupant to the person to whom he would otherwise pay his rent, or by obtaining reimbursement from the person to whom he last paid rent. The company shall, upon receiving any such payment, notify the person liable for service as stated in said notice of the amount or amounts paid by any occupant pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Any waiver of the provisions of this section in any lease or rental agreement shall be void and unenforceable. The provisions of section eighteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-six and section two A of chapter two hundred and thirty-nine shall apply to any reprisal against any occupant for exercising his rights pursuant to this section.

Any water company wilfully violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars for each such violation.

The department shall establish from time to time such reasonable rules and regulations consistent with this section as may be necessary for its implementation.

Added by St.1974, c. 270, § 2.

CHAPTER 167

BANKS AND BANKING

GENERAL PROVISIONS

56C. Accounts to receive security deposits for residential real property.

§ 56C. Accounts to receive security deposits for residential real property

Any bank, national banking association, savings and loan association, or federal credit union may establish an account to receive deposits from a lessor acting as a trustee for funds received and held by such trustee pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section fifteen B of chapter one hundred and eighty-six. Such account may be established as required by said section fifteen B for the purpose of holding security deposits taken by a lessor of residential dwelling units owned or managed by said lessor, but the terms of said account shall be such as to place said deposit beyond the claim of a creditor of the lessor, including a foreclosing mortgagee or trustee in bankruptcy, and as will provide for the transfer of said deposit to a subsequent owner of any property for which such security deposit was taken. Interest accruing on said deposit shall be paid to the lessor pursuant to the terms of the deposit. Withdrawals and payments made by the bank from said account shall discharge the liability of said bank to all persons.

§ 1. Definitions

In this chapter the following words shall have the following meanings:

"Commissioner", the commissioner of insurance.

"Covered dependent", a dependent for whose medical or chiropractic care provision is made in a subscription certificate issued by a medical service corporation to a subscriber.

"Dependent", the spouse, child or foster child of a subscriber, or an adult relative dependent upon the subscriber for his support.

"Medical service", the medical services ordinarily provided by registered optometrists and physicians in accordance with accepted practices in the community where the services are rendered.

"Chiropractic service", the chiropractic services ordinarily provided by registered chiropractors in accordance with accepted practices in the community where the services are rendered.

"Visual service", the optometric services ordinarily provided by registered optometrists and physicians in accordance with accepted practices in the community where the services are rendered.

"Medical service", the medical services ordinarily provided by registered physicians in accordance with accepted practices in the community where the services are rendered.

"Nonprofit medical service plan", a plan operated by a medical service corporation under the provisions of this chapter, whereby the cost of medical and chiropractic service and other health services furnished to subscribers and covered dependents is paid by the corporation to subscribers, to participating physicians, to participating chiropractors, and to such other physicians as are provided for herein, and to providers of other health services.

"Participating physician", a registered physician under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twelve who agrees in writing with a medical service corporation to perform medical service for subscribers and covered dependents and to abide by the by-laws, rules and regulations of such corporation.

"Participating chiropractor", a registered chiropractor under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twelve who agrees in writing with a medical service corporation to perform chiropractic service for subscribers and covered dependents and to abide by the by-laws, rules and regulations of such corporation.

"Participating optometrist", a registered optometrist who agrees in writing with a medical service corporation to perform visual service for subscribers and covered dependents and to abide by the by-laws, rules and regulations of such corporation.

"Registered physician", a physician registered to practice medicine in the commonwealth as provided in section two of chapter one hundred and twelve.

"Registered chiropractor", a chiropractor registered to practice chiropractic in the commonwealth as provided in section eighty-nine of chapter one hundred and twelve.

"Subscriber", a person who has subscribed to a non-profit medical service plan and to whom a subscription certificate has been issued in accordance with the provisions of section six.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1965, c. 442, § 1; St.1968, c. 432, § 8; St.1969, c. 880, § 1; St.1971, c. 543, § 1; St.1978, c. 574, § 1; St.1979, c. 365, § 1.

§ 2. Incorporators; formation; articles of organization; certification

For the purpose of establishing, maintaining and operating a nonprofit medical service plan, seven or more persons may form a medical service corporation. Such a corporation shall be formed in the manner prescribed in and subject to section nine of chapter one hundred and fifty-five and sections six and eight to twelve, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and fifty-six, except as follows:

The agreement of association of a corporation having no capital stock may omit the statement of the amount of the capital stock and the par value and number of its shares. The fee to be paid to the state secretary upon the filing of the articles of organization shall be twenty-five dollars.

The articles of organization specified in section ten of said chapter one hundred and fifty-six, with the records and by-laws of the corporation, shall be submitted to the commissioner instead of to the commissioner of revenue, and he shall have the powers and perform the duties relative thereto specified in section eleven of said chapter one hundred and fifty-six.

The certificate issued by the state secretary under section twelve of said chapter one hundred and fifty-six shall be modified to conform to the requirements of this section.

The commissioner shall not approve the articles of organization of such a corporation until he is satisfied by such examination as he may make and such evidence as he may require, that the incorporators are of good repute and intend in good faith to operate the corporation. He shall execute a certificate of his findings, which shall be attached to the articles of organization prior to the filing thereof with the state secretary.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1957, c. 698, § 14; St.1978, c. 514, § 216.

§ 3. By-laws; contracts with hospital service corporations; joinder of medical service corporations; contracts with governmental agencies

The by-laws of a medical service corporation may contain any lawful provisions approved by the commissioner and shall provide that a majority of the incorporators or members of the corporation and a majority of the directors shall at all times be persons who are not providers of health services licensed under the laws of the commonwealth and that a majority of the directors shall at all times be persons who are or agree to become subscribers to the nonprofit medical service plan. The by-laws of such a corporation may define the qualifications of those persons eligible to become subscribers as provided in section five. Any such corporation may adopt such rules and regulations as may be consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Any medical service corporation may contract with a corporation formed under chapter one hundred and seventy-six A for the joint or co-operative administration of their affairs and for the joint or co-operative writing and issuing of subscription certificates.

Any medical service corporation may join with any other medical service corporation organized either under the laws of the commonwealth or of any other state for the purpose of establishing or maintaining an agency or corporation designed to facilitate the provision of medical service for residents of the commonwealth employed by firms having employees located in more than one state and may enter into contracts with such an agency or corporation or with a corporation owned by such an agency or corporation for the joint administration of their business and for the joint and cooperative writing and issuing of certificates, provided that any corporation or agency which is not a nonprofit medical service corporation with which there is joint and cooperative writing and issuing of certificates shall be qualified to do business in the commonwealth.

Any medical service corporation may contract with any agency of the United States of America, of the commonwealth or of any city or town within the commonwealth or with any corporation organized under general or special laws for any of the purposes mentioned in chapter one hundred and eighty for the purpose of providing medical service or other health services or reimbursement for such medical service or other health services.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1948, c. 359; St.1953, c. 142; St.1953, c. 143; St.1955, c. 186; St.1968, c. 432, § 11; St.1971, c. 543, § 2; St.1979, c. 365, § 2.

§ 4. Contracts for medical, chiropractic, visual, surgical, and other health services; approval, subscription certificates; classification of risks

Any medical service corporation may enter into contracts with its subscribers and with participating physicians, participating chiropractors, participating optometrists, dentists, podiatrists, and other providers of health services licensed under the laws of the commonwealth for such medical, chiropractic, visual, surgical and other health services as may lawfully be rendered by them to subscribers and to their dependents and may pay for such services. The form of agreement with such participating physicians, participating chiropractors, participating optometrists, dentists, podiatrists and other providers of health services and the methods of compensating such participating physicians, participating chiropractors, participating optometrists, dentists, podiatrists and other providers of health services for their services to subscribers or covered dependents shall at all times be subject to the written approval of the commissioner, but no participating physicians or participating chiropractors shall be denied their right to enter into a contract with any medical service corporation by reason of any unfair or arbitrary discrimination.

Any agreement between a medical service corporation and a person whereby such corporation undertakes to furnish benefits for medical service to said person and his covered dependents, if any, shall be considered a non-group medical service agreement. Under such an agreement the form of subscription certificate and the rates charged by such corporation to the subscribers shall be filed with and receive the prior approval of the commissioner. No such agreement shall be approved if he finds that the benefits provided therein are unreasonable in relation to the rate charged, nor if the rates charged are excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Any agreement between a medical service corporation and a group of five or more persons or with the employer, employers or other representatives of such group whereby the medical service corporation undertakes to furnish benefits for medical service to said persons and to their covered dependents, if any, shall be considered a group medical service agrement; provided that eligible persons in a group who are enrollees under a group health maintenance contract, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred seventy-six G, shall be included for purposes of determining the number of persons within a group having a medical service agreement.

Under such a group medical service agreement, subscription certificates and the rates charged by the corporation to the subscribers shall be filed with the commissioner within thirty days after their effective date, and shall be subject to subsequent disapproval by the commissioner if he finds that the benefits provided therein are unreasonable in relation to the rate charged, or that the rates charged are excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory; and provided that group plan contracts issued and rates charged by a nonprofit medical service corporation to its subscribers providing supplemental coverage to medicare shall be subject to the provisions of this section requiring prior filing and prior approval of the commissioner if the subscribers, and not their employer, employers or representatives, are billed directly for such contracts.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit as unreasonable or unfairly discriminatory the establishment of classifications or modifications of classifications of risks based upon size, expense, management, individual experience, purpose, location or dispersion of hazard or any other reasonable considerations, or to prohibit retrospective refunds. Acquisition costs in connection with the solicitation of subscribers and costs of administration shall at all times be limited to such amounts as the commissioner shall approve.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1950, c. 472; St.1959, c. 130; St.1960, c. 307, § 1; St.1965, c. 442, § 2; St.1968, c. 432, § 9; St.1970, c. 443, §§ 33, 34; St.1971, c. 543, § 3; St.1976, c. 454, § 5; St.1978, c. 361, § 2; St.1978, c. 574, § 2.

§ 4A. Mental illness expenses; inclusion as benefits

Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service agreement which shall be delivered or issued or renewed in this commonwealth shall provide as benefits to all individual subscribers and members within the commonwealth and to all group members having a principal place of employment within the commonwealth for expense rising from mental or nervous conditions as hereinafter set forth. Such benefits shall be as described in the standard nomenclature of the American Psychiatric Association which are at least equal to the following minimum requirements:

(a) In the case of benefits based upon confinement as an inpatient in a mental hospital under the direction and supervision of the department of mental health, or in a private mental hospital licensed by the department of mental health, the period of confinement for which benefits shall be payable shall be at least sixty days in any calendar year.

(b) In the case of benefits based upon confinement as an inpatient in a licensed or accredited general hospital, such benefits shall be no different than for any other illness.

(c) In the case of out-patient benefits, these shall cover, to the extent of five hundred dollars over a twelve-month period, services furnished (1) by a comprehensive health service organization, (2) by a licensed or accredited hospital (3) or subject to the approval of the department of mental health services furnished by a community mental health center or other mental health clinic or day care center which furnishes mental health services or (4) consultations or diagnostic or treatment sessions, provided that such services under this clause are rendered by a psychotherapist or by a psychologist licensed under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twelve. For purposes of this clause "psychotherapist" shall mean a person fully licensed to practice medicine under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twelve, who devotes a substantial portion of his time to the practice of psychiatry.

Added by St.1973, c. 1174, §§ 5, 6.

§ 4A½. Treatment for alcoholism; inclusion of expenses as benefits

Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service agreement, except certificates which provide supplemental coverage to Medicare or other governmental programs, which shall be delivered or issued or renewed in this commonwealth shall provide as benefits to all individual subscribers and members within the commonwealth and to all group members having a principal place of employment within the commonwealth, for expense for the treatment of alcoholism as hereinafter set forth:

(a) In the case of benefits based upon confinement as an inpatient in an accredited or licensed hospital or in any other public or private facility thereof providing services especially for the detoxification or rehabilitation of intoxicated persons or alcoholics and which is licensed by the department of public health for those services, such benefits shall be at least thirty days in any calendar year.

(b) In the case of outpatient benefits these shall cover, to the extent of five hundred dollars over a twelve month period, services furnished by an accredited or licensed hospital, or by any public or private facility or portion thereof providing services especially for the rehabilitation of intoxicated persons or alcoholics and which is licensed by the department of public health for those purposes. Consultations or treatment sessions furnished by a facility in this clause shall be rendered by a physician or psychotherapist fully licensed under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twelve who devotes a substantial portion of his time treating intoxicated persons or alcoholics. For purposes of this clause "psychotherapist" shall mean a person fully licensed to practice medicine under the provisions of said chapter one hundred and twelve and who devotes a substantial portion of his time to the practice of psychiatry.

Added by St.1973, c. 1221, §§ 5, 6. Amended by St.1977, c. 504, § 1. Renumbered and amended by St.1979, c. 526.

§ 4B. [Blank]

§ 4C. Dependent coverage for newborn infants or adoptive children; inclusion of medical expenses as benefits

Any subscription certificate, which provides for dependent coverage, under an individual or group medical service agreement which shall be delivered or issued for delivery or subsequently renewed in the commonwealth shall include as insured members, newborn infants and newborn infants of a dependent of a subscription certificate holder immediately from the moment of birth and thereafter and shall also include as insured members adoptive children of a subscription certificate holder immediately from the date of the filing of a petition to adopt under chapter two hundred and ten and thereafter if the child has been residing in the home of the subscription certificate holder as a foster child for whom the holder has been receiving foster care payments, or, in all other cases, immediately from the date of placement by a licensed placement agency of a child for purposes of adoption in the home of the subscription certificate holder and thereafter. Such insurance shall provide benefits for expense arising from illness, injury, congenital malformation, or premature birth. If payment of a subscription fee is required to provide coverage for a child, the policy or contract may require that notification of birth of a newly born child or of filing of a petition to adopt a foster child or of placement of a child for purposes of adoption and payment of the required fees must be furnished to the non-profit service corporation. For the purposes of this section, "notification" may mean submission of a claim.

Added by St.1974, c. 785, § 3. Amended by St.1975, c. 196, § 3. Renumbered by St.1976, c. 203, § 2.

No corporation subject to this chapter shall refuse for the reason of blindness or deafness, to contract with a subscriber a subscription certificate under an individual medical service agreement.

Added by St.1975, c. 595, § 3. Renumbered by St.1976, c. 203, § 3.

§ 5. Subscribers; qualifications; misrepresentation

Any person residing in the commonwealth shall have the right to become a subscriber of a medical service corporation if his qualifications meet those specified in the by-laws of such corporation, provided that such a corporation may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a subscription certificate to, or upon due notice cancel the subscription certificate of, any person who has made any fraudulent claim or representation to the corporation or to a participating physician, or has been guilty of uncoöperative or unethical dealings with the corporation, or has failed to pay dues and assessments seasonably and promptly or for any other cause which may be approved by the commissioner.

Added by St.1941, c. 306.

§ 6. Subscription certificate; issuance; content

A subscription certificate shall be issued by a medical service corporation to each non-group subscriber. No subscription certificate shall be issued unless the commissioner shall have approved in writing the form of certificate nor unless it contains in substance the following provisions:—

(a) A statement of the medical service to be paid for by the corporation, and if any medical service is excepted, a statement of such exception.

(b) A statement of the duration of the agreement and of the terms and conditions upon which it may be extended, renewed, revised, canceled or otherwise terminated.

(c) A statement of the period of grace which will be allowed for making any payment due from the subscriber under the contract, which in any event shall not be less than ten days.

(d) A statement that any child who is mentally or physically incapable of earning his own living who is eligible for services by membership of his parent under a family contract shall be eligible under the membership of his parent as a member of such family contract so long as he continues to be mentally or physically incapable of earning his own living, without any limitation as to age, subject, however, to such rules and regulations, premiums or additional premiums as the commissioner of insurance may approve.

(e) A statement that within fifteen days after receipt by the corporation of notice by a subscriber, or someone acting on his behalf, that such subscriber or a covered dependent of such subscriber has received services for which the subscriber is entitled to direct payment of benefits under a subscription certificate, the corporation shall furnish the subscriber such forms as are usually furnished by it to establish a subscriber's entitlement to such benefits; and that within forty-five days after receipt by the corporation of completed forms for such benefits, the corporation will (i) make payment for such benefits, (ii) notify the subscriber in writing of the reason or reasons for nonpayment, or (iii) notify the subscriber in writing of what additional information or documentation is necessary to establish entitlement to such benefits.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1957, c. 115, § 1; St.1960, c. 307, § 2; St.1974, c. 732, § 2.

§ 6A. Limited extension of benefits

Whenever a subscriber or a group non-profit medical service plan, other than the one authorized under the provisions of chapter thirty-two A or chapter thirty-two B, becomes ineligible for continued participation in such group plan because of involuntary lay-off or death, the coverage originally provided by such plan for the subscriber and his dependents shall be continued as provided herein for a period of thirty-nine weeks from the date of such ineligibility or until such subscriber and his dependents become eligible for benefits under another group plan, whichever occurs first but in no event shall such continuation period exceed the period during which the member was most recently covered under such group plan. The employer or policyholder shall notify the involuntary laid-off member, surviving spouse of a deceased member and dependents of their eligibility to participate in such plans. The involuntary laid-off member, surviving spouse of a deceased member and dependents may elect to continue participation in such plan by giving at least thirty days written notice thereof to the employer or policyholder. Such member or surviving spouse or dependents, as the case may be, shall be responsible for the payment of the whole premium due for such coverage, including any and all amounts normally paid by the employer as employee's benefits, to the employer or policyholder throughout the extension period. After timely receipt of the premium payment from the responsible individual, if the employer or certificate holder fails to make payment to the insurer or hospital or medical service corporation with the result that coverage is terminated, the employer or certificate holder shall be liable for benefits to the same extent as the insurer or hospital or medical service corporation would have been liable if coverage had not been terminated. Timely receipt of premium payment shall mean the employer's or certificate holder's receipt of the premium or subscription fee for the extended coverage for such member or dependents within the dates or by the date indicated by the employer at the time of the election of extended coverage. Failure to give such notice or to make premium payments as hereinabove provided shall constitute a waiver of the option to have such extended coverage.

§ 7. Contracts between corporation and physician or chiropractor; protection of physician-patient relationship; entitlement of subscribers; termination of contract

Every registered physician and every registered chiropractor shall have the right, on complying with such rules and regulations as the corporation may make, to enter into a written agreement with a medical service corporation, doing business in the city or town where the said physician or chiropractor resides or has his usual place of business, to perform medical or chiropractic services. This chapter shall not change the normal relations between physician or chiropractor and patient. No restriction shall be placed by any such corporation upon its participating physicians or participating chiropractors as to methods of diagnosis or treatment. No officer, agent, or employee of a medical service corporation shall influence or attempt to influence a subscriber or a covered dependent in his choice of a participating physician or participating chiropractor. A subscriber or a covered dependent, subject to the by-laws, rules and regulations of a medical service corporation and the terms and provisions of his subscription certificate, shall be entitled to the benefits of this chapter upon receiving medical or chiropractic service from any participating physician or participating chiropractor or, in the discretion of the corporation, upon receiving medical or chiropractic service from any non-participating physician or chiropractor in an emergency or when outside the commonwealth. A corporation may terminate its agreement with any participating physician or participating chiropractor at any time (a) for failure to comply with the reasonable rules and regulations of such corporation, including without limitation such rules and regulations as may be adopted governing the keeping of accounts, records and statistics, the making of reports and proof of services rendered, or (b) for presenting any fraudulent, unreasonable, or improper claim for payment, or compensation.

Nothing in section four or in this section shall be construed to prohibit any medical service corporation from entering into written agreements with its subscribers and with participating chiropractors to furnish chiropractic services to subscribers and covered dependents or from including chiropractic services in its nonprofit medical service plan, nor shall any medical service corporation discriminate in any way against participating chiropractors in the furnishing of chiropractic service to its subscribers and covered dependents.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1971, c. 434, § 1; St.1978, c. 574, § 3.

§ 8. Annual statement; verification, form, violations

Every medical service corporation shall annually, on or before the first day of March, file in the office of the commissioner a statement, verified by at least two of the principal officers of said corporation, showing its condition as of the thirty-first day of December next preceding. Such statement shall be in such form and shall contain such matters as the commisioner shall prescribe. A corporation neglecting to file its annual statement within the time herein specified shall forfeit one hundred dollars for each day during which such neglect continues, and upon notice by the commissioner to that effect, its authority to do business shall cease while such default continues.

Added by St.1941, c. 306.

§ 8A. Financial statements; inclusion of electronic data processing equipment as asset

In an account of its financial condition, a medical service corporation may include as an asset available for the payment of losses electronic data processing equipment, provided that the cost of such equipment at the time of acquisition is at least one hundred thousand dollars and that said cost is to be amortized in full over a period not to exceed ten years.

Added by St.1973, c. 455, § 2.

§ 9. Inspection and examination of affairs of corporation; access to information

The commissioner, or any deputy examiner or any other person designated by the commissioner, shall, at least once in three years, and whenever the commissioner deems it prudent, visit any medical service corporation and examine into its affairs. The commissioner shall have free access to all of the books, records and papers of the corporation, and may summon and examine under oath its officers, agents, employees and other persons in relation to its affairs and condition. The commissioner shall require every such corporation to keep its books, records, accounts and vouchers in such manner that he or his authorized representatives may readily verify its annual statements and determine whether the corporation has complied with the law.

Added by St.1941, c. 306.

§ 10. Investments, sales, loans and places of deposit; approval; acquisition of real estate; leases; tax exemption; limit; special contingent surplus

No investment, sale or loan shall be made by a medical service corporation which has not first been authorized by the board of directors, or by a committee thereof charged with the duty of investing or loaning the funds of the corporation; nor shall any deposit be made in a bank or banking institution unless such bank or banking institution has first been approved as a bank of deposit by the board of directors or said committee thereof, and unless the vote authorizing such investment, sale or loan or approval of the place of deposit has been duly recorded in the books of the corporation.

With the approval of the commissioner, a medical service corporation, alone or with one or more nonprofit corporations, the real estate of which is exempt from taxation, may acquire real estate it reasonably expects to use in whole or in part for conducting the business of such corporation or corporations. Real estate so acquired may be leased to other occupants, and when so leased, the exemption from taxation on real estate granted by this chapter or granted by any provisions of the general laws to a co-owner shall not apply to that portion of the real estate which is so leased unless such other occupant occupies the leased premises for its purposes and is (a) a charitable organization, as defined in section five of chapter fifty-nine, or (b) a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth to provide any kind of health services, the real estate of which is exempt from taxation. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit the general investment powers set forth in this section.

The commissioner may require any such corporation after the first full year of doing business to accumulate and maintain a special contingent surplus, over and above its reserves and liabilities, in such amount as the commissioner may deem proper.

A medical service corporation may invest in, acquire and hold the capital stock of any corporation as a subsidiary which is an insurance company authorized to transact the business of providing health insurance to persons residing outside the commonwealth, and which is duly licensed by the commissioner of insurance, provided that the medical service corporation shall notify the commissioner at least thirty days prior to entering into any agreement or contract to make such investment or acquisition.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1950, c. 394, § 1; St.1954, c. 276, § 1; St.1961, c. 493, § 27; St.1968, c. 432, § 6; St.1972, c. 663, § 2; St. 1977, c. 341.

§ 11. Salaries, compensation or emoluments

No medical service corporation shall pay any salary, compensation or emolument to any officer, trustee or direcotr thereof, nor any salary, compensation or emolument amounting in any year to more than twenty thousand dollars to any person, unless such payment be first authorized by a vote of its board of directors; provided, however, that the amount of such salaries, compensation or emoluments may be adjusted by the corporation to exceed such amount to reflect any decrease or increase in the cost of living since January first, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, United States City Average, published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. No such corporation shall make any agreement with any of its officers, trustees or employees whereby it agrees that for any services rendered or to be rendered he shall receive any salary, compensation or emolument for a period of more than three years from the date of such agreement; provided, however, that the payment of an amount not in excess of twelve and one half per cent of such annual salary, compensation or emolument, or a larger percentage if approved by the commissioner, may be deferred beyond such period.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1968, c. 432, § 7; St.1978, c. 402, § 2.

§ 12. Submission of disputes or controversies to board; review of decision of board

Any dispute or controversy arising between a medical service corporation and any participating physician, participating chiropractor, or any subscriber, or any person whose subscription certificate has been canceled or to whom such corporation has refused to issue such certificate may within thirty days after such dispute or controversy arises be submitted by any person aggrieved to a board serving in the division of insurance and consisting of the commissioner or a person designated by him, the chairman of the board of registration and discipline in medicine or any person designated by him, and the attorney general or a person designated by him, for its decision with respect thereto. All decisions and orders of the board or of the commissioner made under any provision of this chapter may be revised as justice and equity may require upon a petition in equity filed, within ten days after the promulgation of such decision or order in the superior court within and for the county of Suffolk by any party aggrieved by such decision or order.

§ 13. Grounds for enjoining transaction of business; receivers

If the commissioner is satisfied, as to any medical service corporation, that (1) it has failed to comply with the provisions of its charter, or (2) it is being operated for profit, or (3) it is fraudulently conducted, or (4) its condition is such as to render its further transaction of business hazardous to the public or to its subscribers, or (5) its officers and agents have refused to submit to an examination under section nine, or (6) it has exceeded its powers, or (7) it has violated any provision of law, or (8) it has compromised, or is attempting to compromise, with its creditors on the ground that it is financially unable to pay its claims in full, or (9) it is insolvent, he may apply to the supreme judicial court for an injunction restraining it from further proceeding with its business.

If the right of any person or group of persons to become a participating physician or participating chiropractor as defined in section one is denied because of arbitrary or unfair discrimination, any such person or group of persons so aggrieved may apply to the supreme judicial court for an injunction restraining it from further proceeding with its business.

The court may, after application by the commissioner or any person or group of persons aggrieved as aforesaid, forthwith issue a temporary injunction restraining the transaction of any business, and it may, after a full hearing, make the injunction permanent, and appoint one or more receivers to take possession of the books, papers, moneys and other assets of the corporation, settle its affairs, and distribute its funds to those entitled thereto, subject to such rules and orders as the court may prescribe.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1978, c. 434, § 2; St.1978, c. 574, § 5.

§ 14. Liability of corporation; exemption from insurance laws; tax exemption

Every medical service corporation is hereby declared to be a charitable corporation. No such corporation shall be liable for injuries resulting from negligence or malpractice on the part of any participating physician or of any of its employees, nor shall it be liable for the cost of medical services to which the subscriber or covered dependent may be entitled under the provisions of any workmen's compensation law. Every such corporation shall be exempt from all provisions of the insurance laws of the commonwealth, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. The property of every such corporation shall, except as hereinafter provided, be exempt from all state and local taxes.

Added by St.1941, c. 306.

§ 15. Repealed. St.1951, c. 797.

§ 16. Operators of medical service plan

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association, except a medical service corporation, to establish, maintain or operate a non-profit medical service plan; provided, however, that this chapter shall not render unlawful or affect any operation or activity of any company organized under the provisions of chapter one hundred and seventy-five, of any society or fraternal benefit society organized under the provisions of chapter one hundred and seventy-six or subject to any of the provisions thereof, of any non-profit hospital service or medical service corporation organized under the provisions of chapter one hundred and seventy-six A or one hundred and seventy-six C, or of any corporation organized or to be organized under chapter one hundred and eighty, the existence, purposes, activities and operations of which were lawful or would be lawful notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter.

Added by St.1941, c. 306.

§ 16A. Payroll deductions of governmental employees

The pertinent provisions of section one hundred and thirty-eight A of chapter one hundred and seventy-five shall apply to deductions on payroll schedules from the salary of any state, county or municipal employee for the payment of the amount payable by such an employee under a subscription certificate issued to him as a subscriber by a medical service corporation.

Added by St.1943, c. 424, § 6.

§ 17. Enforcement

The provisions of this chapter may be enforced by a bill in equity brought in the supreme judicial court by the commissioner, the attorney general, any district attorney or any aggrieved party.

Added by St.1941, c. 306. Amended by St.1971, c. 434, § 3.

§ 18. Contracts for administrative or other services; loans and investments

Any medical service corporation may contract with any person for the purpose of providing administrative or other services relating to the providing of medical or other health services or reimbursement therefor. In addition, with the approval of the commissioner who shall consider the effect upon subscriber agreements and subscriber rates, a medical service corporation may, after being authorized by its board of directors, or by a committee thereof, charged with the duty of authorizing transactions under this section, make loans to, guarantee loans of and make investments in hospitals and providers of other health services for the purpose of improving efficiency, reducing costs, or increasing benefits in the delivery of health services to subscribers and others.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Application of chapter

This chapter shall apply to all corporations whenever established, except so far as such application may be inconsistent with provisions still in force of any special acts of incorporation, enacted before March eleventh, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, and not subject to amendment, alteration or repeal by the general court, or with provisions of any special acts of incorporation enacted after October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-one.

All corporations existing on October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-one and their directors, officers, members and stockholders shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities and be subject to all the liabilities set forth in this chapter to the same extent as corporations formed under this chapter and their directors, officers and members; provided that this chapter shall not take away or impair any remedy which may exist by law against a corporation existing on said date, its directors, officers, members or stockholders, for a liability incurred prior thereto.

All corporations shall be subject to such laws as may be enacted after October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-one affecting or altering their corporate rights or duties or dissolving them.

Added by St.1971, c. 819, § 3.

§ 2. Definitions

In this chapter the following words shall, unless a contrary intention appears, have the following meanings:

(a) "articles of organization", the articles of organization of a corporation, including any special acts, as from time to time restated or amended, including articles of merger or consolidation;

(b) "by-laws", the code or codes of rules adopted for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name or names by which such rules are designated;

(c) "corporation", a domestic corporation (i) heretofore established either by general or special law for any one or more of the purposes mentioned in section four or (ii) organized under this chapter on or after October first, nineteen hundred and seventy-one;

(d) "directors" or "board of directors", the directors of a corporation, including persons and officers having the powers of directors;

(e) "member", one having membership rights, whether or not designated as a member, in a corporation in accordance with the provisions of its articles of organization or by-laws.

Added by St.1971, c. 819, § 3.

MEDICAL CORPORATION

§ 13. Conferring degrees, or issuing diplomas or certificates; prohibition

A corporation organized under this chapter for medical purposes shall not confer degrees, or issue diplomas or certificates conferring or purporting to confer degrees, unless specially authorized thereto by the general court. An officer, agent or servant of such corporation or any other person who confers degrees, or signs, issues or authorizes the signing or issuing of any diploma or certificate purporting to confer any degree of medicine or surgery, in violation hereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

MEDICAL MILK COMMISSION

§ 20. Formation; definition

For the purpose of supervising the production of milk, any five or more registered physicians may form a corporation under this chapter. The members of the board of health of any town where such corporation is formed shall be ex officiis members of the corporation. At least one member of said board of health shall be a member of the board of directors thereof.

For the purposes of this section and sections twenty-one to twenty-five, inclusive, the word "milk" shall include goats' milk.

Amended by St.1961, c. 301, § 2.

§ 21. Name

The name of any such corporation shall be "Medical Milk Commission of   ", designating the name of the town where such corporation is established, and, if more than one such corporation shall be organized in any town, the subsequent corporations shall use the name designated herein, but shall indicate in such name its proper sequence in incorporation by adding thereto the words "Number Two" or "Number Three" and so forth.

§ 22. Salary emolument or compensation received by member from dairymen

No member of any such corporation shall receive directly or indirectly therefrom, or from any dairymen producing milk under agreement with the corporation, any salary or emolument or any compensation of any kind for any services rendered as a member of such corporation, or for any services rendered under sections twenty to twenty-five, inclusive. Whoever violates this section shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars, and shall be removed from his office as a member of said corporation and thereafter be disqualified from becoming a member of any such corporation.

§ 23. Contracts for production of milk

Every such corporation may enter into written agreements with any dairymen for the production of milk under the supervision of such corporation and prescribe in such agreements the conditions under which such milk shall be produced, which, however, shall be approved by the department of public health and shall not fall below the standards of purity and quality for certified milk as fixed by the American Association of Medical Milk Commissions and the standards for milk fixed by law.

§ 24. Investigatory powers of department of public health

The working methods of any such corporation and the dairies in which milk is produced under contract with it shall at all times be subject to investigation by the department of public health.

§ 25. Violations; penalty

Whoever sells or exchanges, or offers or exposes for sale or exchange as and for certified milk any milk not conforming to the regulations prescribed by and bearing the certification of a corporation organized under sections twenty to twenty-five, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

CONVEYANCE BY DEED

§ 4. Effect of recordation or actual notice of deeds or leases, or of assignments of rents or profits

A conveyance of an estate in fee simple, fee tail or for life, or a lease for a term of seven years,[1] or an assignment of rents or profits from an estate or lease, shall not be valid as against any person, except the grantor or lessor, his heirs and devisees and persons having actual notice of it, unless it, or an office copy as provided in section thirteen of chapter thirty-six, or, with respect to such a lease or an assignment of rents or profits, a notice of lease or a notice of assignment of rents or profits, as hereinafter defined, is recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district in which the land to which it relates lies. A "notice of lease", as used in this section, shall mean an instrument in writing executed by all persons who are parties to the lease of which notice is given and shall contain the following information with reference to such lease:—the date of execution thereof and a description, in the form contained in such lease, of the premises demised, and the term of such lease, with the date of commencement of such term and all rights of extension or renewal. A "notice of assignment of rents or profits", as used in this section, shall mean an instrument in writing executed by the assignor and containing the following information:—a description of the premises, the rent or profits of which have been assigned, adequate to identify the premises, the name of assignee, and the rents and profits which have been assigned. A provision in a recorded mortgage assigning or conditionally assigning rents or profits or obligating the mortgagor to assign or conditionally assign existing or future rents or profits shall constitute a "notice of assignment of rents or profits".

1. Definitions.
4. Exclusive ownership and possession; restrictions.
5. Interest in common areas or facilities; percentage; division.
10. Corporation, trust or association; interest of unit owner; powers and duties; manager or managing agent; by-laws; records; effect of recorded certificate.
11. By-laws; mandatory provisions.
13. Claims involving common areas and facilities; liability.
18. Improvements; costs.
19. Removal from provisions of this chapter.
20. Municipal participation in condominium organization and ownership.
21. Multiple family condominium units; by-laws; master deed.

§ 1. Definitions

As used in this chapter, the following words shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the following meanings:—

"Building", any building containing one or more units comprising a part of the condominium.

"By-laws", the by-laws of the organization of unit owners.

"Common areas and facilities" shall, except as otherwise provided or stipulated in the master deed, mean and include:—

(1) The foundations, columns, girders, beams, supports, party walls, common walls, main walls, roofs, halls, corridors, lobbies, public stairs and stairways, fire escapes and entrances and exits of the building;

(2) Installations of central services such as power, light, gas, hot and cold water, heating, refrigeration, air conditioning and incinerating;

(3) The elevators, tanks, pumps, motors, fans, compressors, ducts, and in general all apparatus and installations existing for common use;

(4) The land on which the building is located;

(5) The basements, yards, lawns, gardens, recreational facilities, parking areas and storage spaces;

(6) The premises for the lodging of custodian or persons in charge of the condominium;

(7) Such community and commercial facilities as may be provided for in the master deed as being owned in common.

(8) All other parts of the condominium necessary or convenient to its existence, maintenance and safety, or normally in common use.

"Common expenses", the expenses of administration, maintenance, repair or replacement of the common areas and facilities, and expenses declared common expenses by this chapter.

"Common funds", all funds held by the organization of unit owners.

"Common profits", the balance of all income, rents, profits and revenues from the common areas and facilities remaining after the deduction of the common expenses.

"Condominium", the land, the building or buildings, all other improvements and structures thereon, and all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto, which have been submitted to the provisions of this chapter.

"Master deed", the instrument by which the condominium is submitted to the provisions of this chapter, as hereinafter provided, and any amendment to said instrument.

"Organization of unit owners", the corporation, trust or association owned by the unit owners and used by them to manage and regulate the condominium.

Any given "percentage of unit owners" means the owners of that percentage in the aggregate in interest of the undivided ownership of the common areas and facilities.

"Unit", a part of the condominium including one or more rooms, with appurtenant areas such as balconies, terraces and storage lockers if any are stipulated in the master deed as being owned by the unit owner, occupying one or more floors or a part or parts thereof, including the enclosed space therein, intended for any type of use, and with a direct exit to a street or way or to a common area leading to a street or way.

"Unit designation", the number, letter or combination thereof designating the unit in the master deed.

"Unit owner", the person or persons owning a unit.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1. Amended by St.1967, c. 868; St.1969, c. 564; St.1970, c. 139, § 1; St.1972, c. 595; St.1972, c. 709, §§ 1, 2.

§ 4. Exclusive ownership and possession; restrictions

Each unit owner shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of his unit, subject to the provisions of this section and of sections seventeen, eighteen and nineteen; provided, however, that:—

(1) No unit shall be devoted to a use prohibited in the master deed;

(2) The organization of unit owners, its agent or agents shall have access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the common areas and facilities therein or accessible therefrom or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the common areas and facilities or to another unit or units; and

(3) Each unit owner shall comply with the by-laws and with any administrative rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, as either of the same may be amended from time to time, and with the lawful covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in the master deed or in the deed to his unit.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1.

§ 5. Interest in common areas or facilities; percentage; division

(a) Each unit owner shall be entitled to an undivided interest in the common areas and facilities in the percentage set forth in the master deed. Such percentage shall be in the approximate relation that the fair value of the unit on the date of the master deed bears to the then aggregate fair value of all the units.

(b) The percentage of the undivided interest of each unit owner in the common areas and facilities as expressed in the master deed shall not be altered without the consent of all unit owners, expressed in an amended master deed duly recorded. The percentage of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities shall not be separated from the unit to which it appertains, and shall be deemed to be conveyed or encumbered with the unit even though such interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the conveyance or other instrument.

(c) The common areas and facilities shall remain undivided and no unit owner or any other person shall bring any action for partition or division of any part thereof, except as provided in sections seventeen, eighteen and nineteen. Any covenant or provision to the contrary shall be null and void.

(d) Each unit owner may use the common areas and facilities in accordance with their intended purposes without being deemed thereby to be hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other unit owners.

(e) The necessary work of maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities shall be carried out as provided in the by-laws.

(f) Unless the by-laws otherwise provide, whenever the common areas and facilities shall require emergency works of repair, replacement or maintenance, any unit owner may undertake the same at his expense and recover his reasonable costs as a common expense.

(g) No work which would jeopardize the soundness or safety of the building shall be done in a unit or in the common areas and facilities unless in every such case the unanimous consent of all unit owners is first obtained.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1.

§ 10. Corporation, trust or association; interest of unit owner; powers and duties; manager or managing agent; by-laws; records; effect of recorded certificate

(a) Each unit owner shall have the same percentage interest in the corporation, trust or unincorporated association provided for in the master deed for the management and regulation of the condominium as his proportionate interest in the common areas and facilities. Such interest shall not be separated from ownership in the unit to which it appertains and shall be deemed conveyed or encumbered with the unit even though such interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the conveyance or other instrument.

(b) Such corporation, trust or association shall have, among its other powers, the following rights and powers:—

(1) To lease, manage, and otherwise deal with such community and commercial facilities as may be provided for in the master deed as being common areas and facilities.

(2) To own, convey, encumber, lease and otherwise deal with units conveyed to it or purchased by it as the result of enforcement of the lien for common expenses, any right of first refusal, or otherwise.

(3) To obtain insurance on the common areas and facilities. Such insurance coverage shall be written in its name, and the provisions thereof shall be without prejudice to the right of each unit owner to insure his own unit for his own benefit.

(4) To conduct litigation and to be subject to suit as to any course of action involving the common areas and facilities or arising out of the enforcement of the by-laws, administrative rules or restrictions in the master deed.

The expenses incurred in and proceeds accruing from the exercise of the aforesaid rights and powers shall be common expenses and common profits.

(c) The organization of unit owners may, if the by-laws so provide, appoint a manager or managing agent to administer the condominium. Such manager or agent or the president may, when so empowered, act for the organization and references herein to the organization of unit owners shall include such person when so empowered.

(d) The organization of unit owners shall keep a complete copy of the by-laws, including the amendments thereto, if any. The by-laws, the minute book, financial records, and vouchers authorizing payments shall be available for inspection by any unit owner during reasonable hours. A written report of receipts and expenditures shall be rendered to all unit owners at least once annually. Records of the receipts and expenditures affecting the common areas and facilities shall specify and itemize the maintenance and repair expenses of the common areas and facilities, and any other expenses incurred.

(e) If the organization of unit owners is a trust or unincorporated association, an instrument signed by a majority of the trustees or of the managing board named in the master deed and duly attested as the act of such trust or association may be relied on as conclusively establishing that such instrument was the free act of the trust or association, and shall be binding upon such trust or association when recorded. No purchaser, mortgagee, lender or other person dealing with the trustees or the managing board of the association, as they appear of record, shall be bound to ascertain or inquire further as to the persons who are then trustees or members of the managing board nor be affected by any notice, implied or actual, relative thereto, other than a recorded certificate thereof, and such recorded certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the personnel of said trustees or members of the managing board and of any changes therein.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1.

§ 11. By-laws; mandatory provisions

In addition to other provisions required or permitted by law, the by-laws of the organization of unit owners shall provide at all times for at least the following:—

(a) The method of providing for the necessary work of maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and payments therefor, including the method of approving payment vouchers.

(b) The manner of collecting from the unit owners their share of the common expenses.

(c) The procedure for hiring all personnel, including whether or not a manager or managing agent may be engaged.

(d) The method of adopting and of amending administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation and use of the common areas and facilities.

(e) Such restrictions on and requirements respecting the use and maintenance of the units and the use of the common areas and facilities, not set forth in the master deed, as are designed to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of their respective units and of the common areas and facilities by the several unit owners.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1.

§ 13. Claims involving common areas and facilities; liability

All claims involving the common areas and facilities shall be brought against the organization of unit owners, and all attachments and executions related to such claims shall be made only against common funds or property held by the organization of unit owners and not against the common areas and facilities themselves. After such common funds and property have been exhausted, individual unit owners shall be liable for the balance due, if any, provided, however, that the amount for which a unit owner is liable shall be limited to a sum equal to the amount of his percentage interest in the common areas and facilities times the balance due.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1.

§ 18. Improvements; costs

(a) If fifty per cent or more but less than seventy-five per cent of the unit owners agree to make an improvement to the common areas and facilities, the cost of such improvement shall be borne solely by the owners so agreeing.

(b) Seventy-five per cent or more of the unit owners may agree to make an improvement to the common areas and facilities and assess the cost thereof to all unit owners as a common expense, but if such improvement shall cost in excess of ten per cent of the then value of the condominium, any unit owner not so agreeing may apply to the superior court of the county in which the property is located, on such notice to the organization of unit owners as the court shall direct, for an order directing the purchase of his unit by the organization of unit owners at fair market value thereof as approved by the court. The cost of any such purchase shall be a common expense.

§ 19. Removal from provisions of this chapter

(a) Seventy-five per cent of the unit owners, or such greater percentage as is stipulated in the by-laws, may remove all of a condominium or portion thereof from the provisions of this chapter by an instrument to that effect, duly recorded, provided that the holders of all liens upon any of the units affected consent thereto by instruments duly recorded. Upon such removal, the condominium, including all the units, or the portion thereof thus removed shall be owned in common by the unit owners and the organization of unit owners shall be dissolved, unless it is otherwise provided in the removal instrument. The undivided interest in the property owned in common held by each unit owner shall be equal to the percentage of the undivided interest of such owner in the common areas and facilities.

(b) Such removal shall not bar the subsequent resubmission of the land and buildings involved to the provisions of this chapter.

Added by St.1963, c. 493, § 1.

§ 20. Municipal participation in condominium organization and ownership

Notwithstanding any other provision of general or special law, a city or town may own a unit of a condominium under this chapter, participate in the organization of unit owners and be liable for its share of the common expenses of the condominium. Said city or town may either purchase a unit of a condominium or, if the city or town intends to become the owner of such a unit and use the same for municipal purposes, it may contract for the creation of a condominium and for the advancement to the city or town of the acquisition costs allocable to all other units therein. It may acquire land therefor or devote thereto land already owned by it, construct, reconstruct or remodel a building thereon subject however to the provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-nine notwithstanding that said building is not intended solely for municipal uses, and execute and record a master deed submitting such land and building to the provisions of this chapter. Upon the completion of the said construction, reconstruction or remodelling it may convey to such other parties to said contract such units as have been paid for in the proportion of the aggregate cost allocable to their stipulated units. The authority contained in this section shall be exercised, in the case of the city of Boston, by its public facilities commission, in the case of a city having a Plan E charter, by the affirmative vote of a majority of its city council, in the case of any other city, by its city council subject to the provisions of its city charter, and in the case of a town, by its town meeting.

Added by St.1972, c. 709, § 3.

§ 21. Multiple family condominium units; by-laws; master deed

If a condominium does not contain any unit which is designed for occupancy by only one family or household, or if the floor area of all those units which are designed for occupancy by only one family or household does not in the aggregate exceed ten per cent of the floor area of all units in the condominium, then the following provisions shall be applicable notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter:

(a) The by-laws may provide:

(1) That to any extent specified in the by-laws the common profits shall be distributed among, and the common expenses shall be charged to, the unit owners in proportions other than according to their respective percentages of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities.

(2) That to any extent specified in the by-laws the unit owners shall not be personally liable for sums assessed for their share of common expenses, but such provisions shall not adversely affect any lien for said share.

(3) For limitations upon the first mortgages of record or the types or categories thereof which shall have priority over the liens provided for in clause (c) of section six, which may be dependent on the person or entity to whom such mortgages are given or upon such other criteria as may be specified in the by-laws.

(4) A procedure for submitting the disputes arising from the administration of the condominium to arbitration or other impartial determination.

(5) Provisions giving a particular unit owner or owners voting rights with respect to election of directors, trustees or members of the managing board less than, or in excess of, the voting rights which such owner or owners would otherwise have had, and provisions requiring or permitting approval of any matter, or any specified category or categories of matters, by a proportion greater than a majority, which proportion may be as great as one hundred percent.

(6) Terms and conditions differing from those set forth in sections seventeen, eighteen and nineteen, or any of them, regarding rebuilding made necessary by fire or other casualty loss, the making of improvements and allocation of the costs of such rebuilding or improvements, and the removal of the condominium or portion thereof from the provisions of this chapter; and in such case such terms and conditions so provided in the by-laws shall take precedence over the provisions of sections seventeen, eighteen and nineteen to the extent inconsistent therewith.

(b) The master deed:

(1) Need not contain a statement of the number of rooms in any unit designed for purposes other than dwelling.

(2) May contain a requirement that in order for instruments to be binding on an organization of unit owners which is a trust or unincorporated association, such instruments shall be signed by a greater proportion of the trustees or of the managing board than a majority, which proportion may be as great as one hundred percent; and in such case the provisions of clause (e) of section ten shall apply only to instruments signed by the proportion of trustees or of the managing board set forth in such requirement in the master deed.

Added by St.1972, c. 709, § 3.

CHAPTER 184

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO REAL PROPERTY

Sec.
18. Entry into land; legal proceedings required to recover possession of land or tenements; jurisdiction.

§ 18. Entry into land; legal proceedings required to recover possession of land or tenements; jurisdiction

No person shall make an entry into land or tenements except in cases where his entry is allowed by law, and in such cases he shall not enter by force, but in a peaceable manner.

No person shall attempt to recover possession of land or tenements in any manner other than through an action brought pursuant to chapter two hundred and thirty-nine or such other proceedings authorized by law. The superior and district courts shall have jurisdiction in equity to enforce the provisions of this section.

§ 1. Composition; definitions

The housing court department established under section one of chapter two hundred and eleven B shall be composed of a division for Hampden county and a division for the city of Boston. Wherever the words "housing court" are used, or wherever in this chapter the word "court" is used in that context, they shall refer to a division of the housing court department; and the words "judge of the housing court" or the word "judge", in context, shall mean an associate justice of the trial court appointed to a division of the housing court department.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 2. Superior and general jurisdiction; presumption; processes

The divisions of the housing court department shall have superior and general jurisdiction with reference to all cases and matters within their jurisdiction; and no order, decree, judgment sentence, warrant, writ or process made, issued or pronounced by them need set out any adjudication or circumstances with greater particularity than would be required in other departments of superior and general jurisdiction, and the like presumption shall be made in favor of proceedings in the housing court department as would be made in favor of proceedings in other departments of superior and general jurisdiction. Writs, subpoenas, citations, orders, notices, executions and all other processes issued in the housing court department signed by the clerk, temporary clerk or an assistant clerk, and bear the teste of the first justice of the division and shall run throughout the commonwealth.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 3. Concurrent jurisdiction; powers of superior court department; enforcement authority

The divisions of the housing court department shall have common law and statutory jurisdiction concurrent with the divisions of the district court department and the superior court department of all crimes and of all civil actions arising in the city of Boston in the case of that division and arising in the county of Hampden in the case of that division, under chapter forty A, sections twenty-one through twenty-five of chapter two hundred and eighteen, sections fourteen and eighteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-six and under so much of sections one hundred and twenty-seven A through one hundred and twenty-seven F, inclusive, and sections one hundred and twenty-seven H through one hundred and twenty-seven L, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and eleven, so much of chapter ninety-three A, so much of section sixteen of chapter two hundred and seventy, so much of chapters one hundred and forty-three, one hundred and forty-eight, and two hundred and thirty-nine, jurisdiction under the provisions of common law and of equity and any other general or special law, ordinance, by-law, rule or regulation as is concerned directly or indirectly with the health, safety, or welfare of any occupant of any place used, or intended for use, as a place of human habitation and the possession, condition, or use of any particular housing accommodations or household goods or services situated therein or furnished in connection therewith. The divisions of the housing court department shall also have jurisdiction of all housing problems, including all contract and tort actions which affect the health, safety and welfare of the occupants or owners thereof, arising within and affecting residents in the city of Boston, in the case of that division, and Hampden county, in the case of that division, and shall also have jurisdiction in equity, concurrent with the divisions of the district court department, the divisions of the probate and family court department, the superior court department, the appeals court, and the supreme judicial court, of all cases and matters so arising.

In all matters within their jurisdiction, the divisions of the housing court department shall have all the powers of the superior court department including the power to grant temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions as justice and equity may require. The divisions shall have like power and authority for enforcing orders, sentences and judgments made or pronounced in the exercise of any jurisdiction vested in them, and for punishing contempts of such orders, sentences and judgments and other contempts of their authority, as are vested for such or similar purposes in the supreme judicial court or superior court department.

§ 4. Sittings of court

The division of the housing court department for Hampden county shall hold its sittings in the court house facilities of the superior court department within said county and, with the consent of the chief administrative justice, such other court house facilities within said county as the administrative justice of the housing court department may deem to be expedient or convenient.

The division of the housing court department for the city of Boston shall hold its sittings in the Suffolk county court house and, with the consent of the chief administrative justice, such other court house facilities within the city of Boston as the administrative justice of the housing court department may deem to be expedient or convenient.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 5. Time for transaction of business

The divisions of the housing court department shall always be open and the business thereof, or of a justice thereof, may be transacted at any time; but such business shall not, except as provided in section six of chapter two hundred and twenty, be transacted on Saturday or Sunday or on a legal holiday unless it relates to an application which, in the opinion of the justice to whom it is made, is of pressing necessity; provided, that, if the convenience of the public so requires, the divisions shall be open for the transaction of business on such Saturdays, not legal holidays, and during such hours thereof, as the administrative justice may determine.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 6. Seal

Each division of the housing court department shall have a seal which will be in the custody of its clerk, and shall be affixed to all processes issued by a division of the housing court department requiring a seal.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 7. Rules and forms of procedure

The administrative justice of the housing court department shall from time to time make general rules and forms of procedure, which, before taking effect, shall be approved by the supreme judicial court or a justice thereof.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 8. Justices; appointment; absence

There shall be one justice appointed for the Hampden county division and two justices appointed for the city of Boston division of the housing court department. The senior justice in time of service shall be the first justice of the division. The first justice shall be the administrative head of his division. If the first justice is absent and delay would injure the public interest, the justice next in seniority shall act in his place, and if no justice of the division is available, the administrative justice of the department shall act.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 8A. Administrative head

The justice as provided under section one of chapter two hundred and eleven B as the administrative justice for the housing court department, in addition to his judicial powers and duties, shall, subject to the superintendence authority of the supreme judicial court and the administrative authority of the chief administrative justice of the trial court, be the administrative head of the housing court department.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 9. Clerks; appointment; term; residence

There shall be a clerk appointed, by the governor with the advice and consent of the council, for each division of the housing court department. Said clerks shall hold office during good behavior, subject, however, to retirement under the provisions of any general or special law relative to retirement systems. The clerk appointed for the Hampden county division shall reside in Hampden county.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 9A. Salary of clerks; practice of law

The clerks appointed under the provisions of section nine shall receive from the commonwealth as a salary a sum equivalent to the salary of the clerk of courts of the superior court department in their respective counties. Assistant clerks appointed under the provisions of section eleven shall receive from the commonwealth as a salary, in the instance of the first assistant clerk, a sum equivalent to eighty-seven and one half per cent of the salary of the clerk and for all other assistant clerks, a sum equivalent to seventy-five per cent of the salary of the clerk.

Said clerks and assistant clerks shall devote their entire time during business hours to their respective duties and shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in the practice of law.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 10. Temporary clerks

In case of the absence, death or removal of a clerk, the administrative justice may appoint a temporary clerk, to act until the clerk resumes his duties or until the vacancy is filled.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 11. Assistant clerks

The clerk of a division of the housing court department may, subject to the approval of the first justice, appoint one or more assistant clerks, who shall be removable at his pleasure or at the pleasure of the administrative justice. The clerk shall be responsible for all official acts of the assistant clerks and all powers conferred by statute upon the clerk, unless otherwise stated, and in any event subject to limitation by the clerk or the administrative justice, may be exercised by an assistant clerk.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 12. Oath of office of clerks

The clerk, any temporary clerk and all assistant clerks shall be sworn; and in the case of any temporary clerk and of every assistant clerk, the oath of office shall be administered by the administrative justice who shall, upon administering the same, forthwith make return of such act with the date thereof to the state secretary.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 13. Bond of clerks

The clerk, any temporary clerk and every assistant clerk, before entering upon performance of his official duties, and thereafter, at intervals of not more than one year, so long as he continues to hold such office shall give to the commonwealth a bond, conditioned to perform faithfully his official duties, with a surety company, authorized to transact business in the commonwealth as surety, in a sum approved by the administrative justice, but in no event less than five thousand dollars. Failure to give such bond shall be sufficient cause for his removal.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 14. Powers and duties of clerks

The clerk, temporary clerk and assistant clerks or one of them for each division shall attend all sessions of the housing court department and shall keep a record of all its proceedings. The clerk of each division shall have the care and custody of all the records, books and papers appertaining to, or filed or deposited in, his office. The clerk of each division shall make and issue writs and processes, shall make returns of the housing court department tax bills of costs and receive fines, forfeitures, fees and costs accruing from the civil and criminal business of the housing court department including fees for blanks and copies. The clerk of each division shall have such other powers and duties as the administrative justice may from time to time order.

The clerk and assistant clerks of each division of the housing court department may sign process issued by the housing court department, and housing court department records, documents or other legal papers or copies thereof made or issued by such clerk or an assistant clerk in conformity with law, except search warrants and process authorizing arrests or commitments, by imprinting thereon a facsimile of the signature of the clerk or assistant clerk; and such facsimile signatures shall have the same validity as their written signatures.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 15. Court officers

The first justice of a division may appoint such number of court officers for his division as the administrative justice of the housing court department may from time to time determine. Any such court officer may be removed for any cause considered by the first justice of the division to be sufficient. Any vacancy caused by removal or otherwise may be filled by the first justice of the division. The court officers shall attend the sessions in the divisions of the housing court department, shall preserve order and may serve warrants, mittimuses, precepts, orders and processes of a division of the housing court department. Each court officer shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in the sum of one thousand dollars payable to the commonwealth, with sufficient sureties approved by the administrative justice. Each court officer, while on duty in the housing court department, shall wear a uniform approved by the administrative justice which shall be furnished at the expense of the commonwealth.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 16. Housing specialists

The first justice of a division may appoint such number of housing specialists as the administrative justice may from time to time determine. The first justice of a division may designate one of them as chief housing specialist for the division. All housing specialists shall hold office at the pleasure of the first justice of the division, subject, however, to retirement under the provisions of any applicable general or special law relative to retirement systems. All housing specialists shall be knowledgeable in the maintenance, repair, and rehabilitation of dwelling units; the problems of landlord and tenant as they pertain to dwelling units; the types of funds and services available to assist landlords and tenants in the financing and resolution of such problems; the federal and state laws, rules and regulations pertaining to the maintenance, repair and rehabilitation of such units; and the financing and resolution of such problems. The housing specialists shall have such powers and perform such duties as the first justice of the division shall from time to time prescribe. Every housing specialist shall be sworn by the first justice of the division, who shall, upon administering the oath, forthwith make return of such act with the date thereof to the state secretary.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 17. Practice of law by clerks or housing specialists

No clerk, temporary clerk, assistant clerk or housing specialist shall be retained or employed as an attorney in any complaint, action or suit in any court of the commonwealth.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 18. Recording system; procurement of law books, stationery, etc.

At the trial of any issue of fact, the justice presiding at the trial shall provide for a proper recording system which shall record the proceedings. The cost of said recording system shall be paid by the commonwealth upon the certificate of the administrative justice. Each clerk of the housing court department may procure law books and blank books, blanks, stationery and other incidentals required by divisions of the housing court department as the administrative justice may approve.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 19. Commencement of proceedings; fees; nonwillful offense deemed noncriminal

Proceedings shall be commenced in the housing court department as follows: a criminal case by complaint in like manner as in the district court department, a civil action in accordance with the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure; provided, however, that a summary process action and a small claims action shall be commenced and administered in accordance with rules promulgated by the administrative justice of the housing court department, subject to the approval of the supreme judicial court. Clerks of the housing court department shall charge a fee of five dollars for the entry of an action, which shall be paid by the party entering the same; and no other fee shall be charged for taxing costs, for issuing any subpoena or execution or for issuing any order of notice or other mesne, interlocutory or final order, rule, decree or process authorized by law, except a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction for the issuance of which the clerk shall charge five dollars; provided, however, that no fee for the entry of an action or for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction shall be charged the commonwealth or political subdivision thereof. If the party entering the action or obtaining the restraining order or preliminary injunction is found to be destitute and unable to pay, the presiding justice may order the payment of the fee or fees prescribed by this paragraph to be waived.

Notwithstanding that a proceeding under this chapter is commenced by complaint, if it is found that the offense charged was not willful, intentional, reckless or repeated, the proceeding shall not be deemed criminal and no record of the case shall be entered in the probation records.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 20. Transfer of civil actions

Any civil action within the jurisdiction of the housing court department which is pending in another court department may be transferred to the housing court department by any party thereto; but no civil action originally entered in the housing court department shall be transferred to any other department, except that the supreme judicial court may direct any cause pending in the housing court department to be transferred to it in whole or in part for further action or directions, and in cases of partial transfer may issue such orders or directions in regard to the part of such cause not so transferred as justice may require.

Whenever cross actions between the same parties or two or more actions, including for the purposes hereof other department proceedings, arising out of or connected with the same housing accommodation are pending, one or more in the housing court department, the district court department, the probate and family court department, or in the superior court department, the administrative justice or the presiding justice upon motion of any party to any of such actions, may order that the action or actions pending in the district court department and in the probate and family court department and in the superior court department with all the papers relating thereto, be transferred to the housing court department; and such action or actions shall thereafter proceed in the housing court department as though originally entered there.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 21. Trial without jury; exception; report of inspector as prima facie evidence

All cases in the housing court department, including motions and the like, whether interlocutory or final, shall be heard and determined by a justice of a division of the housing court department sitting without jury, except that in all cases where a jury trial is required by the constitution of the commonwealth or of the United States and the defendant has not waived his rights to a trial by jury, the cause shall be forthwith tried in a division of the housing court department before a jury selected in accordance with chapter two hundred and thirty-four. In the trial of any complaint or action in the housing court department, the report of any inspector serving in the housing inspection department of a city or the board of health of any city or town shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 22. Entry of judgment or order

Every judgment or order entered by a division of the housing court department shall bear as its date the day when actually entered by the clerk, and at the time of the entry he shall note such date upon the judgment or order and upon the docket.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

§ 23. Bond of receiver

The bond of any receiver appointed by a division of the housing court department shall be payable to the commonwealth and shall otherwise be in such form as the administrative justice of the housing court department shall require. Such bond may be enforced in the name of the commonwealth by the treasurer of the commonwealth, or by any person interested therein and authorized by the administrative justice of the housing court department, after notice to said treasurer, to take such action. The housing court department shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of actions on such bonds. Any sums recovered shall be paid over or administered as a justice of the housing court department directs.

Added by St.1978, c. 478, § 92.

CHAPTER 186

ESTATES FOR YEARS AND AT WILL

Sec.

12. Notice to determine estate at will.
14. Wrongful acts of lessor or landlord of buildings or premises occupied for dwelling or residential purposes; criminal penalties; civil remedies; jurisdiction; sections applicable to acts of reprisal, waiver in leases or rental agreements prohibited.
15. Provisions of lease or rental agreement pertaining to nonliability of landlord.
18. Reprisal for reporting violations of law or for tenant's union activity; damages and costs; notice of termination; presumption; waiver in leases or other rental agreements prohibited.
19. Notice to landlord of unsafe condition; tort actions for injuries resulting from uncorrected condition.
21. Disclosure of insurance information by lessor; violations; waiver.

§ 12. Notice to determine estate at will

Estates at will may be determined by either party by three months' notice in writing for that purpose given to the other party; and, if the rent reserved is payable at periods of less than three months, the time of such notice shall be sufficient if it is equal to the interval between the days of payment or thirty days, whichever is longer. Such written notice may include an offer to establish a new tenancy for the same premises on terms different from that of the tenancy being terminated and the validity of such written notice shall not be affected by the inclusion of such offer. In case of neglect or refusal to pay the rent due from a tenant at will, fourteen days' notice to quit, given in writing by the landlord to the tenant, shall be sufficient to determine the tenancy; provided, that the tenancy of a tenant who has not received a similar notice from the landlord within the twelve months next preceding the receipt of such notice shall not be determined if the tenant, within ten days after the receipt thereof, pays or tenders to the landlord, the landlord's attorney, or the person to whom the tenant customarily pays rent, the full amount of any rent due. Every notice to determine an estate at will for nonpayment of rent shall contain the following notification to the tenant: "If you have not received a notice to quit for nonpayment of rent within the last twelve months, you have a right to prevent termination of your tenancy by paying or tendering to your landlord, your landlord's attorney or the person to whom you customarily pay your rent the full amount of rent due within ten days after your receipt of this notice." If any notice to determine an estate at will nonpayment of rent shall fail to contain such notification, the time within which the tenant receiving the notice would be entitled to pay or tender rent pursuant to this section shall be extended to the day the answer is due in any action by the landlord to recover possession of the premises. Failure to include such notice shall not otherwise affect the validity of the said notice. If the neglect or refusal to pay the rent due was caused by a failure or delay of the federal government, the commonwealth or any municipality, or any departments, agencies or authorities thereof, in the mailing or delivery of any subsistence or rental payment, check or voucher other than a salary payment to either the tenant or the landlord, the court in any action for possession shall continue the hearing not less than seven days in order to furnish notice of such action to the appropriate agency and shall, if all rent due with interest and costs of suit has been tendered to the landlord within such time, treat the tenancy as not having been terminated.

Amended by St.1946, c. 202; St.1973, c. 256, § 1; St.1974, c. 320, § 2; St. 1977, c. 494, § 2; St.1979, c. 251.

§ 14. Wrongful acts of lessor or landlord of buildings or premises occupied for dwelling or residential purposes; criminal penalties; civil remedies; jurisdiction; sections applicable to acts of reprisal, waiver in leases or rental agreements prohibited

Any lessor or landlord of any building or part thereof occupied for dwelling purposes, other than a room or rooms in a hotel, but including a mobile home or land therefor, who is required by law or by the express or implied terms of any contract or lease or tenancy at will to furnish water, hot water, heat, light, power, gas, elevator service, telephone service, janitor service or refrigeration service to any occupant of such building or part thereof, who willfully or intentionally fails to furnish such water, hot water, heat, light, power, gas, elevator service, telephone service, janitor service or refrigeration service at any time when the same is necessary to the proper or customary use of such building or part thereof, or any lessor or landlord who directly or indirectly interferes with the furnishing by another of such utilities or services, or who transfers the responsibility for payment for any utility services to the occupant without his knowledge or consent, or any lessor or landlord who directly or indirectly interferes with the quiet enjoyment of any residential premises by the occupant, or who attempts to regain possession of such premises by force without benefit of judicial process, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than six months. Any person who commits any act in violation of this section shall also be liable for actual and consequential damages or three month's rent, whichever is greater, and the costs of the action, including a reasonable attorney's fee, all of which may be applied in setoff to or in recoupment against any claim for rent owed or owing. The superior and district courts shall have jurisdiction in equity to restrain violations of this section. The provisions of section eighteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-six and section two A of chapter two hundred and thirty-nine shall apply to any act taken as a reprisal against any person for reporting or proceeding against violations of this section. Any waiver of this provision in any lease or other rental agreement, except with respect to any restriction on the provision of a service specified in this section imposed by the United States or any agency thereof or the commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof and not resulting from the acts or omissions of the landlord or lessor, and except for interruptions of any specified service during the time required to perform necessary repairs to apparatus necessary for the delivery of said service or interruptions resulting from natural causes beyond the control of the lessor or landlord, shall be void and unenforceable.

Amended by St.1950, c. 495; St.1957, c. 114; St.1973, c. 778, § 2; St.1974, c. 192, § 1.

§ 15. Provisions of lease or rental agreement pertaining to nonliability of landlord

Any provision of a lease or other rental agreement relating to real property whereby a lessee or tenant enters into a covenant, agreement or contract, by the use of any words whatsoever, the effect of which is to indemnify the lessor or landlord or hold the lessor or landlord harmless, or preclude or exonerate the lessor or landlord from any or all liability to the lessee or tenant, or to any other person, for any injury, loss, damage or liability arising from any omission, fault, negligence or other misconduct of the lessor or landlord on or about the leased or rented premises or on or about any elevators, stairways, hallways or other appurtenance used in connection therewith, shall be deemed to be against public policy and void.

§ 18. Reprisal for reporting violations of law or for tenant's union activity; damages and costs; notice of termination, presumption; waiver in leases or other rental agreements prohibited

Any person or agent thereof who threatens to or takes reprisals against any tenant of residential premises for the tenant's act of, commencing, proceeding with, or obtaining relief in any judicial or administrative action the purpose of which action is to obtain damages under, or otherwise enforce, any federal, state or local law, regulation, by-law or ordinance, which has as its objective the regulation of residential premises; or exercising the tenant's rights pursuant to section one hundred and twenty-four D of chapter one hundred and sixty-four; or reporting to the board of health or, in the city of Boston to the commissioner of housing inspection or to any other board having as its objective the regulation of residential premises a violation or a suspected violation of any health or building code or of any other municipal by-law or ordinance, or state or federal law or regulation which has as its objective the regulation of residential premises; or reporting or complaining of such violation or suspected violation in writing to the landlord or to the agent of the landlord; or for organizing or joining a tenants' union or similar organization shall be liable for damages which shall not be less than one month's rent or more than three month's rent, or the actual damages sustained by the tenant, whichever is greater, and the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

The receipt of any notice of termination of tenancy, except for nonpayment of rent, or, of increase in rent, or, of any substantial alteration in the terms of tenancy within six months after the tenant has commenced, proceeded with, or obtained relief in such action, exercised such rights, made such report or complaint, or organized or joined such tenants' union or within six months after any other person has taken such action or actions on behalf of the tenant or in, or relating to, the building in which the tenant resides, shall create a rebuttable presumption that such notice or other action is a reprisal against the tenant for engaging in such activities. Such presumption shall be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence that such person's action was not a reprisal against the tenant and that such person had sufficient independent justification for taking such action, and would have in fact taken such action, in the same manner and at the same time the action was taken, regardless of tenants engaging in, or the belief that tenants had engaged in, activities protected under this section.

Any waiver of this provision in any lease or other rental agreement shall be void and unenforceable.

Added by St.1969, c. 701, § 1. Amended by St.1972, c. 99, § 1; St.1973, c. 858, § 3; St.1974, c. 192, § 4; St.1978, c. 149, § 1.

§ 19. Notice to landlord of unsafe condition; tort actions for injuries resulting from uncorrected condition

A landlord or lessor of any real estate except an owner-occupied two- or three-family dwelling shall, within a reasonable time following receipt of a written notice from a tenant forwarded by registered or certified mail of an unsafe condition, not caused by the tenant, his invitee, or any one occupying through or under the tenant, exercise reasonable care to correct the unsafe condition described in said notice except that such notice need not be given for unsafe conditions in that portion of the premises not under control of the tenant. The tenant or any person rightfully on said premises injured as a result of the failure to correct said unsafe condition within a reasonable time shall have a right of action in tort against the landlord or lessor for damages. Any waiver of this provision in any lease or other rental agreement shall be void and unenforceable. The notice requirement of this section shall be satisfied by a notice from a board of health or other code enforcement agency to a landlord or lessor of residential premises not exempted by the provisions of this section of a violation of the state sanitary code or other applicable by-laws, ordinances, rules or regulations.

Added by St.1972, c. 665.

§ 21. Disclosure of insurance information by lessor; violations; waiver

The landlord or lessor of any residential property except owner-occupied dwellings of four units or fewer, shall, upon the written request of any tenant or lawful occupant or of any code or other law enforcement official disclose in writing the name of the company or companies insuring the property against loss or damage by fire and the amount of insurance provided by each company. Whoever violates this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars. A waiver of this section in any lease or other rental agreement shall be void and unenforceable.

GUARDIANS OF INSANE PERSONS AND SPENDTHRIFTS

§ 6. Mentally ill persons; appointment of guardian

A parent of a mentally ill person, two or more relatives or friends of a mentally ill person, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth whose corporate charter authorizes the corporation to act as a guardian of a mentally ill person, or the department of mental health, may file a petition in the probate court asking to have a guardian appointed for such mentally ill person; and if after notice as provided in section seven and a hearing the court finds that he is incapable of taking care of himself by reason of mental illness, it shall appoint a guardian of his person and estate. A copy of such appointment shall be sent by mail by the register to the said department. The court may require additional medical testimony as to the mental condition of the person alleged to be mentally ill and may require him to submit to examination. It may also appoint one or more physicians, expert in mental illness, to examine such person and report their conclusions to the court. Reasonable expense incurred in such examination shall be paid out of the estate of such person or by the commonwealth as may be determined by the court. No guardian so appointed shall have the authority to cause to admit or commit such person to a mental health or retardation facility unless the court specifically finds the same to be in the best interests of such person and specifically so authorizes such admission or commitment by its order or decree. The court shall not authorize such admission or commitment except after a hearing for the purposes of which counsel shall be provided for any indigent, allegedly mentally ill person. The court shall require the attendance of the allegedly mentally ill person at such hearing unless the court finds that there exists extraordinary circumstances requiring his absence, in which event the attendance of his counsel shall suffice.

MARRIAGE

NOTICE OF INTENTION OF MARRIAGE

Sec.
20A. Pregnancy; certificate of physician.
28. Certificate of intention of marriage; delivery; time.
28A. Certificate of intention of marriage; issuance; conditions precedent.
29. Certificate of intention of marriage; issuance to immigrants.
30. Certificate of intention of marriage; dispensing with five days' notice.

NOTICE OF INTENTION OF MARRIAGE

§ 20A. Pregnancy; certificate of physician

Each clerk or registrar with whom a notice of intention of marriage is filed shall at the same time receive, if it is presented by the party or person filing such notice as provided in sections nineteen and twenty, a certificate signed by a registered physician that the female intending such marriage is pregnant. In any case where such a certificate has been received, the clerk or registrar, when issuing a certificate under section twenty-eight, shall note thereon the following:—Certificate received under the provisions of section twenty A of chapter two hundred and seven of the General Laws.

§ 28. Certificate of intention of marriage; delivery; time

On or after the third day from the filing of notice of intention of marriage, except as otherwise provided, but not in any event later than sixty days after such filing, the clerk or registrar shall deliver to the parties a certificate signed by him, specifying the date when notice was filed with him and all facts relative to the marriage which are required by law to be ascertained and recorded, except those relative to the person by whom the marriage is to be solemnized. Such certificate shall be delivered to the minister or magistrate before whom the marriage is to be contracted, before he proceeds to solemnize the same. If such certificate is not sooner used, it shall be returned to the office issuing it within sixty days after the date when notice of intention of marriage was filed.

§ 28A. Certificate of intention of marriage; issuance; conditions precedent

Except as hereinafter provided, a certificate shall not be issued by the clerk or registrar under section twenty-eight until he has received from each party to the intended marriage a medical certificate signed by a qualified physician registered and practicing in the commonwealth, a physician registered or licensed to practice in any other state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or a commissioned medical officer on active service in the armed forces or the public health service of the United States, or a qualified physician registered and practicing in Canada, who has examined such party as hereinafter provided. Such examination shall be made only to ascertain the presence or absence of evidence of syphilis, and shall include a recognized serological test for syphilis. Said test shall be made by a laboratory of the department of public health, or by a laboratory meeting standards approved by said department or, if not located within the commonwealth, acceptable to said department. The examination by such physician and the laboratory test shall have been made not more than thirty days prior to the date of filing the notice of intention of marriage or, if made after the date of filing such notice, not more than sixty days prior to issuing a certificate under section twenty-eight.

Prior to issuing a certificate to a female under section twenty-eight, the clerk or registrar shall also require from the physician signing the medical certificate required under the first paragraph certification that such female has (i) been tested and found immune to rubella infection or (ii) if tested and not found immune to rubella infection, been advised of the risks of contracting rubella during childbearing years and of the availability of an immunizing vaccine and of the risks involved in such immunization if there is a possibility of pregnancy at the time of or within four months of receiving the vaccine and has been advised of the advisability of receiving a pregnancy test, or (iii) if not tested, been offered a test to determine immunity to rubella infection and has been advised of the risks of contracting rubella during childbearing years and of the immunizing vaccine available to eliminate or protect against such risks. Any such tests performed shall include a recognized serological test made by a laboratory meeting the requirements specified in the first paragraph and may be done in conjunction with the serological test for syphilis. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply, if there is certification by a physician that the female is past the childbearing age or incapable of conception.

If such physician, in making such examination, discovers evidence of syphilis, he shall inform both parties to the intended marriage of the nature of such disease and of the possibilities of transmitting such infection to his or her marital partner or to their children. The physician shall also certify on forms provided by said department that the applicant therein named has been given an examination, including a serological test for syphilis, on a day specified in the statement, and that, in the opinion of the physician, the person therein named is not infected with syphilis, or, if so infected, is not in a stage which is communicable, but if such infection is communicable, no such certificate shall be issued.

Blank forms of medical certificates required under this section shall be furnished to city and town clerks and others by said department of public health, and all entries shall be made on said forms, except as hereinafter provided.

Medical certificates issued by the department of health of any other state or territory in the United States, the District of Columbia, and Canada shall be deemed acceptable, provided they are signed by a qualified physician licensed and practicing in the areas mentioned, and certifying that, on the basis of a physical examination and a serological test performed at a laboratory acceptable to the department of public health of this commonwealth, the person therein named does not have syphilis, or, if so infected, is not in a stage which is communicable. The name of the laboratory performing the test shall appear upon the medical certificate.

The clerk or registrar receiving such medical certificates in the case of an intended marriage shall endorse on the certificate to be issued by him under section twenty-eight in relation to the marriage a statement that such medical certificates have been received.

In emergency cases where the death of either party to the intended marriage is imminent, or where the female is near the termination of her pregnancy, upon the authoritative request of a minister, clergyman, priest, rabbi or attending physician, the clerk or registrar may issue a certificate under section twenty-eight without having received the medical certificate, or having endorsed on his certificate a statement of such receipt, as provided by this section.

Whoever, being subject to the laws of the commonwealth, fails to comply with any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Added by St.1943, c. 561, § 1. Amended by St.1950, c. 113; St.1970, c. 152; St.1974, c. 134.

§ 29. Certificate of intention of marriage; issuance to immigrants

If either of the parties to an intended marriage has arrived as an immigrant from a foreign country within five days, the notice of intention may be filed at any time before the marriage, and the certificate required by the preceding section shall be issued at any time after the filing of such intention.

§ 30. Certificate of intention of marriage; dispensing with five days' notice

Upon application by both of the parties to an intended marriage, when both parties are residents of the commonwealth or both parties are non-residents, or upon application of the party residing within the commonwealth when one of the parties is a resident and the other a non-resident, a judge of probate or a justice of a district court, or a special judge of probate and insolvency or special justice of a district court, may, after hearing such evidence as is presented, grant a certificate stating that in his opinion it is expedient that the intended marriage be solemnized without delay. Upon presentation of such a certificate, or, in extraordinary or emergency cases when the death of either party is imminent, upon the authoritative request of a minister, clergyman, priest, rabbi, authorized representative of a Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is or attending physician, the clerk or registrar of the town where the notice of intention has been filed shall at once issue the certificate prescribed in section twenty-eight.

Amended by St.1937, c. 11, § 1; St.1945, c. 214, § 1; St.1946, c. 197, § 1; St.1968, c. 81, § 1.

COURTS AND JUDICIAL OFFICERS

CHAPTER 214

EQUITY JURISDICTION

Sec.
3B. Fair information practices of public holders; violations of chapter 66A; remedies; limitation.
7A. Damage to the environment; temporary restraining order as additional remedy; definitions; requisites; procedure.

§ 3B. Fair information practices of public holders; violations of chapter 66A; remedies; limitation

Any holder, as that term is defined in chapter sixty-six A, which violates any provision of said chapter sixty-six A, shall be liable to any individual who suffers any damage as a result of such violations, and the individual damaged may bring an action against such holder to recover any damages sustained. Notwithstanding any liability for actual damages as may be shown, such holder shall be liable for exemplary damages of not less than one hundred dollars for each violation together with such costs and reasonable attorney's fees as may be incurred in said action.

Any holder which violates or proposes to violate any of the provisions of chapter sixty-six A shall be subject to an action for injunction, declaratory judgment, or mandamus issued by any court of competent jurisdiction. The court may make such order or judgment as may be necessary to prevent any holder from employing practices which violate chapter sixty-six A. Actions for injunction or mandamus under this section may be prosecuted by an individual or by the attorney general in the name of the commonwealth upon his own complaint or upon the complaint of any individual.

An action to enforce any liability created under chapter sixty-six A, may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction within three years from the date in which the liability arises; provided, however, that where a defendant had materially or willfully misused any personal data required to be disclosed to a data subject according to the provisions of chapter sixty-six A, and said personal data so misused is material to the establishment of the defendant's liability to the data subject, the action may be brought at any time within three years after such misuse is discovered.

Added by St.1975, c. 776, § 3. Amended by St.1977, c. 691, § 14.

§ 7A. Damage to the environment; temporary restraining order as additional remedy; definitions; requisites; procedure

As used in this section, "damage to the environment" shall mean any destruction, damage or impairment, actual or probable, to any of the natural resources of the commonwealth, whether caused by the defendant alone or by the defendant and others acting jointly or severally. Damage to the environment shall include, but not be limited to, air pollution, water pollution, improper sewage disposal, pesticide pollution, excessive noise, improper operation of dumping grounds, impairment and eutrophication of rivers, streams, flood plains, lakes, ponds or other water resources, destruction of seashores, dunes, wetlands, open spaces, natural areas, parks or historic districts or sites. Damage to the environment shall not include any insignificant destruction, damage or impairment to such natural resources.

As used in this section "person" shall mean any individual, association, partnership, corporation, company, business organization, trust, estate, the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, any administrative agency, public or quasi-public corporation or body, or any other legal entity or its legal representatives, agents or assigns.

The superior court for the county in which damage to the environment is occurring or is about to occur may, upon a civil action in which equitable or declaratory relief is sought in which not less than ten persons domiciled within the commonwealth are joined as plaintiffs, or upon such an action by any political subdivision of the commonwealth, determine whether such damage is occurring or is about to occur and may, before the final determination of the action, restrain the person causing or about to cause such damage; provided, however, that the damage caused or about to be caused by such person constitutes a violation of a statute, ordinance, by-law or regulation the major purpose of which is to prevent or minimize damage to the environment.

No such action shall be taken unless the plaintiffs at least twenty-one days prior to the commencement of such action direct a written notice of such violation or imminent violation by certified mail, to the agency responsible for enforcing said statute, ordinance, by-law or regulation, to the attorney general, and to the person violating or about to violate the same; provided, however, that if the plaintiffs can show that irreparable damage will result unless immediate action is taken the court may waive the foregoing requirement of notice and issue a temporary restraining order forthwith.

It shall be a defense to any action taken pursuant to this section that the defendant is subject to, and in compliance in good faith with, a judicially enforceable administrative pollution abatement schedule or implementation plan the purpose of which is alleviation of damage to the environment complained of, unless the plaintiffs demonstrate that a danger to the public health and safety justifies the court in retaining jurisdiction.

Any action brought pursuant to the authorization contained in this section shall be advanced for speedy trial and shall not be compromised without prior approval of the court.

If there is a finding by the court in favor of the plaintiffs it may assess their costs, including reasonable fees of expert witnesses but not attorney's fees; provided, however, that no such finding shall include damages.

The court may require the plaintiffs to post a surety or cash bond in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars to secure the payment of any costs which may be assessed against the plaintiffs in the event they do not prevail.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed so as to impair, derogate or diminish any common law or statutory right or remedy which may be available to any person, but the cause of action herein authorized shall be in addition to any such right or remedy.

CIVIL JURISDICTION

§ 19C. District court jurisdiction; equity powers and rules

The district courts shall have original jurisdiction in rem and personam of all actions arising under sections one hundred and twenty-seven A to one hundred and twenty-seven K, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and eleven. The district courts shall have equity powers only to the extent necessary to enforce the aforementioned sections, including the power to appoint receivers, grant injunctions and issue restraining orders as justice and equity may require and for punishing civil contempts of orders, rulings and decrees made or pronounced in the exercise of this jurisdiction.

Subject to the approval of the supreme judicial court, the administrative justice for the district court department may from time to time promulgate rules and prescribe forms for the efficient operation of such equity sessions in the divisions of the district court department; and in the Boston municipal court department the administrative justice for said department may promulgate such rules and prescribe such forms.

Added by St.1970, c. 582. Amended by St.1978, c. 478, § 184.

CRIMINAL JURISDICTION

§ 26. General provisions

The district courts and the municipal court of the city of Boston shall have original jurisdiction, concurrent with the superior court, of the following offenses, complaint of which shall be brought in the division of the district court department, or in the Boston municipal court department, as the case may be, within whose judicial district the offense was allegedly committed or is otherwise made punishable: all violations of by-laws, orders, ordinances, rules and regulations, made by cities, towns and public officers, all misdemeanors, except libels, all felonies punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years, the crimes mentioned in sections sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty-eight and forty-nine of chapter two hundred and sixty-six, and the crimes of escape or attempt to escape from any penal institution, forgery of a promissory note, or of an order for money or other property, and of uttering as true such a forged note or order, knowing the same to be forged. They shall have jurisdiction of proceedings referred to them under the provisions of section four A of chapter two hundred and eleven.

Amended by St.1937, c. 301, § 1; St.1938, c. 365, § 1; St.1958, c. 138; St.1962, c. 722, § 8; St.1964, c. 140; St.1969, c. 496; St.1973, c. 585; St.1976, c. 235; St.1978, c. 478, § 187.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO THE BOSTON JUVENILE COURT, THE WORCESTER JUVENILE COURT, THE BRISTOL COUNTY JUVENILE COURT AND THE SPRINGFIELD JUVENILE COURT

§ 57. Divisions; territorial jurisdiction; appeals

The juvenile court department established under section one of chapter two hundred and eleven B shall be composed of divisions, one for each of the judicial districts hereinafter enumerated, which shall continue to have and exercise jurisdiction over the following cities, towns, wards and territory, respectively:

Boston; within the same territorial limits as are prescribed for the criminal jurisdiction of the Boston municipal court department, and also within the territorial limits of wards four, five, and ten, except precincts one, six and seven of said ward ten, and precincts one and two of ward twenty-one; of Boston, all as existing on February first, nineteen hundred and seventy-six; and also as provided in sections twenty-four and thirty-nine E of chapter one hundred and nineteen relating to children within Suffolk county.

Worcester; within the same territorial limits as are prescribed for the criminal jurisdiction for the central district of Worcester.

Springfield; within the same territorial limits as are prescribed for the criminal jurisdiction of the district court of Springfield.

Bristol county; within the same territorial limits as are prescribed for the criminal jurisdiction of all the districts of Bristol county.

Appeals provided under sections twenty-seven, thirty-nine I and fifty-six of chapter one hundred and nineteen, when taken from a court in Suffolk county, except the municipal court of the city of Boston, shall be to the appeals session of the division of the juvenile court department for Boston, and such appeals from the division of the juvenile court department for Bristol county shall be to said division in its juvenile appeal session. Appeals from courts in Worcester county and Hampden county may be taken to the appeals sessions of the divisions of the juvenile court department for Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

Whenever the words "juvenile court" or "court", when the context indicates a juvenile court, are used in this chapter, they shall refer to a division of the juvenile court department. And when the context indicates personnel appointed to a juvenile court, the words "justice" or "special justice", provided that he is serving full time under the provisions of sections fifty-eight B or fifty-eight C, shall mean an associate justice of the trial court appointed to a division of the juvenile court department; and the words "clerk" or "clerk of court" shall mean the clerk of said division; and the words "assistant clerk", "deputy assistant clerk", "temporary clerk" or "temporary assistant clerk" shall mean, respectively, an assistant clerk, a deputy assistant clerk, temporary clerk or temporary assistant clerk of said division.

Amended by St.1965, c. 659, § 5; St.1969, c. 859, § 15; St.1972, c. 572; St.1972, c. 731, § 15; St.1978, c. 478, § 212.

CLERKS OF COURTS

§ 26. Physicians or unregistered practitioners; clerk to report convictions

The clerk of any court in which a physician registered in this commonwealth is convicted of a felony or of a crime in connection with the practice of medicine, or in which an unregistered practitioner is convicted of holding himself out as a practitioner of medicine, or of practicing medicine, shall within one week thereafter report the same to the board of registration in medicine together with a copy of the court proceedings in the case. Failure to comply with this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than one nor more than ten dollars.

MENTAL HEALTH LEGAL ADVISORS COMMITTEE

§ 34E. Appointment, etc.; executive director; legal advisors, list, fee schedule, compensation; volunteer legal assistance program; information program; procedures; funds

The justices of the supreme judicial court shall appoint a mental health legal advisors committee consisting of fourteen attorneys, four of whom shall hold office for a term of four years, four for a term of three years, three for a term of two years and three for a term of one year. Upon completion of each such term of a member of said committee, his successor shall be appointed for a term of four years. The unexpired portion of any term which becomes vacant shall be filled by the justices of the supreme judicial court. Members of said committee may be removed by the justices of the supreme judicial court. No member of the committee shall receive any compensation for his services, but each member shall be reimbursed for actual traveling expenses incurred by him in attending the committee meetings. The membership of the committee shall contain a practicing attorney or attorneys from each of the mental health regions of the Commonwealth. The committee shall annually appoint and may at any time remove an executive director who shall be compensated from funds available therefor.

Any practicing member of the bar of the commonwealth who wishes to serve as a mental health legal advisor shall submit his name, office address and telephone number to the committee, which shall compile a list of all such names submitted, dividing the names into groups of lawyers practicing within each of the mental health regions of the commonwealth. Said list shall be updated quarterly. Said list of mental health legal advisors shall be circulated by the committee to the district courts and municipal courts of the commonwealth and to the department of mental health. The committee shall annually establish and approve a fee schedule for such services as shall be performed by the mental health legal advisors and said mental health legal advisors shall upon certificate of the judge appointing him be compensated in accordance therewith for services performed for an indigent patient.

It shall be the duty of the committee to develop a program of volunteer legal assistance. Such program shall utilize the participation of attorneys, professional and nonprofessional aides and all other groups who offer their services on a voluntary basis, to assist and advise indigent patients and residents in Bridgewater state hospital and all other mental health and retardation facilities of the commonwealth concerning their legal rights. Said volunteers may, subject to the approval of the committee, interview and examine all pertinent records of any such patient or resident. In addition, the committee shall appoint such clerical or other nonprofessional staff assistants as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the committee.

It shall be the duty of the committee to conduct a continuing program of information with regard to the legal rights of patients and residents at all mental health and retardation facilities in the commonwealth, which information shall be circulated to said patients and residents and their relatives, to the employees of the department of mental health, the members of the bar of the commonwealth and to anyone requesting such information. In addition, such information shall be made available to the public at large.

Upon petition of an indigent patient or resident in Bridgewater state hospital or any other mental health or retardation facility, private or public, or the legal guardian or a relative or a friend of such patient or resident, to any district or municipal court of the commonwealth, such court shall appoint from the list circulated of mental health legal advisors, a lawyer, practicing in the same or an adjoining mental health region as that in which the court is situated, to advise such patient of his legal rights and to represent such patient.

A mental health legal advisor so appointed may examine all records pertaining to such patient or resident, including the records of the department of mental health and the department of correction or any other agency of the government of the commonwealth or any other institution operated by the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof or any hospital situated in the commonwealth. In addition, such advisor may make all necessary inquiries as he deems proper for the carrying out of his duties.

A mental health legal advisor shall be compensated for legal services performed for an indigent patient by the mental health legal advisor's committee in accordance with the fee schedule established by the mental health legal advisors committee as provided for herein.

The committee shall be eligible for federal funds and may accept gifts, grants or contributions from any source and may expend the same, for the purpose of compensating said mental health legal advisors.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

§ 44A. Hospital employees, etc., communication with attorney concerning personal injury cases; prohibition

No person in the employ of, or in any capacity attached to or connected with, any hospital, infirmary or other institution, public or private, which receives patients for medical or surgical treatment, shall communicate, directly or indirectly, with any attorney at law, or any person representing such attorney, for the purpose of enabling such attorney, or any associate or employee of such attorney, to solicit employment to present a claim for damages or prosecute an action for the enforcement thereof, on behalf of any patient in any such institution. No such person in the employ of any hospital shall negotiate or attempt to negotiate the settlement of any such claim. A district court, upon complaint alleging violation of any provision of this section by any person employed by, or attached to, or connected with, any such hospital, infirmary or other institution situated within its judicial district, may issue an order of notice to the person complained of to show cause why he should not be ordered to desist and refrain from violation of any such provision on penalty of contempt.

§ 44B. Copies of section 44A; furnishing to hospitals; posting

The superintendent or other person in immediate charge of each hospital, infirmary or institution referred to in section forty-four A shall cause to be posted and kept posted in a conspicuous place therein printed copies of said section. Printed copies of said section shall, on application therefor, be furnished to each such hospital, infirmary and institution by the department of public health at a price to be determined by the commission on administration and finance. Any such superintendent or other person who violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

DYING DECLARATIONS AND DECLARATIONS OF DECEASED PERSONS

§ 65. Admissibility of declaration of decedent

In any action or other civil judicial proceeding, a declaration of a deceased person shall not be inadmissible in evidence as hearsay or as private conversation between husband and wife, as the case may be, if the court finds that it was made in good faith and upon the personal knowledge of the declarant.

Amended by St.1941, c. 363, § 1; St.1943, c. 105, § 1; St.1943, c. 232, § 1.

PROOF OF STATUTES, LAWS, ETC.

§ 79. Records and copies of records of hospitals and certain institutions; admissibility in evidence

Records kept by hospitals, dispensaries or clinics, and sanatoria under section seventy of chapter one hundred and eleven shall be admissible, and records which the court finds are required to be kept by the laws of any other state or territory, or the District of Columbia, or by the laws and regulations of the United States of America pertaining to the department of national defense and the veterans administration, by hospitals, dispensaries or clinics, and sanatoria similarly conducted or operated or which, being incorporated, offer treatment free of charge, may be admitted by the court, in its discretion, as evidence in the courts of the commonwealth so far as such records relate to the treatment and medical history of such cases and the court may, in its discretion, admit copies of such records, if certified by the persons in custody thereof to be true and complete; but nothing therein contained shall be admissible as evidence which has reference to the question of liability. Copies of photographic or microphotographic records so kept by hospitals, dispensaries or clinics, or sanatoria, when duly certified by the person in charge of the hospital, dispensary or clinic, or sanatorium, shall be admitted in evidence equally with the original photographs of microphotographs.

A record kept by any hospital, dispensary or clinic, or sanatorium under section seventy of chapter one hundred and eleven which is required to be produced in court by any party shall be certified by the affidavit of the person in custody thereof to be a true and complete record, and shall be delivered by such hospital, dispensary or clinic, or sanatorium to the clerk of such court, who shall keep the same in his custody until its production is called for at the trial or hearing by the party requiring the said record. Such record, so certified and delivered shall be deemed to be sufficiently identified to be admissible in evidence if admissible in all other respects. The party requiring the production of said record and, in the discretion of the court, any other party may examine said record in the custody of the clerk at any time before it is produced in court. The clerk upon completion of such trial or hearing shall notify such hospital that said record is no longer required and will be returned to the hospital by certified mail unless an authorized representative of the hospital calls for the same at the office of said clerk within seven days of said notice.

Amended by St.1941, c. 389, § 2; St.1943, c. 233, § 1; St.1946, c. 473, § 1; St.1948, c. 74; St.1957, c. 206, § 1; St.1959, c. 200; St.1974, c. 225.

§ 79A. Certified copies of public and private records

Copies of public records, of records described in sections five, seven and sixteen, respectively, of chapter sixty-six, and of records of banks, trust companies, insurance companies and hospitals, whether or not such records or copies are made by the photographic or microphotographic process, shall, when duly certified by the person in charge thereof, be admitted in evidence equally with the originals.

Added by St.1941, c. 662, § 2. Amended by St.1948, c. 154.

§ 79E. Reproductions of public or business records

If any business, institution, member of a profession or calling, or any department or agency of government, in the regular course of business or activity, has kept or recorded any memorandum, writing entry, print, representation or combination thereof of any act, transaction, occurrence or event, and in the regular course of business has caused any or all of the same to be recorded, copied or reproduced by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original, the original may be destroyed in the regular course of business unless its preservation is required by law. Such reproduction, when satisfactorily identified, shall be as admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding whether the original is in existence or not and an enlargement or facsimile of such reproduction shall be likewise admissible in evidence if the original reproduction is in existence and available for inspection under direction of the court. The introduction of a reproduced record, enlargement or facsimile, shall not preclude admission of the original.

Added by St.1952, c. 120. Amended by St.1955, c. 125; St.1962, c. 90; St.1965, c. 661; St.1968, c. 372.

§ 79H. Tort actions for personal injuries or death; admissibility of reports of deceased physicians

In an action of tort for personal injuries or death, or for consequential damages arising from such personal injuries, the medical report of a deceased physician who attended or examined the plaintiff, including expressions of medical opinion, shall, at the discretion of the trial judge, be admissible in evidence, but nothing therein contained which has reference to the question of liability shall be so admissible. Any opposing party shall have the right to introduce evidence tending to limit, modify, contradict or rebut such medical report. The word "physician" as used in this section shall not include any person who was not licensed to practice medicine under the laws of the jurisdiction within which such medical attention was given or such examination was made.

SUMMARY PROCESS FOR POSSESSION OF LAND

Sec.
2A. Reprisal for reporting violations of law or for tenant's union activity; defense; presumption.
8A. Rent withholding; grounds; amount claimed; presumptions and burden of proof; procedures.

§ 2A. Reprisal for reporting violations of law or for tenant's union activity; defense; presumption

It shall be a defense to an action for summary process that such action or the preceding action of terminating the tenant's tenancy, was taken against the tenant for the tenant's act of commencing, proceeding with, or obtaining relief in any judicial or administrative action the purpose of which action was to obtain damages under or otherwise enforce, any federal, state or local law, regulation, by-law, or ordinance, which has as its objective the regulation of residential premises, or exercising rights pursuant to section one hundred and twenty-four D of chapter one hundred and sixty-four, or reporting a violation or suspected violation of law as provided in section eighteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-six, or organizing or joining a tenants' union or similar organization. The commencement of such action against a tenant, or the sending of a notice to quit upon which the summary process action is based, or the sending of a notice, or performing any act, the purpose of which is to materially alter the terms of the tenancy, within six months after the tenant has commenced, proceeded with or obtained relief in such action, exercised such rights, made such report or organized or joined such tenants' union, or within six months after any other person has taken such action or actions on behalf of the tenant or in, or relating to the building in which the tenant resides, shall create a rebuttable presumption that such summary process action is a reprisal against the tenant for engaging in such activities, or was taken in the belief that the tenant had engaged in such activities. Such presumption may be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence that such action was not a reprisal against the tenant and that the plaintiff had sufficient independent justification for taking such action, and would have in fact taken such action, in the same manner and at the same time the action was taken, even if the tenant had not commenced any legal action, made such report or engaged in such activity.

Added by St.1969, c. 701, § 2. Amended by St.1972, c. 99, § 2; St.1973, c. 858, § 4; St.1978, c. 149, § 2.

In any action under this chapter to recover possession of any premises rented or leased for dwelling purposes, brought pursuant to a notice to quit for nonpayment of rent, or where the tenancy has been terminated without fault of the tenant or occupant, the tenant or occupant shall be entitled to raise, by defense or counterclaim, any claim against the plaintiff relating to or arising out of such property, rental, tenancy, or occupancy for breach of warranty, for a breach of any material provision of the rental agreement, or for a violation of any other law. The amounts which the tenant or occupant may claim hereunder shall include, but shall not be limited to, the difference between the agreed upon rent and the fair value of the use and occupation of the premises, and any amounts reasonably spent by the tenant or occupant pursuant to section one hundred and twenty-seven L of chapter one hundred and eleven and such other damages as may be authorized by any law having as its objective the regulation of residential premises.

Whenever any counterclaim or claim of defense under this section is based on any allegation concerning the condition of the premises or the services or equipment provided therein, the tenant or occupant shall not be entitled to relief under this section unless: (1) the owner or his agents, servants, or employees, or the person to whom the tenant or occupant customarily paid his rent knew of such conditions before the tenant or occupant was in arrears in his rent; (2) the plaintiff does not show that such conditions were caused by the tenant or occupant or any other person acting under his control; except that the defendant shall have the burden of proving that any violation appearing solely within that portion of the premises under his control and not by its nature reasonably attributable to any action or failure to act of the plaintiff was not so caused; (3) the premises are not situated in a hotel or motel, nor in a lodging house or rooming house wherein the occupant has maintained such occupancy for less than three consecutive months; and (4) the plaintiff does not show that the conditions complained of cannot be remedied without the premises being vacated.

Proof that the premises are in violation of the standard of fitness for human habitation established under the state sanitary code, the state building code, or any other ordinance, by-law, rule or regulation establishing such standards and that such conditions may endanger or materially impair the health, safety or well-being of a person occupying the premises shall create a presumption that conditions existed in the premises entitling the tenant or occupant to a counterclaim or defense under this section. Proof of written notice to the owner or his agents, servants, or employees, or to the person to whom the tenant or occupant customarily paid his rent, of an inspection of the premises, issued by the board of health, or in the city of Boston by the commissioner of housing inspection, or by any other agency having like powers of inspection relative to the condition of residential premises, shall create a presumption that on the date such notice was received, such person knew of the conditions revealed by such inspection and mentioned in such notice. A copy of an inspection report issued by any such agency, certified under the penalties of perjury by the official who inspected the premises, shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

There shall be no recovery of possession pursuant to this chapter pending final disposition of the plaintiff's action if the court finds that the requirements of the second paragraph have been met. The court after hearing the case may require the tenant or occupant claiming under this section to pay to the clerk of the court the fair value of the use and occupation of the premises less the amount awarded the tenant or occupant for any claim under this section, or to make a deposit with the clerk of such amount or such installments thereof from time to time as the court may direct, for the occupation of the premises. In determining said fair value, the court shall consider any evidence relative to the effect of any conditions claimed upon the use and occupation of residential premises. Such funds may be expended for the repair of the premises by such persons as the court after a hearing may direct, including if appropriate a receiver appointed as provided in section one hundred and twenty-seven H of chapter one hundred and eleven. When all of the conditions found by the court have been corrected, the court shall direct that the balance of funds, if any, remaining with the clerk be paid to the landlord. Any tenant or occupant intending to invoke the provisions of this section may, after commencement of an action under this chapter by the landlord, voluntarily deposit with the clerk any amount for rent or for use and occupation which may be in dispute, and such payments shall be held by the clerk subject to the provisions of this paragraph.

There shall be no recovery of possession under this chapter if the amount found by the court to be due the landlord equals or is less than the amount found to be due the tenant or occupant by reason of any counterclaim or defense under this section. If the amount found to be due the landlord exceeds the amount found to be due the tenant or occupant, there shall be no recovery of possession if the tenant or occupant, within one week after having received written notice from the court of the balance due, pays to the clerk the amount due the landlord, together with interest and costs of suit, less any credit due the tenant or occupant for funds already paid by him to the clerk under this section. In such event, no judgment shall enter until after the expiration of the time for such payment and the tenant has failed to make such payment. Any such payment received by the clerk shall be held by him subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Any provision of any rental agreement purporting to waive the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be against public policy and void. The provisions of section two A and of section eighteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-six shall apply to any tenant or occupant who invokes the provisions of this section.

IMPROVEMENT OF LOW LAND

§ 1. General provisions

If it is necessary or useful (1) to drain or flow a meadow, swamp, marsh, beach or other low land held by two or more proprietors, or (2) to remove obstructions in rivers or streams leading thereto or therefrom, or (3) to eradicate mosquitoes in any area infested thereby, including, in respect to each such purpose, purposes incidental thereto, such improvements may be made as provided in this chapter.

Amended by St.1972, c. 36, § 1.

§ 2. State reclamation board; designation of members; compensation and expenses

One employee of the department of environmental quality engineering designated by its commissioner, one employee of the department of food and agriculture designated by its commissioner, and one employee of the department of environmental management designated by its commissioner, shall constitute the state reclamation board, in this chapter called the board. The designation of any member of said board may be revoked at any time, and in such case or in case of the resignation or disability of any member his successor shall be designated in the same manner as in the original designation. The board shall serve in the department of food and agriculture, and the members thereof shall receive no additional compensation for service on said board, but shall be entitled to their reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

Amended by St.1972, c. 36, § 2; St.1975, c. 706, §§ 297, 298; St.1977, c. 641.

§ 3. Board; investigations; reports

The board may investigate the question of utilizing wet lands, including meadows, swamps, marshes, beaches and other low lands, and may ascertain what lands, if any, may advantageously be drained for agricultural or industrial uses, the protection of the public health, the utilization of deposits therein, or for other purposes. It may publish and disseminate facts of general interest ascertained in the conduct of any such investigation, and may make and publish surveys of tracts of land in need of drainage, showing their situation, areas and outlets, the best methods and the cost of draining them, the uses to which they are best adapted, and such other details as it deems advisable. It shall make an annual report.

§ 4. Board; power to engineers, etc.; expenses

In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the board may employ necessary engineers, assistants, or other agents, who may enter on land which the board desires to survey or examine. The board shall also be allowed other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of its duties.

Amended by St.1972, c. 36, § 3.

§ 4A. Proceedings under §§ 1–14C; parties; petition; notice

The commonwealth, acting through one or more state departments, or through the metropolitan district commission in respect to the metropolitan parks or water district or either metropolitan sewerage district, and any city, town or district, or any combination thereof, to the extent of their ownership of any area described in section one, may be parties, in their proprietary capacity, to proceedings under sections one to fourteen C, inclusive, in respect to any purpose set forth in said section one, to the same extent as individual proprietors. Said bodies politic, or any combination thereof, may also institute proceedings under said sections in their governmental capacity, in any case where it appears that the public health, safety or convenience will be promoted by improvements to effect any of said purposes, but in such proceedings no district shall be organized, and the improvements shall be constructed and maintained as provided in section five A. The petition in such a proceeding need cover only matters pertinent to the project therein set forth, and the provisions of section five requiring that the petitioners constitute a majority ownership of the lands affected shall not apply to such petition. Individuals and corporations qualifying as proprietors may join in any petition authorized in this section. Action by any such body politic hereunder shall be taken by the administrative head of the state department or commission, or by the mayor, selectmen, or prudential committee or other governing body, as the case may be. Notice of the hearing before said board on such a petition shall be given as provided in the first paragraph of section five to all petitioners and to the administrative heads of such state departments and commissions, mayors of such cities, selectmen of such towns, and the prudential committees or other governing bodies of such districts, as the said board may determine, and to all other known proprietors of lands to be affected by such improvements. Cities, towns and districts are hereby authorized to raise and appropriate money for such purposes.

§ 5. Petition to the board; investigation; appointment and compensation of district commissioners

The proprietors of any area described in section one or a majority in interest either in value or area may petition the board setting forth their desire to improve such area, the necessity or desirability of such improvements, the objects to be accomplished, a general description of the lands proposed to be affected and the names of known owners of said lands. Upon receipt of said petition and of a sum sufficient to meet its expenses therefor, the board shall proceed to make such investigations and such surveys of said lands as may be necessary to determine the approximate area and boundaries thereof, the need of the proposed improvements, the probable benefit, if any, to the public health, the agricultural or other uses to which the lands can be put and their probable value for such uses after the improvements are completed, and in general the practicability and advisability of undertaking the proposed improvements. Any unexpended balance of the amount so received shall be reimbursed to the contributors in proportion to their contributions. If such improvements appear to the board to be advisable and practicable, the board shall give notice of the petition therefor by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the greater part of the land lies and by registered mail to each known proprietor, stating the date of a hearing to be held by the board not less than seven days after the publication of said notice and the date of mailing notices to the proprietors. After the hearing, if the board approves the proposed improvements, it shall determine whether or not the organization of a reclamation district is necessary to construct and maintain said improvements.

If the board decides that a district should be organized, it shall issue a certificate appointing three, five or seven district commissioners, who shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall authorize said commissioners to form a reclamation district under the following section. The board shall fix the compensation of said commissioners, which shall not exceed ten dollars for each day of actual service, and shall allow them necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Such compensation and expenses shall be paid by the district and the district shall reimburse the contributors to the expenses of the board the amounts of their several contributions less any unexpended balances returned to them as hereinbefore provided, and said expenditures shall be a part of the total expense of the improvements. Any commissioner may be removed by the board for cause and the board may fill vacancies. The certificate of appointment of said commissioners shall be revoked by the board when the objects for which they were appointed have been accomplished. For the purpose of this and the eleven following sections, a mortgagor or mortgagee in possession shall be deemed a proprietor.

§ 5A. Improvements; undertaking without forming district; commissioners; powers; mosquito control

If the board determines that the proposed improvements should be undertaken and that their construction and maintenance may be effected without the formation of a district, and in every such case where the board is petitioned by a body politic in its governmental capacity under section four A, it shall notify all persons and bodies politic to be benefited thereby of the estimated expense of constructing the proposed improvements, including land damages, if any, and of the maintenance thereof. Upon receipt of sums of money sufficient to cover such estimated construction expense, or of any money which can be used for such purposes to the advantage of the contributors, the board shall designate an identifying name under which said improvements shall be made and shall deposit the money so received with the state treasurer, who shall hold such money in a special fund or funds for such purpose, and shall disburse the same on warrants drawn by the board. The board shall thereupon issue a certificate appointing one or more commissioners, who shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall authorize said commissioners to proceed to make the improvements, which may be made at such places, either within or without the commonwealth, as may be necessary or convenient to make the improvements effective; and said commissioners shall thereupon proceed so to do. The board shall fix the compensation of said commissioners and shall allow them their necessary travel and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties. Such compensation and expenses shall constitute a part of the expense of making and maintaining such improvements. Any commissioner may be removed by the board for cause and the board may fill vacancies. The board may discharge the commissioners when the improvements are completed and may appoint others to care for maintenance. Any excess funds received under authority of this section shall be returned to the contributors thereof in proportion to the contributions. If the sums so estimated are not sufficient to complete such improvements, the board shall determine the amount of the estimated additional cost thereof and shall notify the original contributors of their shares of such additional cost. The board shall instruct the commissioners not to continue with such improvements until such additional funds are received by the board, and such commissioners, after receipt of such instructions, shall incur no further expense in connection with such improvements until authorized so to do by the board. If one or more, but less than all, of several petitioners provide their respective proportions of the fund estimated as necessary to make such improvements, the board may appoint commissioners to make such portion of such improvements as, in its opinion, will benefit the contributors. For the purpose of effecting such improvements and providing for their maintenance as provided in this section, the board shall have all the powers conferred by sections two, three, four, five, except the last paragraph thereof, and eight, and the commissioners by it appointed shall have all the powers conferred upon district commissioners under sections twelve and thirteen, provided that in taking by eminent domain or acquiring by purchase, gift or otherwise, land or other property or any interest therein, the commissioners so appointed shall take or acquire the same in the name and on behalf of the city or town wherein the land or other property or interests are situated, but not until such city or town has duly authorized such taking, has assumed all liability for damages therefor and has complied with all provisions of law applicable to land takings by cities or towns. All amounts for which a city or town may be liable hereunder, together with interest and costs, may be contributed by persons or bodies politic benefited by such improvements in proportion to their respective benefits or otherwise. Any city or town included in an area designated by an identifying name, under any general or special law, as a mosquito control project for the purposes of this section, which has withdrawn from membership in such project may, with the approval of the board and upon such conditions as the board may prescribe, vote to become a member of the existing mosquito control project within its area.

Amended by St.1960, c. 199.

§ 5B. Local boards of health; power to determine mosquito breeding area a public nuisance; abatement

The board of health of a city or town not included in an area designated by an identifying name for the purpose of section five A, or the commissioners appointed to make improvements on behalf of a mosquito control district under such a name, as provided in said section, may determine any area infested by mosquitoes, or likely to produce mosquitoes within the limits of any such city or town or of such district, to be a public nuisance, and may serve upon the owner, occupant or person in charge of such area, written notice of the presence of such nuisance with a statement that such mosquitoes cause a public nuisance, together with directions to abate the same, giving the methods of treatment for the abatement thereof, and stating a time within which the nuisance shall be abated in accordance with the methods given therein. If the person so notified refuses or neglects to abate such nuisance the board of health or the commissioners, as the case may be, may abate such nuisance in such manner as may be approved by the board, and may maintain such works as may be necessary to prevent its recurrence, and said boards of health or commission may employ all necessary assistants for this purpose, who may enter upon public or private property, if such entry is necessary for this purpose.

§ 6. Reclamation district; formation

The district commissioners, in this and the ten following sections called the commissioners, after being sworn, shall call a meeting of the proprietors of the lands to be improved, by giving in such manner as the board may order, a notice to each known proprietor, signed by the commissioners and setting forth the time and place of a meeting for the purpose of organizing a reclamation district to carry out the proposed improvements and maintain the same after they are completed. The notice shall be in the form of a warrant specifying the matters upon which action is to be taken at the meeting. The chairman of the commissioners or another commissioner designated by him shall call the meeting to order and shall determine whether or not proprietors constituting a majority in interest, in either value or area, are present or represented by proxies duly executed and placed in the hands of other proprietors prior to said meeting. Lacking such a majority, the meeting shall have no power to act, but the commissioners may, in the manner above provided, call additional meetings for the same purpose. The meeting shall elect a temporary clerk, who shall be sworn, and a moderator. The moderator shall submit to the proprietors present the question of accepting sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, and of organizing a reclamation district, and if a majority of those present in person or by proxy and voting on the question, vote to accept and to organize such district the provisions of said sections shall take full effect. The vote shall be recorded and a copy thereof shall be filed with the board. The meeting may then proceed to act upon the other articles, if any, contained in the warrant. Such district shall at the same meeing elect by ballot a district clerk and a district treasurer, who may be the same person, to hold office until one year from the next succeeding annual meeting and at each annual meeting after the first a clerk and treasurer shall be elected by ballot for one year. There shall also be elected by ballot a prudential committee of three members who shall hold office, one for three years, one for two years, and one for one year, from the next succeeding annual meeting. At each annual meeting after the first a member of said committee shall be elected by ballot for three years. The aforesaid officers of the district shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. The district may also, at the first or any subsequent meeting, borrow for preliminary or current expenses such sums as may be necessary and may issue therefor notes payable in not more than two years from their dates. Notes issued under this provision shall be subject to the provisions of chapter forty-four and to the other requirements for district notes imposed by section ten. The proceeds of such notes shall be held by the treasurer of the district, and payments therefrom shall be made only on vouchers duly approved by a majority of the prudential committee.

Subsequent meetings of the district shall be called by the clerk at the request of the commissioners or any two or more proprietors, or, in case the clerk neglects or refuses to call a meeting when so requested such meeting may upon application by said commissioners or two or more proprietors be called upon a warrant from a justice of the peace directed to one of the applicants and requiring him to give notice of said meeting as hereinafter provided. Notices of meetings shall be given by posting copies of the warrant in two or more public places within the district or by mailing copies of said warrant to each known proprietor at least seven days before the time set for the meeting. At each meeting a moderator shall be chosen who shall have the powers of the moderator of a town meeting so far as may be necessary. The clerk shall preside at each meeting after the first until a moderator is chosen.

The officers of the district shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties. Any vacancy occurring in the office of clerk, treasurer, or member of the prudential committee may be filled by the district for the remainder of the unexpired term at any legal meeting called for the purpose, or in case of a vacancy in the office of clerk or treasurer or disability affecting either of said officers the prudential committee may appoint a person to fill said vacancy until an election can be held or the disability is removed. Such temporary appointee shall be sworn and shall perform the duties of the office to which he is appointed during his tenure thereof.

The prudential committee shall have charge of expenditures on account of the district for maintenance of the improvements made under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, and shall exercise the authority conferred upon the district by law except as otherwise expressly provided, and subject to the by-laws of the district and such instructions, rules and regulations as the district may impose by its vote.

The treasurer shall give bond for the faithful performance of his official duties in a sum and with sureties approved by the prudential committee. He shall receive all money belonging to the district except as otherwise specified in this and the ten following sections and shall make payments and account for the same in accordance with the requirements of sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, and of chapter forty-four so far as applicable, under direction of the district or of the prudential committee. A temporary treasurer appointed to fill a vacancy, as above provided, shall give bond in the same manner as the treasurer.

A district organized under the provisions of this section may adopt by-laws consistent with the laws applicable to such district and subject to the approval of the board. Such by-laws may provide for proxy voting by the members at any or all meetings of the district. The district shall have such rights and powers as may be necessary and proper for operating and maintaining the improvements made by the commissioners, and for making, operating and maintaining such further improvements as may be authorized under section fourteen A. The members of the district shall be the proprietors from time to time of lands lying within its limits. No such district shall dissolve without specific authorization by the general court, which shall not be given until provision has been made for payment of the obligations of said district.

§ 6A. Reclamation district; liability insurance

Any district established under this chapter may pay a proper charge for effecting insurance providing an indemnity or protection of such district or of any officer or employee of such district, whose services as such is approved by the commissioners thereof, against loss by reason of liability to pay damages to others for bodily injuries, including death at any time resulting therefrom, or for damage to property caused by any act which is within the scope of his official duties or employment including the operation of any motor or other vehicle equipment or vessel owned or leased by such district, and to pay the proper charge for effecting insurance to cover the district's liability to pay workmen's compensation and to pay the proper charge to prevent loss by reason of destruction or damage to buildings or personal property by fire or other causes normally covered by fire insurance policies, and to pay the proper charge for effecting insurance to prevent loss by reason of damage to motor vehicles owned by such district.

Added by St.1962, c. 283. Amended by St.1971, c. 258.

§ 7. Surveys and investigations; expense of improvements; hearings; recording of improvements

As soon as the district shall have been organized under the provisions of the preceding section the commissioners shall, under direction of the board, cause the necessary surveys and investigations to be made and shall prepare a plan showing in detail the boundaries of the district and the improvements to be effected. On the basis of such surveys and investigations the commissioners shall prepare an estimate of the total expense of the proposed improvements and shall determine the percentage of such expense to be paid by each proprietor, based on the estimated special benefit to his land in excess of the damage thereto by the use thereof for the proposed improvements. If such damage to the land of any proprietor exceeds the special benefit thereto they shall award him damages for such excess. They shall report their plan, estimate and determination to the board, which shall approve, disapprove or modify such plan and estimate. The commissioners shall also notify each proprietor of such determination by delivering a copy thereof at his residence or by sending the same by registered mail to his last known address and shall certify to the board the date on which such notice is given. If any proprietor is aggrieved by the determination of the commissioners he may, within fifteen days after notice thereof, file with the board his objections thereto and if no such objections are filed by any proprietor within the fifteen days above specified then the determination of the commissioners shall be final. The board shall, within thirty days after receiving notice of objections by any proprietor against the determination, notify all the proprietors that such objections have been received and shall hold a hearing thereon, but such hearing shall not be held within seven days after notice is given to all the proprietors that objections have been filed. If objections are made by more than one proprietor all such objections shall be considered in one hearing. After such hearing the board may confirm or modify the determination and shall notify the proprietors of its decision. If any proprietor is dissatisfied with the action of the board he may petition the superior court in the county in which the greater part of the land included within the district is situated, making all the proprietors who have not joined in his petition parties respondent and praying for a revision of such decision, provided that such petition shall be entered not later than thirty days after notice of the decision. The court sitting without jury shall hear the petition and shall confirm or alter the percentages previously determined to be payable by any or all said proprietors, as justice may require. Such petition shall not operate to suspend or delay other proceedings by the board or commissioners on the land to be improved. The expenses incurred under this section shall constitute a part of the total expense of the improvements and shall be paid by the district in the same manner as the remainder of such expense.

As soon as the percentages payable as aforesaid by said proprietors in the case of original and of further improvements have been finally determined in accordance with this section the board shall on behalf of the reclamation district cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds of every county or district in which the benefited area is situated a description sufficiently accurate for identification of such area, a copy of a plan to which reference shall be made and also an estimate of the total amount to be assessed on each parcel of land within such area, all as set forth in section two of chapter eighty. No original or further improvements shall be approved by the board until after such recording.

§ 8. Expenses; contribution by state

Should the board be of the opinion that a part of the expense of the improvements made under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, should be paid by the commonwealth for the benefit of the public health of said commonwealth as a whole it shall estimate the amount which in its opinion should be so paid and shall include the same in its estimates under section four of chapter twenty-nine.

§ 9. Meeting; choosing method of financing; bonds

As soon as possible after the recording of the description, plan and estimate as provided in section seven, the commissioners shall request the clerk to call a meeting of the district for the purpose of deciding upon a method of financing such improvements in accordance with this or the following section; provided, that the commissioners may in their discretion insert an article covering this question in the warrant for the meeting called to organize the district and the district at said meeting or any adjournment thereof may decide upon a method of financing. Any action under this chapter which involves expenditure by the district shall require a vote of proprietors representing a majority in interest both in acreage and value of the area included in the district. The commissioners shall, if the district so votes, petition the county commissioners of the county where the greater part of the land lies, annexing a certified copy of the petition under section five and of the determination of the board thereon, and a statement of the estimated expense of the proposed improvements and shall request the county commissioners to vote to pay in the first instance the total expense involved in making the improvements approved by the board, and the said county commissioners may so vote. To defray any expense incurred by said county commissioners under such vote, the county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may issue bonds or notes of the county to an amount not exceeding such expense, payable in such period, not exceeding twenty-five years from their dates of issue, as the county commissioners may determine. Such bonds or notes shall be signed by the county treasurer and countersigned by a majority of the county commissioners. The county may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the county commissioners may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. The first payment on account of the principal may, if the county commissioners so decide, be deferred for not more than five years after the date of issue of the bonds or notes, but such bonds or notes shall be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-five except as otherwise provided herein. Payments on account of principal and interest shall be made by the county and repaid to the county by the district.

§ 10. Financing; power of district to adopt alternative methods

The district may vote to adopt any of the three methods of financing hereinafter specified. (1) If all the members of the district agree, the district may raise by assessments upon the proprietors or by voluntary contributions and deposit with the state treasurer the total sum required to meet the estimated expense of the improvements. Such deposits shall be held by the state treasurer to the credit of the district, and payments shall be made therefrom as provided in section fourteen. (2) The district may pay the whole expense of the improvements from time to time as the work is performed and for this purpose may incur debt by a temporary loan in anticipation of the collection of assessments from the members of the district during the calendar year in which said debt is incurred or during the next succeeding calendar year. (3) The district may incur debt to the amount necessary to pay the estimated expense of the proposed improvements and may issue therefor notes or bonds, and may, if the board approves, issue notes or bonds on the condition that the first payment on account of the principal shall be deferred for a period of not more than five years from the date of issue of such notes or bonds and that the whole amount of such debt shall be payable within a period of not more than twenty-five years after such notes or bonds are issued.

Indebtedness incurred by the district under the provisions of this section or of section fourteen A shall be subject to chapter forty-four and to other provisions of the General Laws applicable to notes and bonds of districts except as otherwise provided in sections one to fourteen B, inclusive. Money received from the sale of notes or bonds issued under this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer and held by him to the credit of the district. If the district issues notes or bonds and thereafter the general court makes an appropriation to cover such part, if any, of the expenses of the improvements as it shall deem to be for the benefit of the public health of the commonwealth as a whole, the state treasurer may, in his discretion, make all or any part of such appropriation available to redeem notes or bonds of the district and shall hold the balance, if any, to the credit of the district to be used for payment of the expense of the improvements. If, after payment of the total expense of the improvements, money remains in the hands of the state treasurer to the credit of the district the same shall be paid to the treasurer of the district and shall be used to redeem outstanding notes or bonds which shall be cancelled by said district treasurer and not reissued. Bonds or notes issued under this section shall be the general obligations of the district by which they are issued.

§ 11. Assessments; collections

The clerk of the district shall certify to the assessors of the town or towns in which the land of the district lies all sums of money voted to be raised and all sums payable annually on account of the principal and interest due on bonds or notes issued under the provisions of section nine or ten, together with the amount to be paid by each proprietor according to the determination made under section seven, and said clerk shall also file an attested copy of such certification with the board. The amounts so certified shall be assessed upon the lands of the several proprietors within the area, and be committed to the collector of taxes of the town wherein the land assessed is situated, who shall have and exercise the same powers and duties in relation to the collection of such assessments as he has and exercises relative to the collection of town taxes. The collector shall remit weekly to the district treasurer all sums collected by him on account of such assessments. An assessment made hereunder shall be a lien upon the land assessed therefor, and such lien shall take effect upon the recording of the description, plan and estimate under section seven, and shall continue for a period of two years from July first of the year of assessment.

§ 12. Commissioners; powers and duties

If sections one to seven, inclusive, have been complied with, and payment of the expense of the improvements has been arranged under section nine or ten, the commissioners shall carry out said improvements in such manner as the board may approve. The commissioners may employ suitable persons to perform the work under their direction. So far as may be necessary to effect the improvements as approved by the board, the commissioners may take on behalf of the district, in the manner provided by chapter seventy-nine, lands, easements and rights in lands, if the improvements are for a public use, and may purchase and convey real and personal property both within and beyond the limits of the commonwealth. Any person damaged in his property by any action under this or the following section may recover his damages from the district in the manner provided by said chapter seventy-nine and such damages shall constitute a part of the total expense of the improvements.

§ 13. Erection of temporary dams; aggrieved parties; notice; appeal

If the commissioners find it necessary or expedient to lower or raise the water to obtain a view of the land or for the more convenient or expeditious removal of obstructions, they may open the flood gates of any mill or make other needful passages through or around the dam thereof, or erect a temporary dam on the land of a person not a party to the proceedings, and may maintain such dam or passages as long as necessary for such purposes; but before so doing, they shall give to such person reasonable written notice of their intention. If such person appeals from their decision and gives reasonable written notice thereof to any commissioner, the commissioners shall suspend all proceedings upon his land until such appeal is determined; provided, that the petition therefor is entered in the superior court for the county where the greater part of the land improved lies not later than thirty days after the time of giving such notice.

§ 14. Expenses; submission to the board; approval; payment

The commissioners shall at least once a month at such time as the board may require submit to it the accounts and vouchers for expenses incurred in meeting the cost of required improvements under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive. Such accounts and vouchers shall be inspected by the board and if it approves the same it shall forward them to the county treasurer or to the state treasurer, as the case may be, for payment from any funds which may be available for the purpose. Expenses for maintenance or for further improvements incurred under the direction of the prudential committee of the district as provided in section fourteen A shall be paid by the district treasurer on presentation by the prudential committee of accounts and vouchers for such expenses; provided, that accounts and vouchers for expenses incurred in connection with further improvements shall be subject to the approval of the board before payment. The commissioners appointed under section fourteen A to make further improvements shall present their accounts and vouchers to the board for approval in the same manner as the commissioners appointed under section five to make the original improvements.

§ 14A. Reclamation districts; further improvements; procedure

A reclamation district organized under this chapter may from time to time at a legal meeting called for the purpose, vote to undertake further improvements within the district, to raise money by assessment to meet the expense thereof and to incur debt therefor in the manner provided by section ten. Such vote shall not be passed until after completion of the original improvements. The district may also vote to request the board to appoint commissioners to carry out the proposed further improvements. Such commissioners shall be appointed by certificate of the board as provided in section five. The district may, however, authorize its prudential committee to carry out such further improvements. The commissioners or prudential committee acting under this section shall have and exercise, so far as necessary, the powers of commissioners appointed under section five to make original improvements. The clerk of the district shall notify the board of the vote taken and the commissioners or prudential committee shall submit to the board within a reasonable time the plan or plans for such improvements, which shall not be undertaken until the board approves the same. The district may assess upon its members such sums as may be necessary to pay for improvements so voted and for the maintenance of all improvements made under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, in the manner provided in section eleven for assessment of the expense of the original improvements. Such assessment shall be subject to the same provisions as the assessment authorized in said section eleven, shall be collected in the same manner and shall be paid to the treasurer of the district.

§ 14B. Additional water power or supply; prescriptive rights; necessity of vote before development

No person obtaining an additional water power or water supply by the doing of any work contemplated by sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, shall gain a prescriptive right to the use thereof, nor be entitled to any compensation for the taking thereof under said sections by the removal of any dam or flashboards or by the changing of the height or dimensions of any dam. No water power may be developed in a reclamation district organized under this chapter except by vote of the district and approval by the board.

§ 14C. Injury to improvements; penalty; damages

Whoever obstructs or injures any ditch, tide gate, dike or other structure constructed or used for any purpose authorized by any provision of sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars. The state reclamation board may also recover, in the name of the commonwealth, for any such obstruction or injury, in an action of contract, the amount of the damages sustained by reason thereof, and the provisions of section five A, relative to the disposition of money therein referred to, shall govern the disposition of money recovered in such action.

CONSTRUCTION OF ROADS, ETC., TO SWAMPS, ETC.

§ 15. General provisions

A town or person owning low land, ponds, swamps, quarries, mines or mineral deposits, which, on account of adjacent lands belonging to other persons or occupied as a highway, cannot be approached, worked, cultivated, drained or used to advantage in the ordinary manner without crossing such land or highway, may construct roads, drains, ditches, tunnels and railways thereto and, when the construction of such improvements is required by public convenience and necessity, may take the land of such other persons for the location of such improvements as hereinafter provided.

§ 16. Petition; security

A party desiring to make such improvements shall file a petition therefor with the county commissioners for the county where the greater part of the land lies, setting forth the names of the persons interested, if known to the petitioner, and also in detail the nature of the proposed improvement and the situation of the adjoining land. The petitioner shall give such county security satisfactory to the commissioners that he will indemnify such county from all damages and charges which it is obliged to pay by reason thereof.

§ 17. Notice

The commissioners at their first meeting after the filing of the petition shall order notice of the time and place of meeting, to consider the petition, to be published once in each of three successive weeks in a newspaper, if any, published in the county; otherwise, in a newspaper published in an adjacent county. They shall also give notice thereof to the clerk of each town where the land lies.

§ 18. Laying out; taking; damages

If, after examination, inspection and a hearing, they find that the improvements prayed for are required by the public convenience and necessity they shall so lay out and establish the same as to do as little injury as practicable, and if it is necessary to take private property for such improvements may take it on behalf of such county under chapter seventy-nine. Any person sustaining damage in his property by the laying out or establishment of such improvements shall be entitled to recover the same under said chapter.

§ 19. Benefits; duty of commissioner to assess

The commissioners shall assess the amount awarded as damages upon the persons for whose use the improvements are to be made, in proportion to the benefit to be received by each; but no person shall be assessed an amount greater than the benefit to be received by him. The provisions of chapter eighty relative to the abatement and collection of betterments shall apply to assessments made under this section.

§ 20. Repairs

If it is necessary to repair an improvement so made, a majority of the persons benefited by it may cause such repairs to be made, and may by bill in equity compel contribution on the basis of the award from the owner of each parcel of land for the use of which the improvement was made.

§ 21. Petition to mayor and aldermen or selectmen

If the land mentioned in section fifteen lies entirely in one town, the petition may be made to the mayor and aldermen or selectmen thereof, who shall proceed thereon in all respects as above provided for county commissioners, except that they need not give notice to their town. Such petition shall be filed in the office of the town clerk before proceedings are had thereon; and the petition with the order thereon shall be recorded in said office within two months after the order has been made.

§ 22. Fees

The mayor and aldermen or selectmen shall each receive two dollars for each day's service upon such petition, and the city or town clerk shall receive for recording a petition or order thereon the fee provided by clause (68) of section thirty-four of chapter two hundred and sixty-two.

Amended by St.1948, c. 550, § 44.

§ 23. Appeal

A party aggrieved by the refusal of the mayor and aldermen or selectmen to make such order, may, within one year thereafter, petition the county commissioners, who shall thereupon proceed in all respects as though the petition had been originally filed with them.

GREENHEAD FLY CONTROL PROJECTS

§ 24. Establishment; proceedings

With the approval of the state reclamation board, hereinafter called the board, any city or town along the seacoast of the commonwealth may, in a city by vote of the city council and in a town by vote of the selectmen, establish a greenhead fly control project within its area, and any two or more adjoining such cities or towns may, by like votes, form a district within their combined areas.

In those areas where district greenhead fly control projects have been formed, the board shall appoint three district commissioners, who shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties. The board shall fix the compensation of said commissioners at a sum not to exceed five dollars per day of actual service, and shall allow them actual traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Such compensation and expenses shall be charged to and paid by the district. Any commissioner may be removed by the board for cause and the board may fill vacancies. The certificate of appointment of said commissioners shall be revoked by the board when the objects for which they have been appointed have been accomplished. The duties of the commissioners shall be established by the board.

The votes of said cities and towns to form a district shall be binding for a period of not longer than five years, and any city or town having voted to form a district may withdraw from the district, on any anniversary date of its original vote in paragraph one, by like vote not more than sixty days nor less than ten days prior thereto and notification to the board.

Any city or town may, with the approval of the board, vote as in paragraph one to become a member of an existing district greenhead fly control project.

The city, town or district shall determine the maximum annual amount to be expended in carrying out its individual project, and shall forthwith notify the board of such determination.

In the case of a district greenhead fly control project the maximum annual cost shall be determined by the commissioners, and the board shall determine the proportionate share of such annual cost, which shall be borne by each of the constituent municipalities, apportioned as hereinafter set forth, and shall forthwith notify the treasurer of each member city or town of such determination.

One third of such cost shall be borne by the several municipalities within a district in proportion to the entire salt marsh area contained within their respective boundaries, a similar one third based on the foregoing provision shall be borne by the commonwealth, subject to appropriation, and further subject to the direction and control of the board, and the remaining one third of such cost shall be borne by the several municipalities within the district in proportion to their respective taxable valuations as last established by the general court as a basis of apportionment for state and county taxes. A city or town establishing such a project within its area shall bear the entire cost thereof.

Each of the municipalities comprising such a district shall pay its share of such cost, as so determined, and each city or town establishing such a project shall pay its entire cost, into the state treasury. Any city, town or district may in any year anticipate its liability for such cost, and may raise, appropriate and deposit the amount thereof with the state treasurer, and any sums so deposited shall be credited against its said liability.

Subject to appropriation, there shall annually be expended from the state treasury, under the direction and control of the board, and, where necessary or advisable, in advance of the payment by any city or town of the amount of its liability under the foregoing paragraph, sums not in the excess of the maxima respectively established for said projects, for the elimination or control of the greenhead fly nuisance within the area of each, in accordance with such plans and by means of such methods of control as may be prepared and devised by the board to effect the greatest measure of relief. There may also be disbursed for the furtherance of such a project any other sums voluntarily deposited with the state treasurer by any persons, groups or associations for said project purposes.

Added by St.1948, c. 391, § 1. Amended by St.1954, c. 388, § 1; St.1955, c. 433.

MILLS AND MILL DAMS

§ 1. Erection

A person may, as hereinafter provided, erect and maintain a water mill and a dam to raise water for working it, upon and across any stream not navigable.

§ 2. Dams; injury to existing mill; prohibition

Such dam shall not be erected to the injury of a mill lawfully existing above or below it on the same stream, nor to the injury of a mill site on the same stream on which a mill or mill dam has been lawfully erected and used, unless the right to maintain a mill on such last mentioned site has been lost by abandonment or otherwise; nor shall a mill dam be erected or raised to the injury of any such mill site which has been occupied as such by the owner thereof, if, within a reasonable time after commencing such occupation, he completes and puts in operation a mill for the working of which the water of such stream is applied; nor shall a mill or dam be placed on the land of any person without such grant, conveyance or authority from the owner as would be necessary to convey land.

§ 3. Height of water

The height to which the water may be raised and the period of time for which it may be kept up in each year may be determined by jury.

§ 4. Overflow or injury to land; action for compensation; limitation; venue

The owner or occupant of land which has been overflowed or otherwise injured by such dam may bring a civil action to obtain compensation therefor. Such action shall be commenced within three years next after the event complained of in the superior court for the county where the land or any part thereof lies; but if the land overflowed or injured is outside the commonwealth such action shall be brought in the superior court for the county where the dam or any part thereof is maintained.

§§ 5, 6. Repealed by St.1973, c. 1114, § 299

§ 7. Jury

Such action shall be tried by a jury and, if either party requires it, the jury shall, under the direction of the court, view the land alleged to be injured.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 300.

§ 8. Assessment of damages

If the jury finds that the plaintiff has suffered the injury complained of, it shall assess the amount of damages sustained within three years last preceding the commencement of the action and to the date of their verdict, taking into consideration any damage caused by the dam to other land of the plaintiff as well as the damage caused thereby to the land overflowed reduced by any benefit caused thereby to the plaintiff's land.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 300.

§ 9. Height of dam; determination by jury

If it is alleged in the plaintiff's complaint that the dam has been raised to an unreasonable height, or that it ought not to be kept up and closed during the whole year, the jury shall determine by their verdict how much, if at all, the dam shall be lowered and whether it shall be left open, and, if so, during what part of the year.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 300.

§ 10. Annual and gross damages; assessment by jury

They shall also determine by their verdict what amount, if any, to be paid annually to the plaintiff, would be a just and reasonable compensation for the damages that may be thereafter caused by the dam, so long as it is used in conformity with the verdict; and also what amount in gross would be a just and reasonable compensation for all damages thereafter to be caused by such use of the dam and for the right to maintain and use it forever as aforesaid.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 301.

§ 11. Plaintiff; right to elect gross amount

The plaintiff may, within three months after the verdict has been recorded elect, by a writing filed in the clerk's office, to take the amount so awarded in gross, instead of such annual compensation.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 302.

§ 12. Gross amount; time for payment

The owner or occupant of the mill or dam shall, within three months after such election, pay to the plaintiff or secure to his satisfaction said amount with interest from the date of the verdict. After the expiration of said three months, and until payment of said damages and interest, such owner or occupant shall lose all benefit of the provisions of this chapter.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 303.

§ 13. Annual compensation

If the plaintiff does not file an election, as aforesaid; he and all persons claiming under him shall, so long as the dam is kept up and maintained, be entitled to receive from the owner or occupant of the mill the annual compensation so established by the jury, unless the amount is increased or diminished upon a new petition, as hereinafter provided.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 304.

§ 14. Damages; lien on mill

The person who is entitled to receive said annual compensation or gross damages shall have a lien therefor, from the time of the commencement of the original action, on the mill and mill dam with their appurtenances and on the land under and adjoining the same and used therewith; but such lien shall not extend to any amount due more than three years before the commencement of an action therefor.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 305.

§ 15. Recovery of damages; enforcement of lien

Such person may recover, in contract in the superior court from the person who owns or occupies the mill when the action is brought, the whole amount due and unpaid for the three years last preceding, and costs, although the amount recovered is less than one hundred dollars.

§ 16. Sale on execution

The execution issued on such judgment, if not otherwise satisfied, may, within thirty days after judgment, be levied on the land so subject to the lien; and the officer may thereupon sell, in the manner provided for the sale of land on execution, such land or so much thereof as is necessary to satisfy the execution and the expenses of the levy. Such sale shall be valid against any claim which has accrued within the time covered by the lien.

§ 17. Redemption

A person who is entitled to the land so sold may redeem the same within one year after the sale, upon paying to the purchaser or to the person holding under him the amount paid therefor, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent a year.

§ 18. Costs

The party prevailing upon such action shall be entitled to costs, except as otherwise provided.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 306.

§ 19. Remedies

No action shall be maintained at common law for the recovery of damages for the erection, maintenance or use of a mill or mill dam, if a remedy therefor is provided in this chapter.

§ 20. Existing mills and dams; effect of this chapter

This chapter shall not, except as herein expressly provided, affect the right to keep up, maintain and use any lawfully existing water mill and mill dam; but if the owner or occupant thereof makes any material change by raising the dam or by altering the machinery or the manner of using the water, so as to cause additional damage to the land of another, it shall be considered a new mill or dam, in respect to such additional damage, and the remedy for compensation therefor shall be substantially the same as in the case of a new dam.

§ 21. Reassessment; new action

If either party is dissatisfied with the annual compensation established by proceedings upon a civil action under this chapter or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, a new action may be commenced for the increase or diminution of such compensation or for ascertaining the gross amount of the damages, and the action shall be conducted substantially in the manner provided for an original action; but if a plaintiff has declined to accept gross damages which have been awarded to him, they shall not be again assessed within ten years thereafter.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 307.

§ 22. Reassessment; parties; time

Such new action may be maintained by and against either of the parties to the original action or by and against a person lawfully holding under either of them, but it shall not be brought until the expiration of one month after the payment of the year last preceding was due.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 307.

§ 23. Costs; avoidance by offer to pay increased compensation

The owner of the mill or dam may, within said month, offer in writing to the owner of the land any increase of said annual compensation; and if the owner of the land does not agree to accept it, but brings an action to obtain an increase, he shall pay the costs, unless he recovers a greater annual compensation than was so offered.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 308.

§ 24. Costs; avoidance by offer to accept smaller compensation

The owner of the land may, within said month, offer in writing to the owner of the mill or dam to accept a smaller amount than that established as said annual compensation; and if the owner of the mill or dam does not agree to pay such reduced compensation, but brings an action to obtain a diminution thereof, he shall pay the costs, unless the annual compensation is reduced by the verdict to an amount less than the offer.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 309.

§ 25. Offer to tenants

Such offers may be made by or to the respective tenants or occupants of the land and of the mill or dam, in like manner and with like effect as if made by or to the respective owners, except that no agreement founded thereon shall bind said owners unless made with their consent.

§ 26. Acceptance of offer; effect

If the offer so made by either party is accepted by the other, it shall establish the annual compensation to be thereafter paid, as if it had been established by a judgment in a civil action, if a memorandum of such offer and acceptance and of the agreement, signed by the respective parties or by persons authorized by them, is filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the court in which the former judgment was rendered, with a note of reference on the record of the former judgment to the book in which the agreement is recorded.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 310.

§ 27. Verdict; effect upon action for new damages

If, upon an action by the owner of the land, the jury return a verdict that he is not entitled to any annual compensation, the judgment thereon shall not bar a new action for damages alleged to have arisen after such verdict and for compensation for damages thereafter sustained.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 311.

§ 28. Tender; effect on costs

In every civil action brought by the owner of land alleged to be injured by a mill dam, the defendant may bring into court and there tender any amount which he considers proper to be paid to the plaintiff for the damages incurred up to the time of such tender, and may also offer to pay any certain annual compensation for the damages which may be thereafter caused by the dam. If the plaintiff does not accept the amount so tendered with his costs to that time, he shall, unless he recovers greater damages or greater annual compensation than was so offered, be entitled to his costs to the time of the tender, and the defendant shall be entitled to his costs after said time.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 312.

§ 29. Tender; judgment upon acceptance; costs

If the plaintiff accepts the amount so offered for the past damage and for future annual compensation, he shall have judgment therefor and for costs to that time; or the plaintiff may accept either the amount tendered for past damages or the offer for future annual compensation, and proceed to trial on the residue of the complaint under the same liability for costs.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 312.

§ 30. Action; joinder of parties

Two or more persons who are jointly or separately interested in the land injured may join in a civil action, and the jury may assess joint or several damages as the interest and title of the plaintiffs may require; and judgment and execution shall conform thereto.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 312.

§ 31. Repealed by St.1973, c. 1114, § 313

§ 32. Reversal of judgment for plaintiff; new action; time limit

If a judgment for the plaintiff is reversed for error, the plaintiff, or any person claiming under him, may commence a new action for the same cause within one year after the reversal of the judgment, and recover all damages sustained during the three years last preceding or at any time after the commencement of the original action.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 314.

§ 33. Overflowing public ways; petition

If a person who owns, erects or maintains a water mill or a dam to raise water for working such mill upon or across a stream not navigable desires to raise, erect or maintain a dam at such a height or in such a manner as to overflow or otherwise injure an existing public way, he may apply by petition to the commissioner of environmental quality engineering, hereinafter called the commissioner, stating the height at which it is desired to maintain such dam and the ways which may be injured thereby, and asking for the alteration, change of grade or specific repairs of such ways.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 1; St.1975, c. 706, § 299.

§ 34. Notice

Notice of the hearing upon such petition shall be given to the towns where the ways are situated, and to the owners or occupants of the land affected thereby, in like manner as notice of the laying out of highways is given.

§ 35. Change of grade of ways; power of commissioners to order

The commissioner may, after a hearing, order such alteration, repairs or change of grade of such ways as will in his judgment enable the petitioner to raise, erect and maintain such dam without overflowing or otherwise injuring such ways, and they may give written direction and authority to the petitioner to make at his own expense such alterations, changes of grade and repairs within a reasonable time. He shall record all such orders and shall cause certified copies thereof to be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of each town in which such alterations, changes of grade or repairs are ordered.

§ 36. Damages; duty of commissioner to assess

The commissioner shall assess and order the petitioner to pay all damages sustained by any person or town by reason of the alterations, changes of grade or repairs ordered by him, and any person or town aggrieved by such assessment may, on application within one year from the entry of such order, have the damages assessed by a jury in the manner provided in chapter seventy-nine.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 2.

§ 37. Costs

The costs of proceedings under the preceding four sections shall be paid by the petitioners, who may be required by the commissioner to give bond with sufficient sureties for the payment thereof.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 2.

§ 38. Order of commissioner; compliance; exoneration from criminal liability

The order of the commissioner, duly issued under section thirty-five, shall authorize the petitioner to do all acts necessary to be done in compliance therewith; and if it is shown that the petitioner has substantially complied with such order, no indictment shall be maintained for the flowage of, or injury to, the ways mentioned in such order, which may be caused by the dam.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 2.

CRANBERRY LAND AND ICE PONDS

§ 39. Dam to flow cranberry land; erection; license

An owner or lessee of land appropriated or which he desires to appropriate to the cultivation and growth of cranberries may erect and maintain a dam upon and across a stream to flow and irrigate said land, subject to this chapter so far as applicable; but he shall not erect and maintain a dam across a navigable stream or across the outlet of a great pond, without a license therefor from the department of public works.

§ 40. Expense; apportionment; appeal

If a dam has been so erected or maintained or if a person has at his own expense made, kept open or repaired any ditches or drains for the improvement or cultivation of such tract of land, any owner or lessee of a like tract, who uses such dam, ditches or drains or who by more remote means receives benefit thereby for the flowing, irrigating or draining of such last mentioned tract, shall pay to the person who has erected or maintained such dam or incurred such expense his proportionate part thereof, which shall be determined by the alderman the city or the selectmen of the town and certified to such owner or lessee. Any person aggrieved by such determination may within three months after notice thereof appeal therefrom to the superior court for the county where the dam, ditches or drains are situated, and shall be entitled to a jury trial; but before taking his appeal he shall give one month's notice, in writing, to the aldermen or selectmen of his intention so to appeal, and shall therein specify particularly his objections to the determination, to which specification he shall be confined upon the hearing by jury. If such owner or lessee fails to pay to the person entitled such proportionate part as finally determined, within said three months if there is no appeal, otherwise within seven days after final determination, he shall pay double the amount so determined with all expenses arising from such failure; and such person may recover the same in contract in his own name. But no covenants or agreements by or between the owners or lessees of such land shall be affected by this section.

§ 41. Ice ponds; erection of dams; consent of owners; damages

An owner or lessee of land used for an ice pond may erect and, between November first and March first, maintain a dam across a stream not navigable, for the purpose of making an ice pond by flowing adjoining land, subject to this chapter so far as applicable, if he annually pays to the owner of land which may be overflowed or injured thereby the amount of the tax which may from time to time be assessed on such land; but such dam shall not be erected without the consent of all of the owners of the land which would be flowed by it, unless the person proposing to erect it shall furnish to such owners as do not consent to the erection security, satisfactory to them or approved by a justice of a court of record or by a master in chancery, for the payment of any damages which may be caused by flowing the land of such owners.

DAMS OF RESERVOIR CORPORATIONS

§ 42. Land flowed; compensation

A domestic reservoir corporation may flow the land of other persons by its reservoir dam, and a person whose land or property has been flowed or injured by such dam, unless compensation has been otherwise made, may obtain compensation therefor as provided in this chapter.

§ 43. Security

The court in which an action for such compensation is pending shall, if requested by the plaintiff, require such corporation to give satisfactory security for the payment of all damages and costs which may be awarded thereon, and if the court finds that the security has become insufficient, it shall require the corporation to give further security. If the corporation neglects for one month or for such further time as the court allows to comply with any such order, it shall lose all rights under this chapter, and the court may restrain it from flowing or injuring such land or property until such security has been given.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 315.

SAFETY OF RESERVOIRS AND DAMS

§ 44. Definitions

In this section and in sections forty-five to forty-seven, inclusive, the term commissioner shall mean the commissioner of the department of environmental quality engineering or his designee. The term dam, as used in sections forty-five to forty-seven, inclusive, shall mean any artificial barrier, including appurtenant works, which impounds or diverts water, and which (1) is twenty-five feet or more in height from the natural bed of the stream or watercourse measured at the downstream toe of the barrier, or from the lowest elevation of the outside limit of the barrier, if it is not across a stream channel or watercourse, to the maximum water storage elevation, or (2) has an impounding capacity at maximum water storage elevation of fifty acre-feet or more. As used in this section the term dam shall not mean any barrier which is not in excess of six feet in height, regardless of storage capacity, or which has a storage capacity at maximum water storage elevation not in excess of fifteen acre-feet, regardless of height. Any other dam, the breaching of which could endanger property or safety which is designated by the commissioner under criteria established by regulations promulgated by the commissioner shall be subject to the provisions of sections forty-four to forty-seven, inclusive. Said regulations shall classify dams according to the potential for damage to life or property, taking into consideration factors such as height, type of structure, condition of structure, volume of the impoundment, extent of development downstream and other factors deemed appropriate by the commissioner.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 3; St.1979, c. 722.

§ 45. Construction or alteration; permit

No person shall construct or materially alter a dam without a permit from the commissioner, which permit shall be recorded in the registry of deeds prior to construction. The application for a permit shall be accompanied by plans, specifications and related documents certified by a registered professional civil engineer approved by the commissioner. Construction of the dam shall be performed under the supervision of a registered professional civil engineer retained by the applicant. The commissioner may require said engineer to submit periodic construction reports and as-built drawings, so called, upon completion. If, after investigation of such periodic construction reports, the commissioner determines that construction does not conform to such plans and specifications, the said commissoner may order the discontinuance of the project until such time as he is satisfied that the work shall be performed in accordance with such plans. The engineer shall certify, upon completion of the work, that the dam has been constructed in accordance with the permit.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 3; St.1979, c. 722.

§ 46. Inspection

Every dam shall be inspected visually by the commissioner, according to a schedule established by regulations. After such inspection, the commissioner may order the owner of the dam to cause a thorough examination of the dam, including such tests as the commissioner may require to be made by a registered professional civil engineer, who shall certify as to the condition, adequacy and safety of the dam, within a period of time fixed by the commissioner. The commissioner may make examinations and tests he determines necessary.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 3; St.1979, c. 722.

§ 47. Corrective and emergency actions; enforcement

If the owner fails to certify as to the condition, adequacy or safety of the dam after being ordered to do so by the commissioner, the said commissioner may order said owner to immediately take necessary corrective action, including alteration, repair or removal of the dam or drawing down of the impounded water, to abate a threat to safety and property. If the owner fails to take the action ordered by the commissioner, or if the owner of the dam cannot be determined, the commissioner may take such action as he deems necessary to abate such threat to safety or property. Any emergency action taken by the owner of a dam pursuant to the commissioners order, or any emergency action taken by the commissioner, may be taken without any prior filing with the conservation commission under section forty of chapter one hundred and thirty-one. If water has been drawn off or the structure has been altered pursuant to an order by the commissioner, the impoundment shall not be refilled without approval of the commissioner.

Personnel of the department who are authorized by the commissioner, may enter private property to take action to enforce the provisions of sections forty-four to forty-seven, inclusive. The commissioner may enter into contracts to take actions, draw off water or make temporary repairs without complying with competitive bidding requirements, if such action is necessary to abate a threat to safety or property. The commissioner shall adopt regulations subject to the provisions of chapter thirty A for the enforcement of the provisions of sections forty-four to forty-seven, inclusive.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 3; St.1979, c. 722.

§ 48. Costs

The commissioner shall make such orders as he may deem just as to the payment by the owner, commonwealth or other party of the costs and expenses incurred by them under the preceding three sections, and if the reservoir or dam was adjudged to be unsafe, said costs and expenses may be ordered paid by the owner, with interest, from the time they were paid by the commonwealth. Notice shall be given the state treasurer and the owner or other party of the amount due the commonwealth.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 3.

§ 49. Acts of commissioners; effect on liability of owners

No order, approval, request or advice of the commissioner shall impair the legal duties and obligations of the owners of reservoirs, reservoir dams or mill dams or their liability for the consequences of their illegal acts or of the neglect or mismanagement of their servants or agents.

Amended by St.1970, c. 595, § 3.

§ 50. Jurisdiction

The supreme judicial and the superior courts shall have jurisdiction to enforce the six preceding sections.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 316.

REPAIRING AND REBUILDING MILLS AND MILL DAMS

§ 51. Power of majority

If a mill which is owned by joint tenants or tenants in common, or the dam or appurtenances of such mill, require repairs or rebuilding in whole or in part, and all the proprietors do not agree to join therein, a majority in interest of the proprietors may cause the work to be done at the expense of the whole in proportion to their respective interests.

§ 52. Meeting of proprietors

One or more of the proprietors may call a meeting by a notice signed by the person or persons who call it, addressed to each of the other proprietors, stating that the mill, dam or appurtenances require repairs or rebuilding and that their attendance is requested at a meeting of the proprietors thereof at the mill at a time named to consult and agree upon the measures to be taken for such purpose.

§ 53. Notice

The notice shall be served by an officer qualified to serve civil process by delivering an attested copy thereof to each proprietor, or by leaving such copy at his last and usual place of abode, not less than seven nor more than thirty days before the day appointed for the meeting, and such officer's return, specifying the persons on whom he has served the notice and the time and manner of the service on each, shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

§ 54. Proceedings

At such meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the majority in interest of the proprietors of the mill may take measures to cause the mill or the dam or appurtenances thereof to be repaired or rebuilt, as they shall consider most for the interest of all concerned therein.

§ 55. Expense of work; apportionment

Each proprietor shall, upon demand, after the work is completed, pay to the proprietors by whom it has been advanced his just and equal part of the expense of such repair or rebuilding, in proportion to his share or interest in the mill, with interest from the time of the advance.

§ 56. Lien for advancements

The proprietors who advance the money so expended shall have a lien therefor on the rents and profits of the mill and may retain so much thereof as belongs to any proprietor indebted to them for such advance, to be applied to the payment of his debt; or they may maintain an action for the debt or for as much thereof as has not been received from the rents and profits.

§ 57. Guardian; powers

The guardian of a proprietor may act for him in calling or attending a meeting of the proprietors, and may there vote and do all such other acts as the ward could do if competent to act.

§ 58. Tenants and remainderman; apportionment of expenses

If part of the mill is held by a tenant for life or years, the amount due for the repairs and other expenses on that part of the mill shall be apportioned on the tenant for life or years and on the remainderman or reversioner in proportion to the value of their respective interest; and the person to whom the money is due from such remainderman or reversioner shall have a lien on the rents and profits belonging to him after his estate comes into possession, if not sooner paid, notwithstanding any limitation by lapse of time.

§ 59. Mortgagor and mortgagee; apportionment of expenses

A mortgagee in possession shall be considered a proprietor for the purposes of this chapter; but if the action is brought against the mortgagor before his right of redemption has been foreclosed, he shall also be liable for all amounts so due on account of his share of the mill, so far as the same have not been recovered from the mortgagee. All amounts paid on this account by the mortgagee shall be allowed, between him and the mortgagor, as so much paid for repairs or improvements.

§ 60. Tenant in tail

A tenant in tail of a part of a mill shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be considered the proprietor thereof in fee simple.

§ 61. Advancement for repairs; recovery

All amounts due from one or more proprietors to another for money advanced under this chapter may be recovered in a civil action. The amount so recovered shall be apportioned by the court among the plaintiffs, if more than one, according to their respective rights.

Amended by St.1973, c. 1114, § 317.

§ 62. Contracts; effect of this chapter

This chapter shall not affect any contract or agreement by or between the proprietors of a mill as to the repair or rebuilding thereof.

CHAPTER 258

CLAIMS AND INDEMNITY PROCEDURE FOR THE COMMONWEALTH, ITS MUNICIPALITIES, COUNTIES AND DISTRICTS AND THE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES THEREOF

Sec.
1. Definitions.
2. Liability; exclusiveness of remedy; cooperation of public employee; subsequent actions.
3. Venue; jurisdiction.
4. Instituting claims; final denial; limitation of actions.
5. Arbitration, compromise or settlement of claims; subsequent actions.
6. Defense of actions; service of process.
7. Finality of judgments; subsequent actions.
8. Insurance.
9. Indemnity of public employees.
10. Application of sections one to eight.
11. Frivolous claims; costs; subsequent actions.
12. Enforcement of claims.
13. Indemnity of municipal officers.

§ 1. Definitions

As used in this chapter the following words shall have the following meanings:—

"Acting within the scope of his office or employment", acting in the performance of any lawfully ordered military duty, in the case of an officer or soldier of the military forces of the commonwealth.

"Executive officer of a public employer", the secretary of an executive office of the commonwealth, or in the case of an agency not within the executive office, the attorney general; the adjutant general of the military forces of the commonwealth; the county commissioners of a county; the mayor of a city, or as designated by the charter of the city; the selectmen of a town or as designated by the charter of the town; and the board, directors, or committee of a district in the case of the public employers of a district, and, in the case of any other public employer, the nominal chief executive officer or board.

"Public attorney", the attorney who shall defend all civil actions brought against a public employer pursuant to this chapter. In the case of the commonwealth he shall be the attorney general; in the case of any county he shall be the district attorney as designated in sections twelve and thirteen of chapter twelve; in the case of a city or town he shall be the city solicitor or town counsel, or, if the town has no such counsel, an attorney employed for the purpose by the selectmen; in the case of a district he shall be an attorney legally employed by the district for that purpose. A public attorney may also be an attorney furnished by an insurer obligated under the terms of a policy of insurance to defend the public employer against claims brought pursuant thereto.

"Public employee", elected or appointed, officers or employees of any public employer, whether serving full or part-time, temporary or permanent, compensated or uncompensated, and officers or soldiers of the military forces of the commonwealth.

"Public employer", the commonwealth and any county, city, town or district, and any department, office, commission, committee, council, board, division, bureau, institution or agency thereof exercises direction and control over the public employee, but not a private contractor with any such public employer, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, the Massachusetts Port Authority, the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, or any other independent body politic and corporate.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 2. Liability; exclusiveness of remedy; cooperation of public employee; subsequent actions

Public employers shall be liable for injury or loss of property or personal injury or death caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any public employee while acting within the scope of his office or employment, in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, except that public employers shall not be liable to levy of execution on any real and personal property to satisfy judgment, and shall not be liable for interest prior to judgment or for punitive damages or for any amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars. The remedies provided by this chapter shall be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against the public employer or, the public employee or his estate whose negligent or wrongful act or omission gave rise to such claim, and no such public employee or the estate of such public employee shall be liable for any injury or loss of property or personal injury or death caused by his negligent or wrongful act or omission while acting within the scope of his office or employment; provided, however, that a public employee shall provide reasonable cooperation to the public employer in the defense of any action brought under this chapter. Failure to provide such reasonable cooperation on the part of a public employee shall cause the public employee to be jointly liable with the public employer, to the extent that the failure to provide reasonable cooperation prejudiced the defense of the action. Information obtained from the public employee in providing such reasonable cooperation may not be used as evidence in any disciplinary action against the employee. Final judgment in an action brought against a public employer under this chapter shall constitute a complete bar to any action by a party to such judgment against such public employer or public employee by reason of the same subject matter.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 3. Venue; jurisdiction

All civil actions brought against a public employer on a claim for damages cognizable under this chapter shall be brought in the county where the claimant resides or in the county where such public employer is situated, except that in the case of the commonwealth such civil actions shall be brought in the county where the claimant resides or in Suffolk county. The superior court shall have jurisdiction of all civil actions brought against a public employer.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 4. Instituting claims; final denial; limitation of actions

A civil action shall not be instituted against a public employer on a claim for damages under this chapter unless the claimant shall have first presented his claim in writing to the executive officer of such public employer within two years after the date upon which the cause of action arose, and such claim shall have been finally denied by such executive officer in writing and sent by certified or registered mail, or as otherwise provided by this section. The failure of the executive officer to deny such claim in writing within six months after the date upon which it is presented, or the failure to reach final arbitration, settlement or compromise of such claim according to the provisions of section five, shall be deemed a final denial of such claim. No civil action shall be brought more than three years after the date upon which such cause of action accrued. Disposition of any claim by the executive officer of a public employer shall not be competent evidence of liability or amount of damages.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to such claims as may be asserted by third-party complaint, cross-claim or counterclaim.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 5. Arbitration, compromise or settlement of claims; subsequent actions

The executive officer of a public employer may arbitrate, compromise or settle any claim for damages under this chapter; provided, that any award, compromise or settlement in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars shall be made only with the prior approval of the public attorney for such public employer; provided further, however, that in any case where the public employer is the commonwealth, any award, compromise or settlement in excess of twenty thousand dollars shall be made only with the prior approval of the secretary of administration and finance. The executive officer shall not arbitrate, compromise or settle any such claim before it has been presented to him in writing or after six months have passed from the date upon which such claim was presented to him.

The acceptance by the claimant of any such award, compromise or settlement shall be in writing and shall, except when procured by fraud, be final and conclusive on the claimant, and shall constitute a complete release of any claim against the public employer or against the public employee whose negligent or wrongful act or omission gave rise to such a claim, and a complete bar to any action by the claimant against such public employer or public employee, by reason of the same subject matter.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 6. Defense of actions; service of process

The public attorney shall defend all civil actions brought against a public employer pursuant to this chapter. Service of process for such civil action shall be made upon the public attorney or, where no such public attorney has been employed for such purpose at the time service is made, service shall be made upon the executive officer of such public employer.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 7. Finality of judgments; subsequent actions

Any award, compromise or settlement of a civil action brought under this chapter in excess of twenty thousand dollars which has been approved by a public attorney for a public employer, or, in the case where the public employer is the commonwealth, approved by the secretary of administration and finance, shall be made final only after approval of same by a judge of the superior court having jurisdiction over the action.

The acceptance by the claimant of any such award, compromise or settlement shall be in writing and shall, except when procured by fraud, be final and conclusive on the claimant, and shall constitute a complete release of any claim against the public employer or against the public employee whose negligent or wrongful act or omission gave rise to such claim, and a complete bar to any action by the claimant against such public employer or public employee, by reason of the same subject matter.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 8. Insurance

A public employer may procure insurance for payment of damages incurred pursuant to this chapter.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 9. Indemnity of public employees

Public employers may indemnify public employees from personal financial loss and expenses, including legal fees and costs, if any, in an amount not to exceed one million dollars arising out of any claim, action, award, compromise, settlement or judgment by reason of an intentional tort, or by reason of any act or omission which constitutes a violation of the civil rights of any person under any federal or state law; if such employee or official at the time of such intentional tort or such act or omission was acting within the scope of his official duties or employment. No such employee or official shall be indemnified under this section for violation of any such civil rights if he acted in a grossly negligent, willful or malicious manner.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 10. Application of sections one to eight

The provisions of sections one to eight, inclusive, shall not apply to:—

(a) any claim based upon an act or omission of a public employee when such employee is exercising due care in the execution of any statute or any regulation of a public employer, or any municipal ordinance or by-law, whether or not such statute, regulation, ordinance or by-law is valid;

(b) any claim based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function or duty on the part of a public employer or public employee, acting within the scope of his office or employment, whether or not the discretion involved is abused;

(c) any claim arising out of an intentional tort, including assault, battery, false imprisonment, false arrest, intentional mental distress, malicious prosecution, malicious abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, invasion of privacy, interference with advantageous relations or interference with contractual relations;

(d) any claim arising in respect of the assessment or collection of any tax, or the lawful detention of any goods or merchandise by any law enforcement officer.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 11. Frivolous claims; costs; subsequent actions

If the judgment in any action brought under this chapter is in favor of the public employer, judgment for costs and execution thereon may issue in favor of the public employer, if the court finds the action brought by the claimant to have been frivolous or in bad faith, and final judgment on the action shall be a bar to any other or further action being brought on the same claim or subject matter.

Added by St.1978, c. 512, § 15.

§ 12. Enforcement of claims

Claims against the commonwealth, except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter or by any general or special provision of law, may be enforced in the superior court.

Added by St.1979, c. 1, § 1.

§ 13. Indemnity of municipal officers

Any city which accepted section one hundred I of chapter forty-one on or before July twentieth, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight, and any other city which accepts this section according to its charter, and any town which accepts this section in the manner hereinafter provided in this section shall indemnify and save harmless municipal officers, elected or appointed from personal financial loss and expense including reasonable legal fees and costs, if any, in an amount not to exceed one million dollars, arising out of any claim, demand, suit or judgment by reason of any act or omission, except an intentional violation of civil rights of any person, if the official at the time of such act or omission was acting within the scope of his official duties or employment.

This act shall be submitted for acceptance to the voters of each town at an annual town meeting in the form of the following question which shall be placed on the official ballot to be used for the election of town officers at said meeting:—"Shall the town vote to accept the provisions of section thirteen of chapter two hundred and fifty-eight of the General Laws which provides that the town shall indemnify and save harmless municipal officers, elected or appointed, from personal financial loss and expense including reasonable legal fees and costs, if any, in an amount not to exceed one million dollars, arising out of any claim, demand, suit or judgment by reason of any act or omission except an intentional violation of civil rights of any person under any law, if the official at the time of such act or omission was acting within the scope of his official duties or employment?" If a majority of the votes in answer to said question is in the affirmative, said provisions shall thereupon take full effect, but not otherwise.

§ 1. Definitions

In this chapter the following words, unless a different meaning is required by the context or is specifically prescribed, shall have the following meanings:—

(a) "Compensation", any money, thing of value or economic benefit conferred on or received by any person in return for services rendered or to be rendered by himself or another.

(b) "Competitive bidding", all bidding, where the same may be prescribed by applicable sections of the General Laws or otherwise, given and tendered to a state, county or municipal agency in response to an open solicitation of bids from the general public by public announcement or public advertising, where the contract is awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

(c) "County agency", any department or office of county government and any division, board, bureau, commission, institution, tribunal or other instrumentality thereof or thereunder.

(d) "County employee", a person performing services for or holding an office, position, employment, or membership in a county agency, whether by election, appointment, contract of hire or engagement, whether serving with or without compensation, on a full, regular, part-time, intermittent, or consultant basis.

(e) "Immediate family", the employee and his spouse, and their parents, children, brothers and sisters.

(f) "Municipal agency", any department or office of a city or town government and any council, division, board, bureau, commission, institution, tribunal or other instrumentality thereof or thereunder.

(g) "Municipal employee," a person performing services for or holding an office, position, employment or membership in a municipal agency, whether by election, appointment, contract of hire or engagement, whether serving with or without compensation, on a full, regular, part-time, intermittent, or consultant basis, but excluding (1) elected members of a town meeting and (2) members of a charter commission established under Article LXXXIX of the Amendments to the Constitution.

(h) "Official act", any decision or action in a particular matter or in the enactment of legislation.

(i) "Official responsibility", the direct administrative or operating authority, whether intermediate or final, and either exercisable alone or with others, and whether personal or through subordinates, to approve, disapprove or otherwise direct agency action.

(j) "Participate", participate in agency action or in a particular matter personally and substantially as a state, county or municipal employee, through approval, disapproval, decision, recommendation, the rendering of advice, investigation or otherwise.

(k) "Particular matter", any judicial or other proceeding, application, submission, request for a ruling or other determination, contract, claim, controversy, charge, accusation, arrest, decision, determination, finding, but excluding enactment of general legislation by the general court.

(l) "Person who has been selected", any person who has been nominated or appointed to be a state, county or municipal employee or has been officially informed that he will be so nominated or appointed.

(m) "Special county employee", a county employee who is performing services or holding an office, position, employment or membership for which no compensation is provided; or who is not an elected official and (1) occupies a position which, by it classification in the county agency involved or by the terms of the contract or conditions of employment, permits personal or private employment during normal working hours, or (2) in fact does not earn compensation as a county employee for an aggregate of more than eight hundred hours during the preceding three hundred and sixty-five days. For this purpose compensation by the day shall be considered as equivalent to compensation for seven hours per day. A special county employee shall be in such status on days for which he is not compensated as well as on days on which he earns compensation.

(n) "Special municipal employee", a municipal employee who is not a mayor, a member of a board of aldermen, a member of a city council, or a selectman in a town with a population in excess of one thousand persons, and whose position or employment has been expressly classified by the city council, or board of aldermen if there is no city council, or the board of selectmen as that of a special employee under the terms and provisions of this chapter. Such classification shall be made by employing standards reasonably related to the terms and provisions of this chapter and all employees who hold equivalent offices, positions, employment or membership in the same municipal agency shall have the same classification. All employees of any city or town wherein no such classification has been made shall be deemed to be "municipal employees", and shall be subject to all of the provisions of this chapter with respect thereto without exception.

(1) Who is performing services or holding an office, position, employment or membership for which no compensation is provided, or

(2) Who is not an elected official and

(a) occupies a position which, by its classification in the state agency involved or by the terms of the contract or conditions of employment, permits personal or private employment during normal working hours, or

(b) in fact does not earn compensation as a state employee for an aggregate of more than eight hundred hours during the preceding three hundred and sixty-five days. For this purpose compensation by the day shall be considered as equivalent to compensation for seven hours per day. A special state employee shall be in such status on days for which he is not compensated as well as on days on which he earns compensation.

(p) "State agency", any department of state government including the executive, legislative or judicial, and all councils thereof and thereunder, and any division, board, bureau, commission, institution, tribunal or other instrumentality within such department, and any independent state authority, district, commission, instrumentality or agency, but not an agency of a county, city or town.

(q) "State employee", a person performing services for or holding an office, position, employment, or membership in a state agency, whether by election, appointment, contract of hire or engagement, whether serving with or without compensation, on a full, regular, part-time, intermittent or consultant basis, including members of the general court and executive council. No construction contractor nor any of their personnel shall be deemed to be a state employee or special state employee under the provisions of paragraph (o) or this paragraph as a result of participation in the engineering and environmental analysis for major construction projects either as a consultant or part of a consultant group for the commonwealth. Such contractors or personnel may be awarded construction contracts by the commonwealth and may continue with outstanding construction contracts with the commonwealth during the period of such participation; provided, that no such contractor or personnel shall directly or indirectly bid on or be awarded a contract for any construction project if they have participated in the engineering or environmental analysis thereof.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1. Amended by St.1965, c. 351; St.1966, Ex. Sess., c. 734, § 2; St.1969, c. 350, §§ 1, 2; St.1977, c. 245.

(a) Whoever, directly or indirectly, corruptly gives, offers or promises anything of value to any state, county or municipal employee, or to any person who has been selected to be such an employee, or to any member of the judiciary, or who offers or promises any such employee or any member of the judiciary, or any person who has been selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary, to give anything of value to any other person or entity, with intent

(1) to influence any official act or any act within the official responsibility of such employee or member of the judiciary or person who has been selected to be such employee or member of the judiciary, or

(2) to influence such an employee or member of the judiciary or person who has been selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary, to commit or aid in committing, or collude in, or allow, any fraud, or make opportunity for the commission of any fraud on the commonwealth or a state, county or municipal agency, or

(3) to induce such an employee or member of the judiciary or person who has been selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary to do or omit to do any act in violation of his lawful duty; or

(b) Whoever, being a state, county or municipal employee or a member of the judiciary or a person selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary, directly or indirectly, corruptly asks, demands, exacts, solicits, seeks, accepts, receives or agrees to receive anything of value for himself or for any other person or entity, in return for

(1) being influenced in his performance of any official act or any act within his official responsibility, or

(2) being influenced to commit or aid in committing, or to collude in, or allow any fraud, or make opportunity for the commission of any fraud, on the commonwealth or on a state, county or municipal agency, or

(3) being induced to do or omit to do any acts in violation of his official duty; or

(c) Whoever, directly or indirectly, corruptly gives, offers or promises anything of value to any person, or offers or promises such person to give anything of value to any other person or entity, with intent to influence the testimony under oath or affirmation of such first-mentioned person or any other person as a witness upon a trial, or other proceeding, before any court, any committee of either house or both houses of the general court, or any agency, commission or officer authorized by the laws of the commonwealth to hear evidence or take testimony, or with intent to influence such witness to absent himself therefrom; or

(d) Whoever, directly or indirectly, corruptly asks, demands, exacts, solicits, seeks, accepts, receives or agrees to receive anything of value for himself or for any other person or entity in return for influence upon the testimony under oath or affirmation of himself or any other person as a witness upon any such trial, hearing or other proceeding or in return for the absence of himself or any other person therefrom;—shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than three years or in a jail or house of correction for not more than two and one half years, or by both such fine and imprisonment in a jail or house of correction; and in the event of final conviction shall be incapable of holding any office of honor, trust or profit under the commonwealth or under any state, county or municipal agency.

Clauses (c) and (d) shall not be construed to prohibit the payment or receipt of witness fees provided by law or the payment by the party upon whose behalf a witness is called and receipt by a witness of the reasonable cost of travel and subsistence incurred and the reasonable value of time lost in attendance at any such trial, hearing or proceeding, or, in the case of expert witnesses, involving a technical or professional opinion, a reasonable fee for time spent in the preparation of such opinion, in appearing or testifying.

§ 3. Gifts, offers or promises for acts performed or to be performed; corruption of witnesses; solicitation of gifts

(a) Whoever otherwise than as provided by law for the proper discharge of official duty, directly or indirectly, gives, offers or promises anything of substantial value to any present or former state, county or municipal employee or to any member of the judiciary, or to any person selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary, for or because of any official act performed or to be performed by such an employee or member of the judiciary or person selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary; or

(b) Whoever, being a present or former state, county or municipal employee or member of the judiciary, or person selected to be such an employee or member of the judiciary, otherwise than as provided by law for the proper discharge of official duty, directly or indirectly, asks, demands, exacts, solicits, seeks, accepts, receives or agrees to receive anything of substantial value for himself for or because of any official act or act within his official responsibility performed or to be performed by him; or

(c) Whoever, directly or indirectly, gives, offers or promises anything of substantial value to any person, for or because of testimony under oath or affirmation given or to be given by such person or any other person as a witness upon a trial, hearing or other proceeding, before any court, any committee of either house or both houses of the general court, or any agency, commission or officer authorized by the laws of the commonwealth to hear evidence or take testimony or for or because of his absence therefrom; or

(d) Whoever, directly or indirectly, asks, demands exacts, solicits, seeks, accepts, receives or agrees to receive anything of substantial value for himself for or because of the testimony under oath or affirmation given or to be given by him or any other person as a witness upon any such trial, hearing or other proceeding, or for or because of his absence therefrom:—shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

Clauses (c) and (d) shall not be construed to prohibit the payment or receipt of witness fees provided by law or the payment by the party upon whose behalf a witness is called and receipt by a witness of the reasonable cost of travel and subsistence incurred and the reasonable value of time lost in attendance at any such trial, hearing or proceeding, or, in the case of expert witnesses, involving a technical or professional opinion, a reasonable fee for time spent in the preparation of such opinion, in appearing or testifying.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1.

§ 4. Other compensation; offer, gift, receipt or request; acting as agent or attorney for other than state; legislators; special state employees

(a) No state employee shall otherwise than as provided by law for the proper discharge of official duties, directly or indirectly receive or request compensation from anyone other than the commonwealth or a state agency, in relation to any particular matter in which the commonwealth or a state agency is a party or has a direct and substantial interest.

(c) No state employee shall, otherwise than in the proper discharge of his official duties, act as agent or attorney for anyone other than the commonwealth or a state agency for prosecuting any claim against the commonwealth or a state agency, or as agent or attorney for anyone in connection with any particular matter in which the commonwealth or a state agency is a party or has a direct and substantial interest.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

A member of the general court shall not be subject to paragraphs (a) or (c). However, no member of the general court shall personally appear for any compensation other than his legislative salary before any state agency, unless:

(1) the particular matter before the state agency is ministerial in nature; or

(2) the appearance is before a court of the commonwealth; or

(3) the appearance is in a quasi-judicial proceeding.

For the purposes of this paragraph, ministerial functions include, but are not limited to, the filing or amendment of: tax returns, applications for permits or licenses, incorporation papers, or other documents. For the purposes of this paragraph, a proceeding shall be considered quasi-judicial if:

(1) the action of the state agency is adjudicatory in nature; and

(2) the action of the state agency is appealable to the courts; and

(3) both sides are entitled to representation by counsel and such counsel is neither the attorney general nor the counsel for the state agency conducting the proceeding.

A special state employee shall be subject to paragraphs (a) and (c) only in relation to a particular matter (a) in which he has at any time participated as a state employee, or (b) which is or within one year has been a subject of his official responsibility, or (c) which is pending in the state agency in which he is serving. Clause (c) of the preceding sentence shall not apply in the case of a special state employee who serves on no more than sixty days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five consecutive days.

This section shall not prevent a state employee from taking uncompensated action, not inconsistent with the faithful performance of his duties, to aid or assist any person who is the subject of disciplinary or other personnel administration proceedings with respect to those proceedings.

This section shall not prevent a state employee, including a special employee, from acting, with or without compensation, as agent or attorney for or otherwise aiding or assisting members of his immediate family or any person for whom he is serving as guardian, executor, administrator, trustee or other personal fiduciary except in those matters in which he has participated or which are the subject of his official responsibility; provided, that the state official responsible for appointment to his position approves.

This section shall not prevent a present or former special state employee from aiding or assisting another person for compensation in the performance of work under a contract with or for the benefit of the commonwealth; provided, that the head of the special state employee's department or agency has certified in writing that the interest of the commonwealth requires such aid or assistance and the certification has been filed with the state ethics commission.

This section shall not prevent a state employee from giving testimony under oath or making statements required to be made under penalty for perjury or contempt.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1. Amended by St.1978, c. 210, §§ 4, 5.

§ 17. Municipal employees; gift or receipt of compensation from other than municipality; acting as agent or attorney

(a) No municipal employee shall, otherwise than as provided by law for the proper discharge of official duties, directly or indirectly receive or request compensation from anyone other than the city or town or municipal agency in relation to any particular matter in which the same city or town is a party or has a direct and substantial interest.

(b) No person shall knowingly, otherwise than as provided by law for the proper discharge of official duties, directly or indirectly give, promise or offer such compensation.

(c) No municipal employee shall, otherwise than in the proper discharge of his official duties, act as agent or attorney for anyone other than the city or town or municipal agency in prosecuting any claim against the same city or town, or as agent or attorney for anyone in connection with any particular matter in which the same city or town is a party or has a direct and substantial interest.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

A special municipal employee shall be subject to paragraphs (a) and (c) only in relation to a particular matter (a) in which he has at any time participated as a municipal employee, or (b) which is or within one year has been a subject of his official responsibility, or (c) which is pending in the municipal agency in which he is serving. Clause (c) of the preceding sentence shall not apply in the case of a special municipal employee who serves on no more than sixty days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five consecutive days.

This section shall not prevent a municipal employee from taking uncompensated action, not inconsistent with the faithful performance of his duties, to aid or assist any person who is the subject of disciplinary or other personnel administration proceedings with respect to those proceedings.

This section shall not prevent a municipal employee, including a special employee, from acting, with or without compensation, as agent or attorney for or otherwise aiding or assisting members of his immediate family or any person for whom he is serving as guardian, executor, administrator, trustee or other personal fiduciary except in those matters in which he has participated or which are the subject of his official responsibility; provided, that the official responsible for appointment to his position approves.

This section shall not prevent a present or former special municipal employee from aiding or assisting another person for compensation in the performance of work under a contract with or for the benefit of the city or town; provided, that the head of the special municipal employee's department or agency has certified in writing that the interest of the city or town requires such aid or assistance and the certification has been filed with the clerk of the city or town. The certification shall be open to public inspection.

This section shall not prevent a municipal employee from giving testimony under oath or making statements required to be made under penalty for perjury or contempt.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1.

§ 18. Former municipal employee; acting as attorney or receiving compensation; from other than municipality; partners

(a) A former municipal employee who knowingly acts as agent or attorney for or receives compensation, directly or indirectly from anyone other than the same city or town in connection with any particular matter in which the city or town is a party or has a direct and substantial interest and in which he participated as a municipal employee while so employed, or (b) a former municipal employee who, within one year after his last employment has ceased, appears personally before any agency of the city or town as agent or attorney for anyone other than the city or town in connection with any particular matter in which the same city or town is a party or has a direct and substantial interest and which was under his official responsibility as a municipal employee at any time within a period of two years prior to the termination of his employment, or (c) a partner of a former municipal employee who knowingly engages, during a period of one year following the termination of the latter's employment by the city or town, in any activity in which the former municipal employee is himself prohibited from engaging by clause (a), or (d) a partner of a municipal employee who knowingly acts as agent or attorney for anyone other than the city or town in connection with any particular matter in which the same city or town is a party or has a direct and substantial interest and in which the municipal employee participates or has participated as a municipal employee or which is the subject of his official responsibility, shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

If a partner of a former municipal employee or of a special municipal employee is also a member of another partnership in which the former or special employee has no interest, the activities of the latter partnership in which the former or special employee takes no part shall not thereby be subject to clause (c) or (d).

Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b), a former town counsel who acted in such capacity on a salary or retainer of less than two thousand dollars per year shall be prohibited from appearing personally before any agency of the city or town as agent or attorney for anyone other than the city or town only in connection with any particular matter in which the same city or town is a party or has a direct and substantial interest and in which he participated while so employed. This section shall not prevent a present or former special municipal employee from aiding or assisting another person for compensation in the performance of work under a contract with or for the benefit of the city or town; provided, that the head of the special municipal employee's department or agency has certified in writing that the interest of the city or town requires such aid or assistance and the certification has been filed with the clerk of the city or town. The certification shall be open to public inspection.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1.

§ 19. Municipal employees, relatives or associates; financial interest in particular matter

(a) Except as permitted by paragraph (b), a municipal employee who participates as such an employee in a particular matter in which to his knowledge he, his immediate family or partner, a business organization in which he is serving as officer, director, trustee, partner or employee, or any person or organization with whom he is negotiating or has any arrangement concerning prospective employment, has a financial interest, shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

(b) It shall not be a violation of this section (1) if the municipal employee first advises the official responsible for appointment to his position of the nature and circumstances of the particular matter and makes full disclosure of such financial interest, and receives in advance a written determination made by that official that the interest is not so substantial as to be deemed likely to affect the integrity of the services which the municipality may expect from the employee, or (2) if, in the case of an elected municipal official making demand bank deposits of municipal funds, said official first files, with the clerk of the city or town, a statement making full disclosure of such financial interest, or (3) if, by statute, the financial interest has been exempted from the requirements of clause (1) as being too remote or too inconsequential to affect the integrity of municipal employees' services.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1. Amended by St.1965, c. 395.

§ 20. Municipal employees; financial interest in contracts

(a) A municipal employee who has a financial interest, directly or indirectly, in a contract made by a municipal agency of the same city or town, in which the city or town is an interested party of which financial interest he has knowledge or has reason to know, shall be punished by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

This section shall not apply if such financial interest consists of the ownership of less than one per cent of the stock of a corporation.

This section shall not apply (a) to a municipal employee who in good faith and within thirty days after he learns of an actual or prospective violation of this section makes full disclosure of his financial interest to the contracting agency and terminates or disposes of the interest, or (b) to a municipal employee who does not participate in or have official responsibility for any of the activities of the contracting agency, if the contract is made through competitive bidding and his direct and indirect interests and those of his immediate family in the corporation or other commercial entity with which the contract is made do not in the aggregate amount to ten per cent of the total proprietary interests therein, or (c) to a special municipal employee who does not participate in or have official responsibility for any of the activities of the contracting agency and who files with the clerk of the city or town a statement making full disclosure of his interest and the interests of his immediate family in the contract, or (d) to a special municipal employee who files with the clerk of the city or town a statement making full disclosure of his interest and the interests of his immediate family in the contract, if the city council or board of aldermen if there is no city council or the board of selectmen approve the exemption of his interest from this section, or (e) to a municipal employee who receives benefits from programs funded by the United States or any other source in connection with the improvement or rehabilitation of his residence to the extent permitted by the funding agency.

(a) In addition to any other remedies provided by law, any violation of sections two, three, eight, or sections fifteen to twenty, inclusive, which has substantially influenced the action taken by any municipal agency in any particular matter shall be grounds for avoiding, rescinding or cancelling the action on such terms as the interest of the municipality and innocent third persons require.

(b) The city or town may bring a civil action against any person who has acted to his economic advantage in violation of said sections two, three, eight and fifteen to twenty, inclusive, and may recover damages in the amount of such economic advantage or five hundred dollars, whichever is greater. If there has been no final criminal judgment of conviction or acquittal of the same violation, the city or town may in the discretion of the court recover additional damages in an amount not exceeding twice the amount of the economic advantage or five hundred dollars, whichever is greater, and a judgment for such damages shall bar any criminal prosecution for the same violation.

Added by St.1962, c. 779, § 1.

§ 21A. Members of municipal commission or board; restrictions on appointments to certain positions

Except as hereinafter provided, no member of a municipal commission or board shall be eligible for appointment or election by the members of such commission or board to any office or position under the supervision of such commission or board. No former member of such commission or board shall be so eligible until the expiration of thirty days from the termination of his service as a member of such commission or board.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to a member of a town commission or board, if such appointment or election has first been approved at an annual town meeting of the town.

Added by St.1967, c. 887, § 2.

§ 22. Opinions of corporation counsel, city solicitor or town counsel

Any municipal employee shall be entitled to the opinion of the corporation counsel, city solicitor or town counsel upon any question arising under this chapter relating to the duties, responsibilities and interests of such employee. All requests for such opinions by a subordinate municipal employee shall be made in confidence directly to the chief officer of the municipal agency in which he is employed, who shall in turn request in confidence such opinion of the corporation counsel, city solicitor or town counsel on behalf of such subordinate municipal employee, and all constitutional officers and chief officers or heads of municipal agencies may make direct confidential requests for such opinions on their own account. The town counsel or city solicitor shall file such opinion in writing with the city or town clerk and such opinion shall be a matter of public record; however, no opinion will be rendered by the town counsel or city solicitor except upon the submission of detailed existing facts which raise a question of actual or prospective violation of any provision of this chapter.

§ 23. Supplemental provisions; standards of conduct

In addition to the other provisions of this chapter, and in supplement thereto, the following are established as standards of conduct for all state, county and municipal employees for the violation of which appropriate administrative action as is warranted may be taken by the appropriate constitutional officer or by the head of a state, county or municipal agency. No officer or employee of a state, county or municipal agency shall:

(b) accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require him to disclose confidential information which he has gained by reason of his official position or authority.

(e) by his conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor in the performance of his official duties, or that he is unduly affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

(f) pursue a course of conduct which will raise suspicion among the public that he is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his trust.

§ 1. Definitions

Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise,

(a) "amount" means a category of value, rather than an exact dollar figure, as follows: greater than $1000 but not more than $2500; greater than $2500 but not more than $5000; greater than $5000 but not more than $10,000; greater than $10,000 but not more than $25,000; greater than $25,000 but not more than $50,000; greater than $50,000 but not more than $100,000; greater than $100,000.

(b) "business" means any corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, firm, franchise, association, organization, holding company, joint stock company, receivership, business or real estate trust, or any other legal entity organized for profit or charitable purposes;

(c) "business with which he is associated" means any business in which the reporting person or a member of his immediate family is a general partner, proprietor, officer or other employee, including one who is self-employed, or serves as a director, trustee or in any similar managerial capacity; and any business more than one percent of any class of the outstanding equity of which is beneficially owned in the aggregate by the reporting person and members of his immediate family;

(d) "candidate for public office" means any individual who seeks nomination or election to public office, as defined by this chapter.

For the purposes of this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to be seeking nomination or election to public office if he has (1) received a political contribution or made an expenditure, or has given his consent for any other person or committee to receive a political contribution or make an expenditure, for the purpose of influencing his nomination or election to such office, whether or not the specific public office for which he will seek nomination or election is known at the time the political contribution is received or the expenditure is made, or (2) taken the action necessary under the laws of the commonwealth to qualify himself for nomination or election to such office;

(g) "gift" means a payment, entertainment, subscription, advance, services or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is received; "gift" shall not include a political contribution reported as required by law, a commercially reasonable loan made in the ordinary course of business, anything of value received by inheritance, or a gift received from a member of the reporting person's immediate family or from a relative within the third degree of consanguinity of the reporting person or of the reporting person's spouse or from the spouse of any such relative;

(h) "governmental body" means any state or county agency, authority, board, bureau, commission, council, department, division, or other entity, including the general court and the courts of the commonwealth;

(j) "income" means income from whatever source derived, whether in the form of a fee, salary, allowance, forebearance, forgiveness, interest, dividend, royalty, rent, capital gain, or any other form of recompense or any combination thereof; provided, however, that interest from savings accounts or from government obligations other than those of the commonwealth or any public agency or authority created by the general court, alimony and support payments, proceeds from a life insurance policy, retirement or disability benefits, and social security payments shall not be considered income for the purposes of this chapter;

(k) "legislative agent" means any person who for compensation or reward does any act to promote, oppose or influence legislation, or to promote, oppose or influence the governor's approval or veto thereof or to influence the decision of any member of the executive branch where such decision concerns legislation or the adoption, defeat, or postponement of a standard, rate, rule or regulation pursuant thereto. The term shall include persons who, as any part of their regular and usual employment and not simply incidental thereto, attempt to promote, oppose or influence legislation or the governor's approval or veto thereof, whether or not any compensation in addition to the salary for such employment is received for such services;

(l) "Major policy making position" means: the executive or administrative head or heads of a governmental body; all members of the judiciary; any person whose salary equals or exceeds that of a state employee classified in step one of job group XXV of the general salary schedule contained in section forty-six of chapter thirty and who reports directly to said executive or administrative head; the head of each division, bureau, or other major administrative unit within such governmental body; and persons exercising similar authority;

(m) "person" means a business, individual, corporation, union, association, firm, partnership, committee, or other organization or group of persons;

(n) "political contribution" means a contribution of money or anything of value to an individual, candidate, political committee, or person acting on behalf of an individual, candidate or political committee, for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of said individual or candidate, or for the purpose of promoting or opposing a charter change, referendum question, constitutional amendment, or other question submitted to the voters, and shall include any: (1) gift, subscription, loan, advance, deposit of money, or thing of value, except a loan of money to a candidate by a national or state bank made in accordance with the applicable banking laws and regulations and in the ordinary course of business; (2) transfer of money or anything of value between political committees; (3) payment, by any person other than a candidate or political committee, or compensation for the personal services of another person which are rendered to such candidate or committee; (4) purchase from an individual, candidate or political committee, or person acting on behalf of an individual, candidate or political committee, whether through the device of tickets, advertisements, or otherwise, for fund-raising activities, including testimonials, held on behalf of said individual, candidate, or political committee, to the extent that the purchase price exceeds the actual cost of the goods sold or services rendered; (5) discount or rebate not available to other candidates for the same office and to the general public; and (6) forgiveness of indebtedness or payment of indebtedness by another person; but shall not include the rendering of services by speakers, editors, writers, poll watchers, poll checkers or others, nor the payment by those rendering such services of such personal expenses as may be incidental thereto, nor the exercise of ordinary hospitality;

(o) "Public employee" means any person who holds a major policymaking position in a governmental body; provided, however, that any person who receives no compensation other than reimbursements for expenses, or any person serving on a governmental body that has no authority to expend public funds other than to approve reimbursements for expenses shall not be considered a public employee for the purposes of this chapter;

(p) "public office" means any position for which one is nominated at a state primary or chosen at a state election, excluding the positions of Senator and Representative in congress;

(r) "reporting person" means any person required to file a statement of financial interest pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of this chapter.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

§ 2. State ethics commission

State ethics commission.

(a) There is established a state ethics commission composed of five members. At no time shall more than three members be from the same political party.

(b) Three members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be designated as chairman, and one member shall be appointed by the state secretary and one member shall be appointed by the attorney general. At no time shall more than two of the members to be appointed by the governor be from the same political party.

(e) Not less than thirty days prior to making any appointment to the commission, the appointing official shall give public notice that a vacancy on the commission exists.

(1) hold or be a candidate for any other public office while a member or employee or for one year thereafter;

(2) hold office in any political party or political committee;

(3) participate in or contribute to the political campaign of any candidate for public office.

(g) Members of the commission may be removed by a majority vote of the governor, state secretary, and attorney general, for substantial neglect of duty, inability to discharge the powers and duties of office, violation of subsection (f) of this section, gross misconduct, or conviction of a felony.

(h) Any vacancy occurring on the commission shall be filled within ninety days by the original appointing authority. A person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring other than by expiration of a term of office shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he succeeds, and shall be eligible for appointment to one full five year term.

(i) The commission shall elect a vice chairman. The vice chairman shall act as chairman in the absence of the chairman or in the event of a vacancy in that position.

(j) Three members of the commission shall constitute a quorum and three affirmative votes shall be required for any action or recommendation of the commission; the chairman or any three members of the commission may call a meeting; advance notice of all meetings shall be given to each member of the commission and to any other person who requests such notice;

(k) Members of the commission shall be compensated for work performed for the commission at such rate as the secretary of administration and finance shall determine, and shall be reimbursed for their expenses.

(l) The commission shall annually report to the general court and the governor concerning the action it has taken; the names and salaries and duties of all individuals in its employ and the money it has disbursed; and shall make such further reports on matters within its jurisdiction as may appear necessary;

(m) The commission shall employ an executive director, a general counsel, and, subject to appropriation, such other staff, including but not limited to clerks, accountants, and investigators, as are necessary to carry out its duties pursuant to this chapter and chapter 268A. The staff shall serve at the pleasure of the commission and shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 31 or section 9A of chapter 30. The executive director shall be responsible for the administrative operation of the commission and shall perform such other tasks as the commission shall determine. The general counsel shall be the chief legal officer of the commission. The commission may employ, subject to appropriation, the services of experts and consultants necessary to carry out its duties. The commissioner of public safety, the state auditor, the comptroller, the attorney general, and the director of the office of campaign and political finance may make available to the commission personnel and other assistance as the commission may request.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

§ 3. Powers and duties of commission

The commission shall:

(a) prescribe and publish, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 30A, rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this chapter, including rules governing the conduct of proceedings hereunder;

(b) prepare and publish, after giving the public an opportunity to comment, forms for the statements and reports required to be filed by this chapter and make such forms available to any and all persons required to file statements and reports pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(c) prepare and publish, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 30A, methods of accounting and reporting to be used by persons required to file statements and reports by this chapter;

(d) make statements and reports filed with the commission available upon the written request of any individual for public inspection and copying during regular office hours and make copying facilities available free of charge or at a charge not to exceed actual cost; the commission shall forward a copy of said request to the individual whose statement has been examined;

(e) compile and maintain an index of all reports and statements filed with the commission to facilitate public access to such reports and statements;

(f) inspect all statements of financial interests filed with the commission in order to ascertain whether any reporting person has failed to file such a statement or has filed a deficient statement. If, upon inspection, it is ascertained that a reporting person has failed to file a statement of financial interests, or if it is ascertained that any such statement filed with the commission fails to conform with the requirements of section five of this chapter, then the commission shall, in writing, notify the delinquent; such notice shall state in detail the deficiency and the penalties for failure to file a statement of financial interests;

(g) upon written request from a person who is or may be subject to the provisions of this chapter or chapter 268A, render advisory opinions on the requirements of said chapters. An opinion rendered by the commission, until and unless amended or revoked, shall be a defense in a criminal action brought under chapter 268A and shall be binding on the commission in any subsequent proceedings concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person in the request for an opinion. Such requests shall be confidential; provided, however, that the commission may publish such opinions, but the name of the requesting person and any other identifying information shall not be included in such publication unless the requesting person consents to such inclusion;

(h) preserve all statements and reports filed with the commission for a period of six years from the date of receipt;

(i) act as the primary civil enforcement agency for violations of chapter 268A, as specified in sections 9 and 15 of that chapter, and of this chapter;

(j) on or before February first of each year the executive director of the commission shall request a list of all major policy-making positions for the governmental bodies below from the persons listed below:

(1) the house of representatives, the speaker of the house;

(2) the senate, the president of the senate;

(3) the state secretary's office, the state secretary;

(4) the attorney general's office, the attorney general;

(5) the state auditor's office, the state auditor;

(6) the treasurer and receiver general's office, the state treasurer;

(7) for each court of the commonwealth, the chief judge of such court;

(8) for each executive office in the commonwealth and all governmental bodies within such executive office, the secretary for such executive office;

(9) the governor's office, the governor;

(10) the lieutenant governor's office, the lieutenant governor;

(11) for each county, the chairman of the county commissioners;

(12) for each authority or other governmental body not covered by clauses one through eleven above, the executive or administrative head of such authority or governmental body; and such persons shall furnish such lists within sixty days. The executive director may add any position that he determines to be a major policy making position in such governmental body to such list. Any person aggrieved by such action of the executive director may appeal such action to the commission.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

§ 4. Investigations by the commission

Investigations by the commission.

(a) Upon receipt of a sworn complaint signed under pains and penalties of perjury, or upon receipt of evidence which is deemed sufficient by the commission, the commission shall initiate a preliminary inquiry into any alleged violation of chapter 268A or this chapter. At the beginning of a preliminary inquiry into any alleged violation of chapter 268A or this chapter, the general counsel shall notify the attorney general of such action. All commission proceedings and records relating to a preliminary inquiry shall be confidential, except that the general counsel may turn over to the attorney general evidence which may be used in a criminal proceeding. The general counsel shall notify any person who is the subject of the preliminary inquiry of the existence of such inquiry and the general nature of the alleged violation within thirty days of the commencement of the inquiry.

(b) If a preliminary inquiry fails to indicate reasonable cause for belief that this chapter or chapter 268A has been violated, the commission shall immediately terminate the inquiry and so notify, in writing, the complainant, if any, and the person who had been the subject of the inquiry. All commission records and proceedings from such an inquiry shall remain confidential.

(c) If a preliminary inquiry indicates reasonable cause for belief that this chapter or chapter 268A has been violated, the commission may, upon a majority vote, initiate a full investigation and appropriate proceedings to determine whether there has been such a violation.

The commission may require by summons the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers and other records relating to any matter being investigated by it pursuant to this chapter or chapter 268A. Such a summons may be issued by the commission only upon a majority vote of the commission and shall be served in the same manner as summonses for witnesses in civil cases, and all provisions of law relative to summonses issued in such cases, including the compensation of witnesses, shall apply to summonses issued by the commission. Any justice of the superior court may, upon application by the commission, in his discretion issue an order requiring the attendance of witnesses summoned as aforesaid and the giving of testimony or the production of books, papers and other records before the commission in furtherance of any investigation pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or chapter 268A.

Any member of the commission may administer oaths and any member of the commission may hear testimony or receive other evidence in any proceeding before the commission.

All testimony in commission proceedings shall be under oath. All parties shall have the right to call and examine witnesses, to introduce exhibits, to cross-examine witnesses who testify, to submit evidence, and to be represented by counsel. Before testifying, all witnesses shall be given a copy of the regulations governing commission proceedings. All witnesses shall be entitled to be represented by counsel.

Any person whose name is mentioned during a proceeding of the commission and who may be adversely affected thereby may appear personally before the commission on his own behalf or file a written statement for incorporation into the record of the proceeding.

All proceedings of the commission carried out pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall be public, unless the members vote to go into executive session.

Within thirty days after the end of proceedings pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, the commission shall meet in executive session for the purpose of reviewing the evidence before it. Within thirty days after completion of deliberations, the commission shall publish a written report of its findings and conclusions.

(d) The commission, upon a finding pursuant to the provisions of the preceding subsection that there has been a violation of chapter 268A or a violation of this chapter, may issue an order requiring the violator to:

(1) cease and desist such violation of chapter 268A or this chapter;

(2) file any report, statement or other information as required by chapter 268A or this chapter; or

(3) pay a civil penalty of not more than $1000 for each violation of this chapter or chapter 268A.

The commission may file a civil action in superior court to enforce such an order.

(e) Any final action by the commission made pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to review in superior court upon petition of any interested person filed within thirty days after the action for which review is sought. The court shall enter a judgment enforcing, modifying or setting aside the order of the commission or it may remand the proceeding to the commission for such further action as the court may direct.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

§ 5. Statements of financial interests

Statements of financial interests.

(a) Every candidate for public office shall file a statement of financial interest for the preceding calendar year with the commission on or before the date on which a certificate of nomination or nomination papers for such candidate are submitted to the state secretary.

(b) Every public official shall file a statement of financial interests for the preceding calendar year with the commission on or before the last Tuesday in May of each year that such public official holds such office and on or before May first of the year after such public official leaves such office; provided, however, that no public official shall be required to file a statement of financial interests for any year in which he held public office for less than eight days.

(c) Every public employee shall file a statement of financial interests for the preceding calendar year with the commission within ten days after becoming a public employee, on or before May first of each year thereafter that such person is a public employee and on or before May first of the year after such person ceases to be a public employee; provided, however, that no public employee shall be required to file a statement of financial interests for any year in which he was a public employee for less than eight days.

(d) The commission shall, upon receipt of a statement of financial interests pursuant to the provisions of this section, issue to the person filing such statement a receipt verifying the fact that a statement of financial interests has been filed and a receipted copy of such statement.

(e) No public employee shall be allowed to continue in his duties or to receive compensation from public funds unless he has filed a statement of financial interests with the commission as required by this chapter.

(f) The statement of financial interests filed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be on a form prescribed by the commission and shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the reporting person.

(g) Reporting persons shall disclose, to the best of their knowledge, the following information for the preceding calendar year, or as of the last day of said year with respect to the information required by clauses 2, 3, and 6 below; such persons shall also disclose the same information with respect to their immediate family provided, however, that no amount need be given for such information with regard to the reporting person's immediate family:

(1) the name and address of, the nature of association with, the share of equity in, if applicable, and the amount of income if greater than one thousand dollars derived from each business with which he is associated;

(2) the identity of all securities and other investments with a fair market value of greater than one thousand dollars which were beneficially owned, not otherwise reportable hereunder; and the amount of income if over one thousand dollars from any such security which is issued by the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof or any public agency or authority created by the general court;

(3) the name and address of each creditor to whom more than one thousand dollars was owed and the original amount, the amount outstanding, the terms of repayment, and the general nature of the security pledged for each such obligation except that the original amount and the amount outstanding need not be reported for a mortgage on the reporting person's primary residence; provided, however, that obligations arising out of retail installment transactions, educational loans, medical and dental expenses, debts incurred in the ordinary course of business, and any obligation to make alimony or support payments, shall not be reported; and provided, further, that such information need not be reported if the creditor is a relative of the reporting person within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity;

(4) the name and address of the source, and the cash value of any reimbursement for expenses aggregating more than one hundred dollars in the calendar year if the source of such reimbursement is a legislative agent; or if the recipient is a public official and the source of such reimbursement is a person having a direct interest in legislation, legislative action, or a matter before a governmental body; or if the recipient is a public employee and the source of such reimbursement is person having a direct interest in a matter before the governmental body by which the recipient is employed;

(5) the name and address of the doner, and the fair market value, if determinable, of any gifts aggregating more than one hundred dollars in the calendar year, if the recipient is a public official and the source of such gift(s) is a person having a direct interest in legislation, legislative action, or a matter before a governmental body; or if the recipient is a public employee and the source of such gift(s) is a person having a direct interest in a matter before the governmental body by which the recipient is employed;

(6) the description, as appearing on the most recent tax bill, and the amount of assessed value of all real property located within the commonwealth, in which a direct or indirect financial interest was held, which has an assessed value greater than one thousand dollars; and, if the property was transferred during the year, the name and address of the person furnishing consideration to the reporting person or receiving it from him in respect to such transfer;

(7) the name and address of the source, and the fair market value, of any honoraria aggregating more than one hundred dollars if the source of such honoraria is a legislative agent; or if the recipient is a public official and the source of such honoraria is a person having a direct interest in legislation, legislative action, or a matter before a governmental body; or if the recipient is a public employee and the source of such honoraria is a person having a direct interest in a matter before the governmental body by which the recipient is employed;

(8) the name and address of any creditor who has forgiven an indebtedness of over one thousand dollars, and the amount forgiven; provided, however, that no such information need be reported if the creditor is a relative within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity of the reporting person, or the spouse of such a relative;

(9) the name and address of any business from which the reporting person is taking a leave of absence;

(10) the identity of any equity in a business with which the reporting person is associated which has been transferred to a member of the reporting person's immediate family; provided, however, that a member of the reporting person's family need not report any such transfer to the reporting person.

Failure of a reporting person to file a statement of financial interests within ten days after receiving notice as provided in clause (f) of section 3 of this chapter, or the filing of an incomplete statement of financial interests after receipt of such a notice, is a violation of this chapter and the commission may initiate appropriate proceedings pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of this chapter.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

§ 6. Gifts from legislative agents

Gifts from legislative agents.

No legislative agent shall knowingly and wilfully offer or give to a public official or public employee or a member of such person's immediate family, and no public official or public employee or member of such person's immediate family shall knowingly and wilfully solicit or accept from any legislative agent, gifts with an aggregate value of one hundred dollars or more in a calendar year.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

§ 7. Penalties for violation of confidentiality and for perjury

Penalties for violation of confidentiality and for perjury.

Any person who violates the confidentiality of a commission inquiry under the provisions of paragraph (a) of section 4 of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Any person who wilfully affirms or swears falsely in regard to any material matter before a commission proceeding under paragraph (c) of section 4 of this chapter, or who files a false statement of financial interests under section 5 of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in a state prison for not more than two and a half years, or both.

Added by St.1978, c. 210, § 20.

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC HEALTH

Sec.
1. Adulterating liquor; sale; forfeiture.
1A. Sale of eyeglasses or sunglasses; specifications; exception; flammable frames.
2 to 2B. Repealed.
3. Distribution of drugs or other substance injurious to users.
3A. Placing poison for rodents where it may cause injury; enforcement officers.
4. Food, drink or drug containing wood alcohol.
5. Giving, selling or delivering alcoholic beverages or drugs to hospital patients; possession.
6. Selling or giving tobacco in any form to minors; copy of statute prepared and delivered to towns.
7. Posting copy of section six; removing copy.
8. Selling candy containing alcohol.
8A. Foods containing foreign injury causing substances; distribution or sale.
9. Feeding garbage or refuse; possession.
10. Toys or confectionery containing or coated with material containing arsenic.
11. Samples for analysis for arsenic.
12. Fabric or paper containing arsenic; investigations; inspectors; chemists; regulations.
13. Refusal or neglect to furnish water.
14. Spitting.
15. Arrest without warrant for spitting.
16. Disposal of rubbish, etc., on or near highways and coastal or inland waters; penalties; applicability to dumping grounds; enforcement.
16A. Alternative noncriminal disposition of violations of section 16: Notice to appear before clerk of district court; payment of fine.
17. Disposal of garbage or refuse in containers placed along highways.
17A. Repealed.
18. Substance having property of releasing toxic vapors; sale, possession and use.

Sec.
19. Sale of glue or cement to minors; smelling deterrent ingredients; register.
20. Burning of refuse, etc. within marine or shoreline boundaries.
21. Smoking in certain public places restricted; posting.

§ 1. Adulterating liquor; sale; forfeiture

Whoever, for the purpose of sale, adulterates any liquor used or intended for drink with Indian cockle, vitriol, grains of paradise, opium, alum, cochineal, capsicum, copperas, laurel water, logwood, Brazil wood, sugar of lead or any other substance poisonous or injurious to health, and whoever knowingly sells any such liquor so adulterated, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than three years; and the articles so adulterated shall be forfeited.

§ 1A. Sale of eyeglasses or sunglasses; specifications; exception; flammable frames

No person shall distribute, sell or deliver any eyeglasses or sunglasses unless said eyeglasses or sunglasses are fitted with plastic lenses, laminated lenses, heat-treated glass lenses or lenses made impact-resistant by other methods. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if a physician or optometrist, having found that such lenses will not fulfill the visual requirements of a particular patient, directs in writing the use of other lenses and gives written notification thereof to the patient. Before they are mounted in frames, all impact-resistant eyeglass and sunglass lenses shall be capable of withstanding an impact test of a steel ball five-eighths of an inch in diameter weighing approximately fifty-six hundredths of an ounce dropped from a height of fifty inches. Raised ledge multi-focal lenses shall be capable of withstanding said impact test but need not be tested beyond initial design testing. All prescription glass lenses shall withstand said impact test. To demonstrate that all nonprescription glass lenses, plastic lenses and laminated lenses are capable of withstanding said impact test, the manufacturer of such lenses shall subject to said impact test a statistically significant sampling of lenses from each production batch, and the lenses so tested shall be representative of the finished forms as worn by the wearer. Plastic prescription and plastic nonprescription lenses, tested on the basis of statistical significance, may be tested in uncut finished or semifinished form at the point of original manufacture.

No person shall distribute, sell, exchange or deliver or have in his possession with intent to distribute, sell, exchange or deliver any eyeglass or sunglass frame containing any form of cellulose nitrate or other highly flammable material.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation.

Added by St.1970, c. 471, § 1. Amended by St.1973, c. 598; St.1979, c. 381.

§§ 2 to 2B. Repealed by St.1960, c. 727, § 1

§ 3. Distribution of drugs or other substance injurious to users

Whoever distributes, delivers or gives away in any public way or from house to house or place to place, any bottle, box, envelope or package containing any liquid, medicine, pill, powder, tablet or other article composed of any drug, poison or other ingredient or substance which may be in any way injurious or harmful to any person who may taste, eat, drink or otherwise use the same, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

§ 3A. Placing poison for rodents where it may cause injury; enforcement officers

Whoever negligently or maliciously places any poison or poisoned food for the control of rats, mice or other rodents in any place where it may cause injury to any human being or domestic animal shall be punished by a fine of twenty-five dollars. The officers charged with the enforcement of the laws relating to fish, birds and mammals under chapter one hundred and thirty-one shall take cognizance of violations of this section and enforce the provisions thereof, and they shall have all powers necessary therefor.

Added by St.1951, c. 444.

§ 4. Food, drink or drug containing wood alcohol

Whoever, himself, or by his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of another, sells or exchanges, or has in his possession with intent to sell or exchange, or knowingly delivers or has in his possession with intent to deliver, any article of food or drink, or any drug intended for internal use, containing any wood alcohol, otherwise known as methyl alcohol, either crude or refined, under or by whatever name or trade mark the same may be called or known, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not more than two and one half years or in the state prison for not more than five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 5. Giving, selling or delivering alcoholic beverages or drugs to hospital patients; possession

Whoever, except under the direction of a physician, gives, sells or delivers alcoholic beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, or a narcotic drug to a patient in any hospital who is suffering from inebriety or from the effect of inebriety, or from excessive use of narcotic drugs or from the effect of such use, and whoever has in his possession within the precincts of any hospital any such beverage or drug with intent to convey or deliver it to any such patient, except under direction as aforesaid, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two months.

Amended by St.1934, c. 328, § 27.

§ 6. Selling or giving tobacco in any form to minors; copy of statute prepared and delivered to towns

Whoever sells a cigarette to a person under eighteen, or whoever sells snuff or tobacco in any of its forms to any person under sixteen, or, not being his parent or guardian, gives a cigarette to a person under eighteen, or gives snuff or tobacco in any of its forms to any person under sixteen, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. A copy of this section printed in letters not less in size than eighteen point capitals, boldface, shall be prepared by the department of public health and delivered without charge to towns applying therefor.

§ 7. Posting copy of section six; removing copy

A copy of the preceding section printed as therein specified shall be posted conspicuously by the owner or person in charge thereof in the shop or other place used to sell cigarettes at retail, and whoever violates this provision shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. Any person unlawfully removing a copy so posted while said premises are used for the sale of cigarettes shall be punished by a fine of ten dollars.

§ 8. Selling candy containing alcohol

Whoever sells to a person any candy enclosing or containing liquid or syrup having more than one per cent of alcohol shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

§ 8A. Foods containing foreign injury causing substances; distribution or sale

Whoever sells, gives, or distributes to anyone candy or other food or foodstuffs containing a foreign substance, which is intended or may reasonably be expected to cause injury to a person eating the same, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years.

Added by St.1977, c. 861.

§ 9. Feeding garbage or refuse; possession

Whoever knowingly feeds or has in his possession with intent to feed to a milch cow any garbage, refuse or offal collected by a town, or by any person having authority therefrom, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two months; and whoever knowingly feeds or has in his possession with intent to feed to any food animal, except swine, any garbage, refuse or offal collected by a city of more than thirty thousand inhabitants shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one month.

§ 10. Toys or confectionery containing or coated with material containing arsenic

Whoever, himself, or by his agent or servant, or as the agent or servant of another, manufactures, sells or exchanges, or has in his custody or possession with intent to sell or exchange, or exposes or offers for sale or exchange, any toys or confectionery, containing or coated wholly or in part with arsenic, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

§ 11. Samples for analysis for arsenic

Whoever offers or exposes for sale or exchange any paper, fabric or other article shall furnish a sample thereof sufficient to ascertain by analysis the existence of arsenic therein, if such sample can be obtained without damage to the remaining portion, to any inspector, chemist or other agent or officer of the department of public health who applies therefor and tenders the value thereof; and for a violation of this section shall be punished as provided in the preceding section.

§ 12. Fabric or paper containing arsenic; investigations; inspectors; chemists; regulations

Whoever, himself, or by his agent or servant, manufactures, sells or exchanges, or has in his custody or possession with intent to sell or exchange, any woven fabric or paper containing arsenic in any form, or any article of dress or household use composed wholly or in part of such woven fabric or paper, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars; but this section shall not apply to articles intended for the destruction of insects, having the word "POISON" plainly printed in uncondensed gothic letters not less than one inch long on both sides of each sheet and square foot of the fabric, or to dress goods or articles of dress containing not more than one one-hundredth grain, or to other materials or articles containing not more than one tenth grain of arsenic for each square yard of the material. The department of public health shall make all necessary investigations as to the existence of arsenic in the aforesaid articles and materials, employ inspectors and chemists, and adopt such measures as are necessary to enforce this section.

§ 13. Refusal or neglect to furnish water

A corporation engaged in selling or distributing water, which refuses or neglects to furnish or supply water to or for any building or premises for the reason that a water bill remains unpaid by a previous owner or occupant of said building or premises shall, unless the person applying for water is in arrears to such corporation for water previously furnished to or for any building or premises, be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars.

§ 14. Spitting

Whoever expectorates or spits upon any public sidewalk, or upon any place used exclusively or principally by pedestrians, or, except in receptacles provided for the purpose, in or upon any part of any city or town hall, any court house or court room, any public library or museum, any church or theatre, any lecture or music hall, any mill or factory, any hall of any tenement building occupied by five or more families, any school building, any ferry boat or steamboat, any railroad car or elevated railroad car, except a smoking car, any street railway car, any railroad or railway station or waiting room, or on any track, platform or sidewalk connected therewith, and included within the limits thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars.

§ 15. Arrest without warrant for spitting

Any person detected in the act of violating the preceding section may, if his name is unknown to the officer, be arrested without a warrant by any officer authorized to serve criminal process in the place where the offence is committed and kept in custody until he can be taken before a court having jurisdiction of such offence.

§ 16. Disposal of rubbish, etc., on or near highways and coastal or inland waters; penalties; applicability to dumping grounds; enforcement

Whoever places, throws, deposits, discharges or causes to be placed, thrown, deposited or discharged, any trash, refuse, rubbish, garbage, debris, scrap, waste or any other material of any kind on a public highway or within twenty yards thereof, or on any other public land, or in or upon coastal or inland waters, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-one, respectively, or within twenty yards of any such water, or on property of another, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars and not less than two hundred dollars, and the court may require, in addition thereto, that such person remove, at his own expense, such trash, refuse, rubbish, debris or materials. The permission of the owner of such land to place, throw, deposit or discharge such trash, refuse, rubbish, garbage, debris, scrap, waste or any other material of any kind on his land shall constitute a defense in any trial for such offense.

If a motor vehicle is used in committing such an offense, a conviction under this section shall forthwith be reported by the court to the registrar of motor vehicles, and the registrar may suspend the license of the operator of such vehicle for not more than thirty days, and if it appears from the records of the registrar of motor vehicles that the person so convicted is the owner of the motor vehicle so used, the registrar may suspend the certificate of registration of said vehicle for thirty days.

The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any dumping ground approved under section one hundred and fifty A of chapter one hundred and eleven or by other appropriate public authority.

This section shall be enforced by natural resources officers, by the director of the division of motorboats or his authorized agents, by harbormasters and assistant harbormasters, by members of the state police and inspectors of the registry of motor vehicles and by city, town and metropolitan district commission police officers. A city by majority vote of the city council, with the approval of the mayor, or in a town by a vote of its town meeting may enforce this section by designating its public health agents, health officers and health directors as enforcing officers. In the city of Boston, this section shall also be enforced by the commissioner of health and hospitals, by the commissioner of housing inspection, and by the commissioner of public works, and their respective authorized agents, and in section sixteen A, the commissioner of health and hospitals, the commissioner of housing inspection, and the commissioner of public works shall be deemed to be the commanding officers of their respective authorized agents.

Added by St.1949, c. 416. Amended by St.1967, c. 116; St.1970, c. 134, §§ 1, 2; St.1971, c. 79; St.1972, c. 191; St.1973, c. 835, § 1; St.1974, c. 39; St.1979, c. 103; St.1979, c. 105.

§ 16A. Alternative noncriminal disposition of violations of section 16: Notice to appear before clerk of district court; payment of fine

If any officer empowered to enforce section sixteen takes cognizance of a violation thereof, he may request the offender to state his name and address. Whoever, upon such request, refuses to state his name and address, may be arrested without a warrant, or if he states a false name and address or a name and address which is not his name and address in ordinary use, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars. Such officer may, as an alternative to instituting criminal proceedings, forthwith give to the offender a written notice to appear before the clerk of the district court having jurisdiction at any time during office hours, not later than twenty-one days after the date of such violation. Such notice shall be made in triplicate, and shall contain the name and address of the offender and, if served with notice in hand at the time of such violation, the number of his license, if any, to operate motor vehicles; the registration number of the vehicle or motor boat involved, if any; the time and place of the violation; the specific offense charged; and the time and place for his required appearance. Such notice shall be signed by the officer, and shall be signed by the offender whenever practicable in acknowledgement that the notice has been received. The officer shall if possible deliver to the offender at the time and place of the violation a copy of said notice. Whenever it is not possible to deliver a copy of said notice to the offender at the time and place of the violation, said copy shall be mailed or delivered by the officer, or by his commanding officer or any person authorized by said commanding officer, to the offender's last known address, or in the case of a violation involving a motor vehicle or motor boat registered under the laws of this commonwealth, within five days of the offence, or in the case of any motor vehicle or motor boat registered under the laws of another state or country, within ten days thereof, exclusive, in either case, of Sundays and holidays, to the address of the registrant of the motor vehicle or motor boat involved, as appearing, in the case of a motor vehicle registered under the laws of this commonwealth, in the records of the registry of motor vehicles or the division of motor boats or, in the case of a motor vehicle or motor boat registered under the laws of another state or country in the records of the official in such state or country having charge of the registration of such motor vehicle or motor boat. Such notice mailed, by the officer, his commanding officer, or the person so authorized to the last address of said registrant as appearing as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient notice, and a certificate of the officer or person so mailing such notice that it has been mailed in accordance with this section shall be deemed prima facie evidence thereof and shall be admissible in any court of the commonwealth as to the facts contained therein. At or before the completion of each tour of duty the officer shall give to his commanding officer those copies of each notice of such a violation he has taken cognizance of during such tour which have not already been delivered or mailed by him as aforesaid. Said commanding officer shall retain and safely preserve one of such copies and shall, at a time not later than the next court day after said delivery or mailing, deliver another of such copies to the clerk of the court before whom the offender has been notified to appear. The clerk of each district court shall maintain a separate docket of all such notices to appear.

Any person notified to appear before the clerk of a district court as hereinbefore provided may appear before such clerk and confess the offense charged, either personally or through an agent duly authorized in writing, or by mailing to such clerk, with the notice, the sum provided herein, such payment to be made only by postal note, money order or check. If it is the first, second or third offense subject to this section committed by such person within the jurisdiction of the court in the calendar year, payment to such clerk of the sum of twenty dollars shall operate as a final disposition of the case; if it is the fourth or subsequent such offense so committed in such calendar year, payment to such clerk of the sum of one hundred dollars shall operate as a final disposition of the case. Proceedings under this paragraph shall not be deemed criminal; and no person notified to appear before the clerk of a district court as provided herein shall be required to report to any probation officer, and no record of the case shall be entered in the probation records.

If any person notified to appear before the clerk of the district court fails to appear and pay the fine provided hereunder or, having appeared, desires not to avail himself of the procedure hereinbefore provided for the noncriminal disposition of the case, the clerk shall, as soon as may be, notify the officer concerned, who shall forthwith make a complaint and follow the procedure established for criminal cases, and shall notify, if a motor vehicle is involved, the registrar of motor vehicles, or, if a motor boat is involved, the division of motor boats. If any person fails to appear in accordance with the summons issued upon such complaint the clerk shall send such person by certified mail, return receipt requested, a notice that the complaint is pending and that if the person fails to appear within twenty-one days from the sending of such notice a warrant for his arrest will be issued. If any person fails to appear within twenty-one days from the sending of such notice, the court shall issue a warrant for his arrest.

The notice to appear, provided herein, shall be printed in such form as the administrative justice for the district court department and the administrative justice for the Boston municipal court department may prescribe for their respective departments; provided, however, that a notice prepared pursuant to section twenty A or section twenty C of chapter ninety may be so revised or adapted that said notice may also be used for the notice provided for in this section.

Added by St.1971, c. 358. Amended by St.1973, c. 1107; St.1978, c. 478, § 279.

§ 17. Disposal of garbage or refuse in containers placed along highways

Whoever disposes of household or commercial garbage or refuse by placing it in a trash barrel placed on a public highway by the commonwealth, or by any political subdivision thereof for the convenience of the traveling public shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars.

Added by St.1962, c. 367. Amended by St.1963, c. 144.

§ 17A. Repealed by St.1979, c. 704, § 3

§ 18. Substance having property of releasing toxic vapors; sale, possession and use

No person shall intentionally smell or inhale the fumes of any substance having the property of releasing toxic vapors, for the purpose of causing a condition of intoxication, euphoria, excitement, exhilaration, stupefaction, or dulled senses or nervous system, nor possess, buy or sell any such substance for the purpose of violating or aiding another to violate this section.

This section shall not apply to the inhalation of anesthesia for medical or dental purposes.

Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

Any person who is discovered by a police officer or special police officer in the act of violating this section may be arrested without a warrant by such police officer or special police officer, and held in custody, in jail, or otherwise, until a complaint is made against him for such offense which complaint shall be made as soon as practicable and in any case within twenty-four hours, Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

Added by St.1966, c. 318.

§ 19. Sale of glue or cement to minors; smelling deterrent ingredients; register

Any person who sells glue or cement to a minor shall require such minor to properly identify himself and write his name and address legibly in a permanently bound register. The seller shall keep such register available for police inspection for a period of six months after the last sale is recorded therein. No such glue or cement shall be sold to a minor unless it contains allyl isothiocyanate (oil of mustard) or some other equally effective and safe deterrent against smelling or inhaling the fumes of such glue or cement.

As used in this section, "glue" or "cement" shall mean any glue or cement that contains a solvent or chemical having the property of releasing toxic vapors.

Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

§ 20. Burning of refuse, etc. within marine or shoreline boundaries

No person shall burn refuse, rubbish or demolition debris within the marine boundaries of the commonwealth, or within twelve miles from the shoreline of the commonwealth, whichever is the shorter distance. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

Added by St.1971, c. 304.

§ 21. Smoking in certain public places restricted; posting

No person shall smoke or have in his possession any lighted cigar, cigarette or other tobacco product in a public elevator, supermarket or single vehicle mass transit conveyance operated by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, other than personal offices. Smoking of any tobacco product or having in one's possession any lighted cigar, cigarette or other tobacco product shall be restricted to specifically designated areas only, if any, in museums, libraries, hospitals, nursing homes, trains, airplanes and other mass transit conveyances. The owner, manager, or other person in charge of said facilities, buildings, or vehicles shall post conspicuously an appropriate number of signs indicating those areas in which smoking or the possession of lighted cigarettes, cigars or other tobacco products is prohibited.

Any agency or agent of the commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions, who, upon inspection of any such facilities, building, or vehicles for purposes of enforcing any other state or local rule, ordinance or regulation, finds that an appropriate number of signs are not so posted, shall enforce said posting requirement.

Added by St.1975, c. 465.

CHAPTER 271

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC POLICY

Sec.
44. Settlement, release or statement by person in hospital; admissibility; reference to at trial; validity.

§ 44. Settlement, release or statement by person in hospital; admissibility; reference to at trial; validity

Except as provided below, no settlement or general release or statement in writing signed by any person confined in a hospital or sanitarium as a patient with reference to any personal injuries for which said person is confined in said hospital or sanitarium shall be admissible in evidence, used or referred to in any manner at the trial of any action to recover damages for personal injuries or consequential damages, so called, resulting therefrom, which statement, settlement or general release was obtained within fifteen days after the injuries were sustained and such settlement or release shall be null and void unless at least five days prior to the obtaining or procuring of such general release or statement such injured party had signified in writing his willingness that such general release or statement be given. This section shall not apply to statements or releases obtained by police officers or inspectors of motor vehicles in the performance of their duty, members of the family of such person or by or on behalf of his attorney. The provisions of this section shall not apply to chapter one hundred and fifty-two.

Added by St.1950, c. 166, § 1.

CHAPTER 272

CRIMES AGAINST CHASTITY, MORALITY, DECENCY AND GOOD ORDER

80D. Sale, etc. of living rabbits, baby chickens, ducklings or other fowl.
86. Stabling horses or mules on second or higher floors, in places other than cities.
86A. Stabling horses and mules above first floor or exceeding six in cities; use of exits.
86B. Stabling horses or mules exceeding fifteen.
86C. Smoking in buildings used for stabling horses or mules.
86D. Pails of water and sand in buildings used for stables.
86E. Entry upon premises to enforce sections 86A to 86D; ordering conditions remedied; service.
86F. Punishment for violation of sections 86 to 86D or for neglect to comply with orders under section 86E.
96. False notice of birth, marriage or death.
98A. Accommodations and privileges of blind or deaf or hearing handicapped persons with a dog guide; charges or fares.

§ 19. Procuring miscarriage

Whoever, with intent to procure the miscarriage of a woman, unlawfully administers to her, or advises or prescribes for her, or causes any poison, drug, medicine or other noxious thing to be taken by her or, with the like intent, unlawfully uses any instrument or other means whatever, or, with like intent, aids or assists therein, shall, if she dies in consequence thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than five nor more than twenty years; and, if she does not die in consequence thereof, by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than seven years and by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars.

§ 20. Advertising relative to miscarriage or prevention of pregnancy

Except as provided in section twenty-one A, whoever knowingly advertises, prints, publishes, distributes or circulates, or knowingly causes to be advertised, printed, published, distributed or circulated, any pamphlet, printed paper, book, newspaper, notice, advertisement or reference containing words or language giving or conveying any notice, hint or reference to any person, or to the name of any person, real or fictitious, from whom, or to any place, house, shop or office where any poison, drug, mixture, preparation, medicine or noxious thing, or any instrument or means whatever, or any advice, direction, information or knowledge may be obtained for the purpose of causing or procuring the miscarriage of a woman pregnant with child or of preventing, or which is represented as intended to prevent, pregnancy shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than three years or in jail for not more than two and one half years or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

§ 21. Instruments or other articles for self-abuse, prevention of conception or abortion, in general

Except as provided in section twenty-one A, whoever sells, lends, gives away, exhibits or offers to sell, lend or give away an instrument or other article intended to be used for self-abuse, or any drug, medicine, instrument or article whatever for the prevention of conception or for causing unlawful abortion, or advertises the same, or writes, prints, or causes to be written or printed a card, circular, book, pamphlet, advertisement or notice of any kind stating when, where, how, of whom or by what means such article can be purchased or obtained, or manufactures or makes any such article shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or in jail or the house of correction for not more than two and one half years or by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

§ 21A. Furnishing drugs, articles or information for prevention of pregnancy or conception

A registered physician may administer to or prescribe for any married person drugs or articles intended for the prevention of pregnancy or conception. A registered pharmacist actually engaged in the business of pharmacy may furnish such drugs or articles to any married person presenting a prescription from a registered physician.

A public health agency, a registered nurse, or a maternity health clinic operated by or in an accredited hospital may furnish information to any married person as to where professional advice regarding such drugs or articles may be lawfully obtained.

This section shall not be construed as affecting the provisions of sections twenty and twenty-one relative to prohibition of advertising of drugs or articles intended for the prevention of pregnancy or conception; nor shall this section be construed so as to permit the sale or dispensing of such drugs or articles by means of any vending machine or similar device.

Added by St.1966, c. 265, § 1.

§ 21B. Privately controlled hospital or health facility not required to perform abortion or sterilization procedures, or to furnish contraceptive devices or information or family planning services

No privately controlled hospital or other health facility shall be required to admit any patient for the purpose of performing an abortion, performing any sterilization procedure, or receiving contraceptive devices or information.

No privately controlled hospital or other privately controlled health facility shall be required to permit any patient to have an abortion, or any sterilization procedure performed in said hospital or other health facility, or to furnish contraceptive devices or information to such patient, nor shall such a hospital or other health facility be required to furnish any family planning services within or through said hospital or other health facility or to make referrals to any other hospital or health facility for such services when said services or referrals are contrary to the religious or moral principles of said hospital or said health facilities as expressed in its charter, by-laws or code of ethics, or vote of its governing body.

Any such hospital or other health facility exercising the rights granted in this section shall not on account of the exercise thereof, be disciplined or discriminated against in any manner or suffer any adverse determination by any person, firm, corporation, or other entity, including but in no way limited to any political subdivision, board, commission, department, authority, or agency of the commonwealth.

Added by St.1973, c. 521, § 2.

§ 22. Concealment of death of illegitimate child

A parent who conceals the death of the issue of such parent, which if born alive would be illegitimate, so that it cannot be ascertained whether it was born alive or, if born alive, whether it was murdered, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

Amended by St.1977, c. 848, § 1.

§ 23. Joinder of charges of murder and offence under section 22

A parent indicted for murder of the infant illegitimate child of such parent may also be charged in the same indictment with the crime described in the preceding section, and if acquitted of murder, such parent may be convicted of the concealment.

Amended by St.1977, c. 848, § 1.

§ 43A. Smoking in public conveyances and transportation facilities

Whoever, in or upon a railroad carriage, steamboat or other public conveyance, or in a terminal or other facility of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, after being requested by the person in charge of such conveyance or premises not to do so, or by an operator, guard or other employee of the corporation or authority operating the railroad, steamboat or public conveyance, smokes, or carries an open flame or lighted match, cigar, cigarette or pipe, when a sign prohibiting such smoking is displayed therein, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten days or by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or both.

Added by St.1947, c. 358. Amended by St.1968, c. 310.

§ 70. Taking dead body on process or execution

A sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable who takes the body of a deceased person on mesne process or execution shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months.

§ 71. Disinterring bodies

Whoever, not being lawfully authorized by the proper authorities, wilfully digs up, disinters, removes or conveys away a human body, or the remains thereof, or knowingly aids in such disinterment, removal or conveying away, and whoever is accessory thereto either before or after the fact, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than three years or in jail for not more than two and one half years or by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars.

§ 72. Buying, selling or possessing dead bodies

Whoever buys or sells, or has in his possession for the purpose of buying, selling or trafficking in, the dead body of a human being shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than two and one half years.

Amended by St.1974, c. 170.

§ 76. Ways, railroads, canals or public easements through burial grounds

Whoever lays out, opens, or makes a highway or town way, or constructs a railroad or canal, or any other thing in the nature of a public easement, over, through, in or upon any part of an enclosure, which is the property of a city, town, parish, religious society or of private proprietors and is used or appropriated for the burial of the dead, unless authority for that purpose is specially granted by law, or unless the consent of such city, town, parish, religious society or proprietors, respectively, is first obtained, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

§ 77. Cruelty to animals

Whoever overdrives, overloads, drives when overloaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, cruelly beats, mutilates or kills an animal, or causes or procures an animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, driven when overloaded, overworked, tortured, tormented, deprived of necessary sustenance, cruelly beaten, mutilated or killed; and whoever uses, in a cruel or inhuman manner in a race, game, or contest, or in training therefor, as lure or bait a live animal, except an animal if used as lure or bait in fishing; and whoever, having the charge or custody of an animal, either as owner or otherwise, inflicts unnecessary cruelty upon it, or unnecessarily fails to provide it with proper food, drink, shelter, or protection from the weather, and whoever, as owner, possessor, or person having the charge or custody of an animal, cruelly drives or works it when unfit for labor, or willfully abandons it, or carries it or causes it to be carried in or upon a vehicle, or otherwise, in an unnecessarily cruel or inhuman manner or in a way and manner which might endanger the animal carried thereon, or knowingly and willfully authorizes or permits it to be subjected to unnecessary torture, suffering or cruelty of any kind shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Amended by St.1968, c. 59; St.1972, c. 46; St.1977, c. 679; St.1977, c. 921, § 2.

§ 80D. Sale, etc. of living rabbits, baby chickens, ducklings or other fowl

No person shall sell, offer for sale, barter or give away as premiums living baby chickens, ducklings or other fowl under two months of age.

No person shall sell, offer for sale, barter, display or give away living rabbits, chickens, ducklings or other fowl which have been dyed, colored or otherwise treated so as to impart to them an artificial color.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the sale or display of baby chickens, ducklings or other fowl under two months of age by breeders or stores engaged in the business of selling for purposes of commercial breeding and raising or to prohibit the sale or donation of such chickens, ducklings or fowl to schools for use in classroom instruction.

Added by St.1947, c. 168. Amended by St.1973, c. 88.

§ 86. Stabling horses or mules on second or higher floors, in places other than cities

No person shall stable a horse or mule on the second or any higher floor of any building, unless there are two means of exit therefrom, at opposite ends of the building, to the main or street floor, unless such building is equipped with an automatic sprinkler system. This section shall not apply to cities.

§ 86A. Stabling horses and mules above first floor or exceeding six in cities; use of exits

No person shall stable a horse or mule above the first or ground floor of any building not equipped with an automatic sprinkler system, or horses or mules exceeding six in all on the first or ground floor of any building not so equipped, unless there are two unobstructed means of exit from each floor whereon it or they are stabled, as far apart as practicable and so constructed as to grade that the said animal or animals can quickly and safely leave the building in case of fire and approved as to situation, arrangement and utility by the chief of the fire department. The person in charge of horses and mules stabled in any building not equipped with such a system and requiring two exists as aforesaid shall cause each such animal to use each such exit at least once a week. This and the four following sections shall apply only to cities.

§ 86B. Stabling horses or mules exceeding fifteen

No person shall stable horses or mules exceeding fifteen in all at any one time in a building not equipped with an automatic sprinkler system unless a watchman is employed constantly on the premises to guard against fire.

§ 86C. Smoking in buildings used for stabling horses or mules

No person shall have a lighted cigarette, cigar or pipe in his possession in any building in which by the provisions of section eighty-six A two unobstructed means of exit are required or in which by the provisions of section eighty-six B the employment of a watchman is required, except in a room in said building made fire-resisting.

§ 86D. Pails of water and sand in buildings used for stables

On every floor of a building not equipped with an automatic sprinkler system, where horses or mules are stabled, there shall be kept in accessible locations and filled at all times, four pails of water and one pail of sand, for each one thousand square feet of floor space, to be used for no other purpose than extinguishing fires and to be so marked.

§ 86E. Entry upon premises to enforce sections 86A to 86D; ordering conditions remedied; service

The chief of the fire department or any person designated by him may, at all reasonable hours, enter into buildings within their jurisdiction where horses or mules are stabled, or upon premises adjacent thereto, for the purpose of enforcing sections eighty-six A to eighty-six D, inclusive, and if any such official or person so authorized finds the existence of conditions likely to cause a fire in such buildings or on such premises, he shall order such conditions to be remedied. Such order shall be served by delivering the same in hand or by posting the same in a conspicuous place on the building or premises affected thereby.

§ 86F. Punishment for violation of sections 86 to 86D or for neglect to comply with orders under section 86E

Whoever violates any provision of sections eighty-six to eighty-six D, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one month, or both. Whoever refuses or unreasonably neglects to comply with any order issued under section eighty-six E shall be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars for each day during which such refusal or neglect continues after service of said order.

§ 96. False notice of birth, marriage or death

Whoever wilfully sends to the publisher of a newspaper for publication a false notice of a birth, marriage or death shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

§ 98A. Accommodations and privileges of blind or deaf or hearing handicapped persons with a dog guide; charges or fares

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any blind person or deaf or hearing handicapped person accompanied by a dog guide, shall if such dog is properly and safely muzzled, be entitled to any and all accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of all public conveyances, public amusements and places of public accommodation, within the commonwealth, to which persons not accompanied by dogs are entitled, subject only to the conditions and limitations applicable to all persons not accompanied by dogs, and no such blind person or deaf or hearing handicapped person shall be required to pay any charge or fare for or on account of the transportation of any public conveyance of himself and such dog so accompanying him in addition to the charge or fare lawfully chargeable for his own transportation. Whoever deprives any blind person or deaf or hearing handicapped person of any right conferred by this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars; provided, however, that in the case of a deaf or hearing handicapped person, such person carries and displays upon demand, written evidence that the dog accompanying him is a dog guide.

Added by St.1938, c. 155, § 1. Amended by St.1978, c. 93; St.1978, c. 458, § 2.
